PREFACE

This book could not have been published without the interest and help of many persons who have become my friends. I owe a debt of gratitude to them for their generous assistance in contributing character sketches, bits of recorded conversations, family letters and anecdotes which recreate the personality of members of the family.

I realize this genealogy is far from complete. Partly through indifference on the part of some individuals, partly through imperfect records and often due to lack of any knowledge whatever of their ancestors, it has been impossible to carry to completion the lines of descent.

No attempt has been made to trace the ancestors of the persons who have married a member of the Frame-Fraim family, but whenever possible, a chart of such families has been included as a help to those who may desire to make further research along their own family lines.

To Mr. Edmund Van Dyke Cox Jr. I have a sense of deep obligation for his generosity in allowing me to copy his data on the Jesse² Frame family. Unless otherwise indicated, all the delightful and humorous letters written by members of this family were given to me by Mr. Cox and have added greatly to the interest and value of that chapter.

It is obviously impossible to acknowledge complete credits to all those whose help has made possible the compilation of this book but a word of sincere appreciation is extended to each of you to whom I feel deeply indebted and exceedingly grateful.

LETTER FROM THE REV. REUBEN³ FRAME TO HIS SON, THE REV.
WALTER REUBEN⁴ FRAME REGARDING THE ORIGINAL SPELLING OF THE FAMILY NAME.

Chicago, March 1, 1875

My dear Son,

Yours of the 18th ult. came to hand the 22nd ult. a week ago today. Hattie seems to be improving considerably & appears pretty comfortable now. All the rest of us here are in comfortable health. Will looks better than I ever saw him look before & Libbie seems quite well. How soon we may go East I do not know, not however I presume until the middle of April, perhaps not till the first of May.

I will now endeavor to give you what information I can about our ancestors. My Grandfather's name was David. He and one brother as I understand, came to this country. My grandfather settled in Chester County, Pa. and his brother went West as I understand near the line between Pa. & what is now West Virginia. Chester County was then largely a Quaker Settlement. A man by the name of Miller was a prominent member of that Society & of the community as I understand. My Grandfather was of the old Seceder stamp. Of course the Quakers would be opposed very much to his marrying in one of their families. But my Grandfather secured the affections of one of the daughters named Catherine, that is Catherine Miller & married her. Jacob Linley, one of the greatest, if not the greatest Quaker preacher known in this country, married another. This Jacob Linley was a very benevolent and hospitable man & as I have been informed his home was a stopping place for the delegates to the Gen. Assem. who then travelled on horseback. I was told that Jacob Linley was in his element when he had a number of Presbyterian Ministers & other persons at his house. The Rev. Linley Rutter of Chestnut Level is connected with this Jacob Linley by his second wife, who I believe was a Miss Rutter. My Grandfather was not a prosperous man in wordly matters and as his wife died I believe when the children were minors, they were brought up by their relations & when they grew up became so far separated that there was but little intercourse between them or their families for some time. I state this here before I speak of the spelling of the name.

How my Grandfather spelled his name I do not know, but my opinion is Fraim. So my father spelled his & was very tenacious about it always correcting everybody who would spell it Frame, saying that was the frame of a house. So all his children spelled their name till I, the youngest was about sixteen years of age. Then I lived with my Brother John & he was very fond of hunting up & visiting his relations. But when he visited them he found that they, I believe all he visited spelled their name Frame & on one occasion when one of them came to see him & saw his sign, said "Why you spell your name wrong". After being from home on one occasion & I believe on a visit to some of them, on his return said to me "Reuben, from this time my name is Frame. You may spell yours as you please." As I was disposed to defer to him, so I have spelled my name "me" ever since. I have now given you all that certain knowledge I have in my possession about both the spelling of the name & the change of my spelling.

I conversed with David Frame of Bloomfield, New Jersey about it, who I believe spells his name Frame & from this conversation I was led to believe both modes of spelling were wrong, but what the original mode was Fraime which more accords with the old English style and that some branches of the family dropped the "e" thus making it Frain others dropped the "i" making it Frame. One Brother of my Father's at an early age went to Ohio & in writing back to his Brother Jesse who died on Long Island, spelled his name Fream, but I presume this must have been wrong although I believe he was the best educated of all the Brothers, & if I mistake not became a Methodist Preacher or Exhorter.

I forgot to say that my Brother Benjamin & Br. Miller would never change the mode of spelling their name but still spelled it Frain & my Brother John's Son in Brooklin I believe follows them & not his Father in this respect. I do not know why.

Love from all. Mother says when she feels stronger she will write to you

From your affectionate

Father

(Note. According to the record at Old Swedes' Church, Wilmington, Del., FRAME is the spelling used by David Frame when he married Catherine Miller.)

THE FRAME - FRAM FAMILY

1. DAVID¹ FRAME, born in or before 1732; died in Chester County, Pa., in or after 1797; married at Old Swedes' Church, Wilmington, Del., 1 Feb. 1759, by the Rev. Mr. Unander, CATHERINE⁴ MILLER, born in New Garden Township, Chester Co., Pa., 24 Jan. 1738/9; died , daughter of James³ and Rachel² (Fred) Miller of New Garden Township, Chester Co., Pa.

The tradition of the family is that the Frames were Covenantors who due to persecution, left Scotland and settled in the north of Ireland. Later on some of them came from there to America and in 1754, the names of David and James Frame appear for the first time on the assessment list of New London Township, Chester Co., Pa. It is possible they were brothers. David is listed as a Freeman, (showing he was not married) hence was born in or before 1732. He and James are listed from 1754 to 1757, then they are transferred to the New Garden Township list where David is listed from 1758 to 1766. His name appears again in the same township in 1781 and 1785. The name of James Frame appears on the New Garden Township list up to 1763, after which his name disappears from the listings.

Catherine⁴ Miller and her family were Quakers, hence her marriage to David Frame was against the rules of the Society of Friends. Evidently David did not wish to become a Quaker, and Catherine would not return to the Society without her husband, for she was disowned by them as is shown by the records of the New Garden Monthly Meeting Minutes.

At Londongrove, 4 mo. 28, 1759. "Women inform that Katherine Miller alias (now) Fream 'hath Married out of the Unity of Friends likewise by a Priest to a Man not of our Society' though precautioned."

At New Garden, 5mo. 26, 1759. "Testimony signed against Katherine Fream. Aaron Musgrove & Joseph Dixon to shew that against Katherine to her and see it read in the respective meeting".

At Londongrove, 6mo. 30, 1759. "Testimony against Katherine Fream not yet read."

"Newgarden informs that Margaret Miller was confederate and assistant in carrying out y^e Marriage of Katherine Miller, now Frame, for which she appeared at this meeting to make a verbal ack. which is not sufficient & case continued".

At Newgarden, 7mo. 28, 1759. "Whereas Katherine Frame Alias Miller hath been educated amongst us, but for want of having a true regard for the Principle of Truth in her heart, let her Affections be drawn away by a man not of our Society, & was Married by a Priest Notwithstanding She had divers Times been Precautioned ' much Friendly Endeavors of Love Used by her Friends & Relations in hopes to Reclaim her from her Intentions: but their labours of love proved Ineffectual. Therefore for the clearing of Truth & Friends, we give this as our Testimony against her & disown her to be one of our Society, Until through the Mercy & Favor of God She Repents of the Evil of her out goings & the Trouble & Reproach she has brought on her Friends, which is our Sincere desire she may Given forth by order of Newgarden mo. Meeting held y^e 26: 5 mo. 1759 & signed in & on behalf of y^e same by"

Isaac Jackson Clk.

A letter of inquiry was sent to the Department of Records of the Society of Friends, 302 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., asking whether Catherine⁴ (Miller) Frame or her husband, David¹

Frame ever returned to the Society of Friends. In reply a letter dated 2 Nov. 1944 states: "I do not find that either Katherine or her husband or their children became members of the New Garden Monthly Meeting. I examined the indices up to the year 1824". Signed "Eleanor Melson"

Nothing of a personal nature has been found relating to the lives of David and his wife Catherine. Catherine's father, James³ Miller died in 1758/9, interstate. His second wife, Rebecca (Kirk) Miller was appointed administratrix, and when the estate was settled there was "set off for David Fraime and Catherine his wife, in right of said Catherine?" 159 acres of land. (Chester County Court House, West Chester, Pa., Orphans Court Records, Docket 6, pp. 58, 69, 77, 78).

On 28 Nov. 1759, David Fream was appointed administrator of the estate of Benjamin Miller, brother of his wife Catherine, who died intestate, unmarried and without issue. (Chester Co., Wills, Vol. II, p. 38).

On 6 Mar. 1777, "David Frame, yeoman of Newgarden Township, County of Chester, Pa., and Catherine his wife, John Marshall yeoman, of Bradford Township, and Sarah his wife, William Miller of Newgarden Township, miller, and Hannah his wife, (which said Catherine, Sarah and Hannah being the daughters of and only surviving issue of James Miller late of the said Township of Newgarden, yeoman, deceased) of the first part; Isaac Richards, yeoman, of the said Township of Newgarden and Rebecca his wife (the said Rebecca being widow and administratrix of the said decedent James Miller) of the second part"; sold to Jonathan Daws of Philadelphia for 700 pounds a plantation of about 200 acres of land with the buildings, barns, stables etc., which had belonged to James³ Miller. David and Catherine (Miller) Frame signed their names Fream although the indenture gives their name as Frame. (Chester County Court House, West Chester, Pa., Deed Book Y, pp. 145-148).

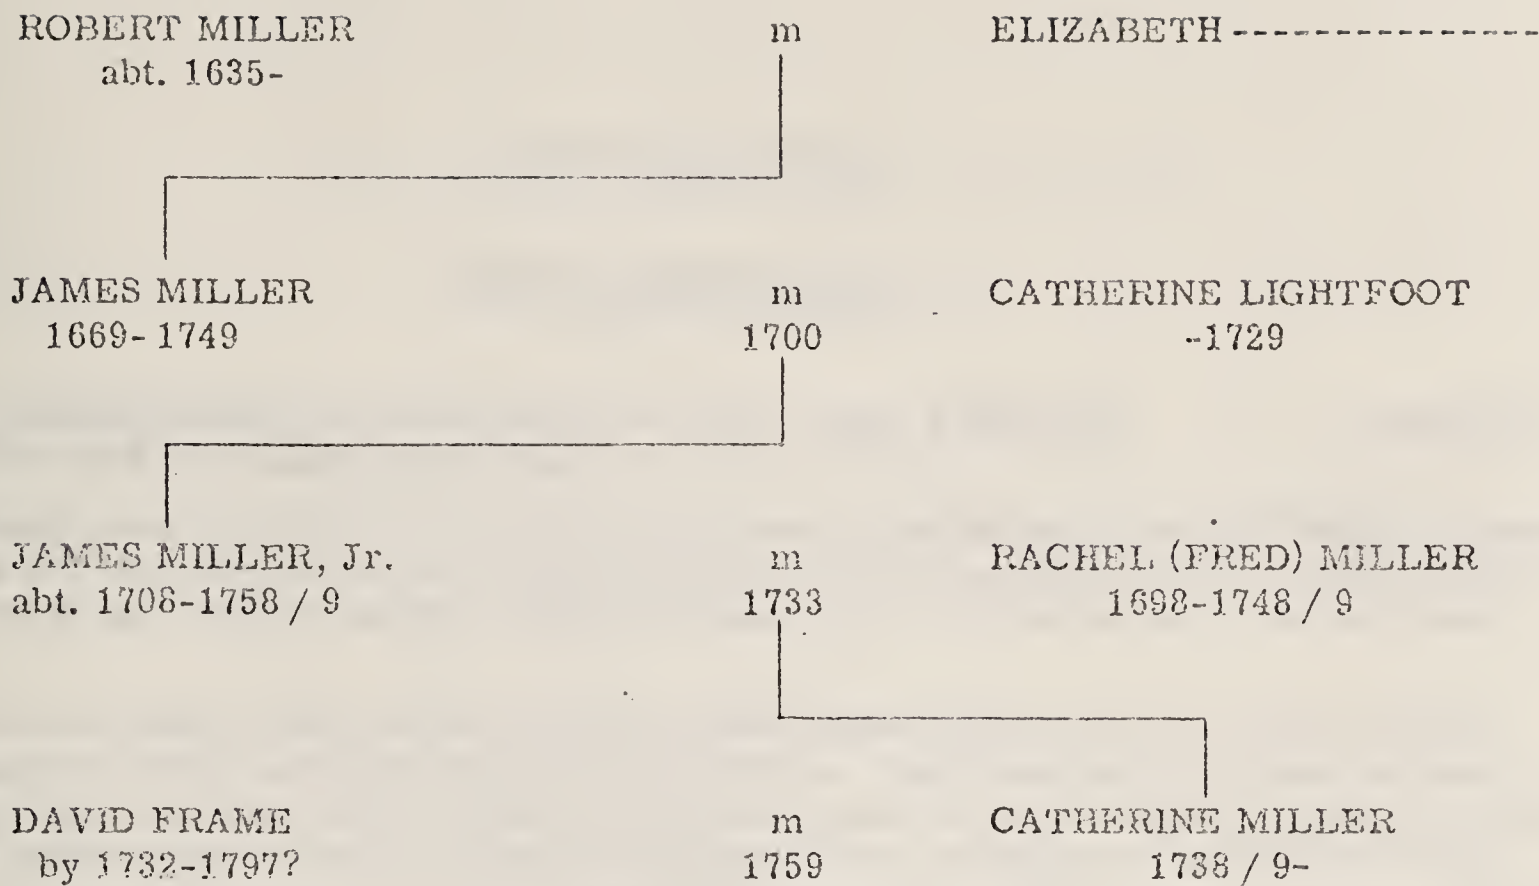

Catherine (Miller) Frame died prior to 15 Mar. 1785, as is proved by the following records.

At a Court held 15 Mar. 1785, Rebecca (Kirk) (Miller) Richards "having died some time previously", her one third interest in the estate of her first husband James³ Miller reverted to his children. The only remaining heirs were his daughters, Sarah wife of John Marshall; Hannah wife of Jacob Lindley; and the children of Catherine wife of David Fream, who received four sevenths of the dower. (Chester County Court House, West Chester, Pa., Orphans Court Records, Docket 9, p. 22).

"Whereas David Fraime. of Newgarden Twp. yeoman, and Catherine his wife, by their Indenture dated May 11 and 12, 1763, did grant. . . . a tract of land in Newgarden Twp. (adjoining land allotted Hannah Miller, Rebecca Miller and David Fraime) 22 acres to Jesse Miller, to hold by him the said Jesse Miller, his heirs & assigns forever upon special trust and confidence, Nevertheless that the said Jesse Miller his Executors or Administrators should & might at any time or times hereafter sell & convey all or any part of the said Premises with the appurtenances to such person or persons as should be willing to purchase the sameand should employ the money arising from such sale for the sole benefit & maintenance of said Catherine alone or to her children if any" Jesse Miller sells the land to Jacob Harvey for 309 pounds 8 shillings. Signed 22 Apr. 1785. Recorded 7 June 1785. (Chester County Court House, West Chester, Pa., Deed Book Z, p. 165).

The name of David Frame is not listed in the 1790 census of Chester County or in any other County of Pennsylvania. The 48 acres of land in Newgarden Township which David Frame bought from William Miller, 14 Nov. 1776, he sold to Jacob Lindley, 2 Jan. 1786. Since his wife Catherine had died, it is quite possible that he was no longer the head of a family, but was living with one of his children. The date of his death is not known. No will has been found nor any letters of administration on his estate. In the marriage record of his daughter Rachel, in 1797, she is referred to as the daughter of David of Sadsbury (Township), Chester County, which would indicate that he was living at that time.

JANE FRAME WILEY

SECOND GENERATION

JANE² FRAME (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 1 Dec. 1759; died _____; married William Wiley and lived near Beaver, Pa.

Jane² Frame was the eldest of the ten children born to David¹ and Catherine⁴ (Miller) Frame. The date of her birth and the statement that she married William Wiley and lived near Beaver, Pa., is given by her nephew, the Rev. Reuben³ Frame in his unpublished notes on the Frame family.

Soon after the death of her mother, Catherine, her father sold his farm to Jacob Lindley, who had married Catherine's half sister, Hannah Miller. The home may have been broken up at this time. For this reason the following references seem to indicate that the Jane Frame to whom they refer is Jane² Frame, daughter of David¹ Frame, and sister of Benjamin² Frame.

Sadsbury Monthly Meeting. 10. 5 mo. 1789. Jane Frame desired a certificate from the Sadsbury Monthly Meeting to the Hopewell Monthly Meeting which was in Frederick Co., Va. (On the same date a similar certificate was granted to Benjamin² Frame, his wife Elizabeth and their son George).

22. 7 mo. 1789. Jane Frame's request granted.

On 6 May 1813, Jane Frame was given a certificate from the Hopewell Meeting in Virginia to the Short Creek Meeting in Jefferson Co., Ohio. On the same date Benjamin² Frame, his wife Elizabeth and their children James, Rachel and William Frame received similar credentials and all the above named persons were received at the Short Creek Meeting on 20 July 1813.

Four years later, on 21 Jan. 1817, Jane Frame, Benjamin and Elizabeth Frame and Rachel Frame received certificates from the Short Creek Meeting, Jefferson Co., Ohio, to the Plainfield Meeting in the adjoining county of Belmont, Ohio.

Beaver County, Pa., borders upon the state line of Ohio and is not far from Jefferson and Belmont Cos., in Ohio.

BENJAMIN FRAME AND HIS DESCENDANTS

SECOND GENERATION

BENJAMIN² FRAME (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 10 Dec. 1761; died 1 June 1832, aged 71 yrs. 6 mo. 21 days; buried in the Friends' Burial Ground near the Guernsey Meeting House, near Smyrna, Ohio; married in Sadsbury Township, Lancaster Co., Pa., 9 Jan. 1788, ELIZABETH PIERCE, born 14 Aug. 1763, died _____; daughter of Gainor and Jane (----) Pierce of Sadsbury Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

The name of Benjamin Frame appears on the assessment list of Sadsbury Township, Chester Co., Pa., in 1785, 1786 and 1787 when he is called Freeman.

Benjamin² Frame, eldest son of David¹ and Catherine (Miller) Frame, became a member of the Society of Friends when he was twenty six years old, and it is from the Minutes of these Monthly Meetings that the following information has been taken.

Sadsbury Monthly Meeting. 18. 4 mo. 1787. "At a meeting held this day Benjamin Frame requests to be joined in membership with Friends." Three men were appointed to talk with him to learn if he was sincere in this desire.

16. 6 mo. 1787. "Friends in Benjamin Frame's case report they had a pretty seasonable opportunity with him and Believe the Motives of his Request to be measureably Right but think it best to leave it to his solid consideration a Month or two longer with which this Meeting concurs and his case is left under the same friends care".

19. 9 mo. 1787. Benjamin Frame's request was granted on this date and shortly after, Benjamin and Elizabeth Pierce, daughter of Gainor and Jane (----) Pierce appeared at a Monthly Meeting and announced their intention to marry.

The marriage of Benjamin Frame, son of David Frame of Chester Co., and Elizabeth Pierce, daughter of Gainor Pierce of Sadsbury Township, Lancaster Co., on 9. 1mo. 1788 is recorded. Among the witnesses to the marriage are Jane Pierce, mother of Elizabeth, Mary and Susannah Pierce, her sisters, and her brother George, also Thomas and Rachel Frame, brother and sister of Benjamin. One of the Friends appointed to attend the wedding reported "it was conducted in a good degree orderly".

On the 22. 4 mo. 1789, Benjamin Frame and his wife Elizabeth made a request to the Society of Friends at Sadsbury for a certificate for themselves and their son George to the Hopewell Meeting at Frederick Co., Va. This was granted to them the 10. 5 mo. 1789.

On the same date Jane Frame made a similar request which was granted. The identity of Jane Frame has not been proved. She may have been a sister of Benjamin.

The Hopewell Meeting Records have been published and from them we learn that Benjamin and Elizabeth Frame with their son George were received at the Monthly Meeting held 6. 7 mo. 1789. From that date until 1813, their names appear very frequently as witnesses to the marriages of members of the Hopewell group.

On May 6, 1813, Benjamin and Elizabeth Frame and their children, James, Rachel, William and Jane Frame were given certificates from the Hopewell meeting in Virginia to the Short Creek Meeting which was in Jefferson Co., Ohio, and on July 20, 1813 they were received there.

Four years later, on Jan. 21, 1817, Benjamin and Elizabeth Frame together with Rachel and Jane Frame are given certificates to the Plainfield Meeting in Belmont Co., Ohio.

The following paragraph is taken from the diary of Ruanna⁵ Frame Bundy, which is now in the possession of a daughter, Sarah C⁶. Bundy Cooper.

"My great grandfather's name was Benjamin and he married Elizabeth Pierce daughter of Ganor Pierce about the year 1787. Their marriage probably took place in Penna. and afterwards they moved to Shenandoah valley, Berkeley Co., Vir. There they became parents of 5 children. Geo., Wm., James, Jane and Rachel. These were about grown when they moved to Ohio & settled near West Grove meeting in 1816. They were members of Friends & the children all married members."

- * ii. William³, b. .
- * iii. Rachel³, b. .
- * iv. James³, b. .
- * v. Jane³, b. .

THIRD GENERATION

GEORGE³ FRAME (Benjamin², David¹), born probably in Chester Co., Pa., and before July 1789; died in Ohio when aged about 32 years; married in the West Grove Meeting House, Jefferson Co., Ohio, 13 Oct. 1816, LYDIA LEWIS, born ; died ; daughter of Thomas and Mary (----) Lewis of Harrison Co., Ohio.

The name of George³ Frame is included with that of his parents on the certificate granted them by the Society of Friends at Sadsbury Meeting, Pa., to the Society of Friends at the Hopewell Meeting, Frederick Co., Va., and dated 6 July 1789.

On 21 Mar. 1815, the Society of Friends at the Short Creek Meeting, Jefferson Co., Ohio, received a certificate from the Hopewell Meeting dated 9 Feb. 1815, proving that George Frame removed from Virginia to Ohio at the same time that his parents did so.

William Wade Hinshaw records the marriage and the names of the children with dates of birth.

Aaron⁴ Frame states that George died when about 32 years of age leaving two children whose names he also gives.

Children:

- i. Elizabeth Ann⁴, b. 13 Aug. 1818.
- ii. Thomas Lewis⁴, b. 14 Jan. 1820.

WILLIAM³ FRAME (Benjamin², David¹), born probably in Frederick Co., Va., in 1790; died in 1823, aged 33 years; married in the West Grove Meeting House, Jefferson Co., Ohio, 28 Sept. 1814, RUANNAH THOMAS, born in Tennessee in 1788; died 17 Apr. 1881, aged 93 years, daughter of Isaac and Rachel (Babb) Thomas of Harrison Co., Ohio.

The name of William³ Frame appears first on the certificate granted 1813-6-5, to his parents, Benjamin and Elizabeth (Pierce) Frame, by the Society of Friends, Hopewell Meeting, Frederick Co., Va., to the Short Creek Meeting, Jefferson Co., Ohio. Although he is not called their son, his marriage certificate states "son of Benjamin and Elizabeth of Harrison Co., Ohio."

Aaron⁴ Frame in his Journal wrote "William married Ruannah Thomas the 28th of 9th mo. 1814, with whom he lived 9 years and died at the age of 33, leaving her a widow with 4 boys."

Miss Lura Louise Frame writes "From somewhere I have the information that Greatgrandmother Ruannah (Thomas) Frame was born in Tennessee in 1788- 'raised to the age of maturity at Winchester, Va.' She was married in Ohio in the year 1814, lost her husband in 1823. This accords with the scrap quoted above. She died at the home of her son, Aaron Frame, near Barnesville, Ohio, on April 17, 1881. I have a picture in my mind of her room with its open grate fire carefully screened for her protection. This made an impression on me because our soft coal fires of that day were never screened. I also remember her large rag doll, which someone had made for her because she had so reverted to childhood that she enjoyed playing with it."

The following references seem to indicate that William and his family lived in Ohio from 1813 until 1820; that Ruannah remained in the same state until 1857 when she removed to Iowa, where her two elder sons were living. She evidently returned to Ohio, for in 1865 she was given another transfer from Iowa to Ohio. She died in Ohio in 1881 and was buried at Stillwater, Ohio.

1818, 6-23. William Frame and wife Ruannah and children, Aaron, and James were given a certificate from the Short Creek Meeting, Jefferson Co., Ohio, to the Plainfield Meeting, Belmont Co., Ohio.

1820, 1-18. William and wife Ruanna and children, Aaron and James T., received a certificate from the Flushing Meeting, Belmont Co., Ohio, dated 1819, 8-27, to the Short Creek Meeting.

1831, 5-24. Ruanna and children, Aaron, James T., Peter and William P., granted a certificate by the Short Creek Meeting to the Flushing Meeting, Ohio.

1838, 10-23. Ruanna and son William R. (P. ?) received by the Short Creek Meeting from the Flushing Meeting, Ohio.

1857, 3-25. Ruanna Frame given a certificate from the Short Creek Meeting to the Cedar Meeting, Iowa.

1863, 1-20. Ruanna Frame given a certificate to Hickory Grove Meeting, Iowa, from the Short Creek Meeting, Ohio.

1865, 3-25. Ruanna T. Frame received on certificate from Hickory Grove Meeting, Iowa, dated 1865, 2-22, by the Stillwater Meeting, Belmont, Co., Ohio.

The names of the following children appear on the records of the Short Creek Meeting, as follows:

Children:

- * i. Aaron⁴, b. 1815, 6-18.
- * ii. James T.⁴, b. 1818, 3-15
- * iii. Peter⁴, b. 1820, 4-15, d. unmar. in 1842.
- * iv. William P.⁴, b. 1823, 5-3.

RACHEL³ FRAME((Benjamin², David¹), born probably in Frederick Co., Va., between 1790-95; died 22 Feb. 1879, buried at Guernsey, Ohio; married at the Flushing Meeting House, Belmont Co., Ohio, 29 Oct. 1817, ABRAHAM BARBER, born 10 Nov. 1795; died _____; son of Samuel and Ann (----) Barber.

Rachel³ Frame's name first appears on a certificate granted 1813-5-6, by the Hopewell Meeting of Frederick Co., Va., to her parents and brother James, to the Short Creek Meeting at Jefferson Co., Ohio, and received by them 1813-7-20.

On 1817-1-21, she was given a certificate from the Short Creek Meeting, to the Plainfield Meeting, Belmont Co., Ohio. The latter part of the same year, 1817-10-21, Abraham Barber of the Short Creek Meeting was given permission to go to the Plainfield Meeting to marry Rachel Frame.

1818-2-24. Rachel Barber received a certificate from the Plainfield Meeting to the Short Creek Meeting.

1819-12-21. Abraham Barber and wife Rachel and daughter Elizabeth are transferred to the Flushing Meeting in Belmont Co., Ohio.

1823-9-23. Abraham Barber, wife Rachel and children, Elizabeth and Ann received a certificate from the Flushing Meeting to the Short Creek Meeting, Jefferson Co., Ohio.

1843-6-24. Abraham Barber, wife Rachel return to the Flushing Meeting, and the names of their children with dates of birth are there recorded.

AARON⁴ FRAME (William³, Benjamin², David¹), born near New Athens, Ohio, 18 June 1815; died 21 May 1896, and was buried at Stillwater, Ohio; married (1) at Harrisville, Ohio, 1 Sept. 1836, TALITHA THOMPSON, born between New Athens and Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, 8 Sept. 1816; died 14 June 1860, daughter of John C. and Rebecca (Carver) Thompson of Harrison Co., Ohio; married (2) at Guernsey Monthly Meeting, Guernsey Co., Ohio, 29 Sept. 1863, Achsah Smith, born _____; died 2 Nov. 1875 and was buried at Stillwater, Ohio, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (----) Smith of Guernsey Co., Ohio; married (3) at Guernsey Meeting House, 24 Oct. 1884, Lavinia H. Wright, born _____; died 28 Feb. 1916, daughter of William and Anne (----) Wright.

Aaron⁴ Frame was a member of the Society of Friends and a man of fine character and exceptional ability. His father had died when he was only eight years of age, leaving his mother with four sons, of whom Aaron was the eldest. He became a farmer and a contractor and builder, in both of which occupations he was most successful. Although the greater part of his life was spent in Ohio, where he was born and where he died, he left that state in 1856 and removed with his family to Iowa. There he remained for about seven years, but after the death of his wife Talitha, he brought his motherless children back to Ohio where his remaining years were spent.

His daughter, Ruanna Frame Bundy, wrote an account of the trip by boat from Wheeling, West Virginia, to Muscatine, Iowa. (p. 23).

Aaron Frame was a quiet, austere man with rigid and uncompromising religious beliefs, which caused him great travail of spirit during his lifetime. He was tall, slender, ascetic looking, walking solemnly into Meeting in his ample brimmed black silk hat to sit straight and almost unmoving through the hour.

Although he was given to periods of deep depression because of his extremely conscientious nature, his grandchildren do not remember him as a gloomy man. He had a keen sense of humor and often reproached himself for a free use of it. He was not especially interested in children, but always had a smile and a kindly word for them and sometimes would tease them in a gentle way. One sensed a wistful kindness and tolerance that grew with age, and endeared him to his grandchildren.

He left a journal which he kept for years in shorthand, but he rewrote it in long hand before his death. It is comprised too largely of his religious "exercises" as seemed to be a prevalent trend with some of the writers of his time who were also members of the Society of Friends. But through it all runs an interesting story of the life of those days.

One of the incidents he related reveals the contradictory traits of character with which he had to contend.

"He had driven to town, about two miles, one Spring day, in the deep mud of a dirt road after the frost was out of it. On his return Old Charlie, his horse, was so caked with mud that he sought to add to his comfort by scrubbing him down after he was back in the stable. But Old Charlie would not stand still and finally Grandfather became so exasperated he dashed the bucket of water in Old Charlie's face. Later in the evening he became so ashamed for having lost his temper, and especially with a dumb animal, that nothing would ease his conscience except that he go down to the stable and apologize to Old Charlie, which he proceeded to do." (Contributed by Emily Frame Llewellyn)

Aaron Frame and his first wife, Talitha Thompson, met for the first time when they were children.

"While living at New Athens, Ohio, Aaron's mother used to ride on horseback to Mt. Pleasant to attend yearly meetings, a distance of 12 miles or more. On one occasion of which Aaron who was 11 years of age, rode the horse behind his mother, as the way was long they stopped for the night at J. C. Thompson's, a prominent farmer & also an intimate associate of her younger days. The little daughter Talitha of the household was then an active child of 10 years, and very helpful to her mother, which attracted the attention of young Aaron. As they rode on the way to Mt. Pleasant the next morning he confided to his mother his admiration for the little Talitha, saying he had never seen so smart a little girl, and thus was begun a mutual attachment which was to ripen into a happy life union, at a later period, when she was 20 and he was 21 in 1836." (Contributed by Sarah C. Bundy Cooper)

Though Aaron Frame was a stern and austere man in the matters of duty and discipline, he had his tender and gentler side, often unknown and unsuspected by those with whom he dealt, as was evidenced by many intimate incidents in his life.

Along in the 1830's when Aaron Frame and Talitha Thompson were young it seems to have been the frequent custom for a young man to send to his sweetheart a "true love's knot" during courtship. These were drawn on paper and a message written in to follow the winding path of the design. The following lines, incised between the lines of an intricately twined design, were found among the papers of Aaron Frame after his death, having been kept all the years since his first courtship.

A True Love's Knot to thee, My Dear, I send,
An emblem of my love without an end;
Winding, twisting in and out,
Never ceasing, turning round about;
And as thee sees, it links and crosses here, -
So hath thy beauty proved to me a snare,
For by the influence of true love I find
I am bereaved both of heart and mind.
So, Fairest Creature, look with pity down
And do not on thy faithful servant frown,
But pardon him that doth thy love desire,
And doth delight thy beauty to admire.
None else so dear, then let thy goodness shine
In beams of comfort from a Fair Divine,

That so my ravished soul, raised by thy smiles,
 May pass to bliss, forgetting all its trials, -
 That true love still may be in action
 And evermore be tending to Perfection.

Sarah C. (Bundy) Cooper, Monrovia, Calif.

"In 1856 my father, A. Frame, sold our Jolly Run house and moved to Cedar Co., Iowa. It was a great time for us children. I expect to our mother a time of trial, care and anxiety, tho in her quiet way she went thro all with calmness & patience. We started from our home early in 4th month one bright but muddy spring morning. My sister and I sat high up on a load of goods. Some big snow drifts still in fence corners were to be seen as the horses plunged thro the heavy roads, on the way to Wheeling to take the boat. Reaching Wheeling we were soon aboard the Altamont, and by 3 o'clock were on our way down the Ohio River. Our household goods, our carriage, and farming implements were shipped with us.

About 2 months before this our uncle James Frame and brother Thompson, who was then a lad of 16 yrs., had gone across the country in a wagon, in order to have the farm work well started by the spring time. I remember my poor dear brother had a bad tooth ache, and swollen jaw, when the time came for them to start, and feeling so badly besides, at leaving us all for so long a journey, he was quite disheartened and we felt sorry to see him go. Father went a few miles with them. I have heard my brother tell that he got out to walk on one long hill, towards evening of the 1st days travel, and was feeling so badly that he almost determined to turn back and let uncle go on without him but could not feel that it would be just to uncle, and no doubt cause him trouble and anxiety, and afterwards was glad he did not, as his jaw grew better, and he became interested in the new experiences along the way. He had his dog with them and that helped to comfort him.

It took several weeks to make the trip. It was considered to be a 7 or 800 mile journey and with a wagon team quite different from auto trips these days over improved roads. There was snow on the ground when they left Ohio & they had runners fixed to the wheels, so they could disconnect them when no longer needed.

The place my father had bought from uncle James Frame. The house was still furnished with their things, chickens and implements still there, so uncle and brother could go right to living when they reached the prairie home. They seem to quite enjoy their experience house-keeping besides the necessary preparations for crops. Brother tho't uncle a jolly companion & told how when he found a new nest of eggs he would set up a loud cakling to let him know of it, & in many funny ways tried to interest the lonely boy.

But to return to our river trip of 2 weeks; first on the Ohio and then the Mississippi river to Musatine, Iowa, which was one of daily interest & enjoyment to us children, who had never been far from our native valley home between Harrison Co. hills.

The evening of the afternoon on which we took the boat, just as the first table was filled, there came a great shock, tumbling some off their chairs, and dishes from the table, and a panic ensued. I was taking charge of a dear little baby, while its mother went to the table. Was thrown to my knees, but with the baby safe in my arms, ran out on the guards to see what had happened; and there saw other children who had been knocked down, laughing and scrambling to their feet. Then people came pouring out from the diningroom, so frightened that some seemed ready to jump over the railing into the river, believing the boat was about to sink. One woman fainted in the door, others crowding & jumping over her, the daughters screaming trying to protect their mother from being crushed. The Captain came on the scene and was with difficulty able to make the people understand that there was really no danger; that a rope had become fast in some way & caused the boat to be unmanageable for an instant & it had swung around & one end struck the shore with great force, but soon righted & no damage done. However it had caused much excitement, even the clerk of the boat in a wild rush for the door fell over a rocking chair & broke it. I heard the mother of my baby calling in tones of terror, Where's my baby? Where's my baby? as she rushed about. I could not get thro the blockaded door, so I passed it to a man near by & asked him to give it to her. She snatched it and ran down thru the cabin & laying it in my grandmother's lap, kept on her way still shouting wildly "Where's my baby"? The poor thing was too frightened to know what she was doing or that she had been given the baby. There were some who kept their poise thro the chaos. My parents and grandmother seemed calm and ready to soothe others. After the fright was over supper was indulged in, & contentment reigned. Children were not permitted at first table, and we loved to take care of the little ones while their mothers ate. There were several nice families on board, and the young people & children had pleasant times together. Our own little brothers too, were our care. "Ollie" two years old and "Willie" 4. One day when I had care of Ollie he kicked his shoe off into the river, which I thought quite a calamity, but mother soothed my sorrow.

A circumstance that impressed my memory was connected with the woman that fainted in the doorway at time of the fright. They were evidently poor people. A family of 3 girls grown & almost grown, a boy of 6 yrs. & an older one. Not being able to pay for berths the mother girls & youngest boy, slept on the floor of the cabin, & must furnish their own provisions. The boat would stop at the cities & often there was a city on each side of the river & it would stop at one, & then over to the other. The deck passengers wd. frequently get off to lay in a stack of "eats".

One day several of them had gone off & when they returned the boat was just pulling away from the shore. This womans husband was among them. He seemed almost frantic, that he was being left, running up & and down the shore shouting & scratching his head. The Captain was calling to them to cross over to the other side on the ferry, the boat would stop there; but instead the poor man gave a leap, & went into the water, his packages swam away, & his condition looked pitiful. A rope was thrown to him & he was taken on board. Meanwhile the passengers were thronging the guards, watching the scene with apparent solicitation, tho their feeling were evidently toned down, by the actions of the wife who was standing with them at the rail, kept shouting in tones of agony, "I don't care who gets left so dad gets on." When she found he was safe, she sent the girls to get dry clothes & send to the deck for him. We young people had not been taken with her even before this display of selfish tho't as she used her girls harshly we tho't, slapping them at times when we tho't they had done nothing wrong. Was partial to her 6 year old baby boy, scolding the girls & making them wash & comb him. We agreed among ourselves that a boy of 6, should know how to dress & comb his hair. Poor woman her life had no doubt been one of trial hard work & poverty, without opportunities that many have. Such should have our compassion & encouragement rather than blame. As the years pass we learn from lifes school of experiences, & many things come to look different to what they did to our young eyes.

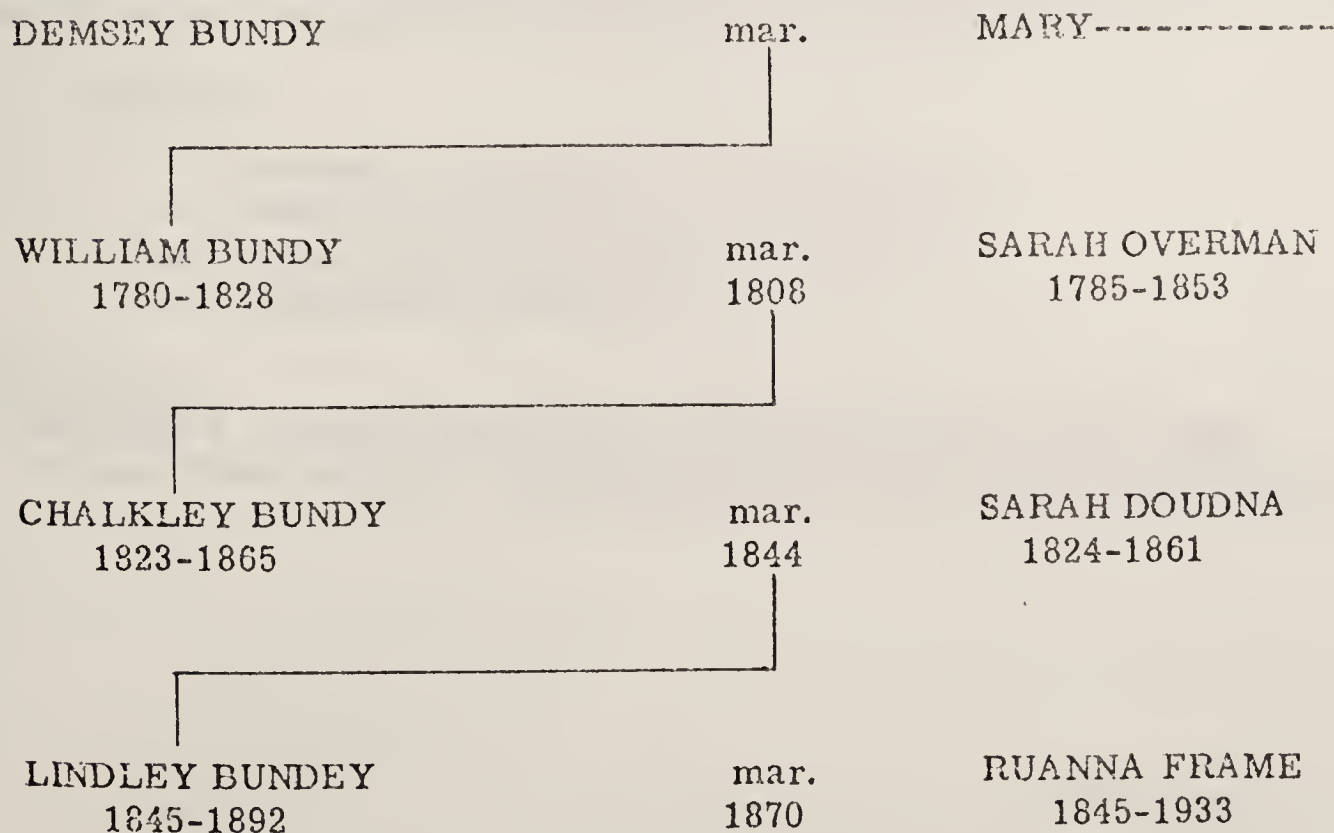

A few days after the circumstances above related, we reached Louisville, Kentucky where our uncle Wm. Frame was superintendent of a large factory for the manufacture of machinery. Finding that the boat would tarry at this place, and learning from the Captain at what time it would leave, my father and brother Amasa went into the city to see our uncle. They came back at the hour appointed & were informed by the Captain, that it would be detained at least 2 hrs. longer; they decided to return to the factory, & altho they came back promptly to the hour set they found the boat was gone. In those days there were no autos, street cars nor telephones so the only thing they could do, was to hire someone with a rig to take them down the river road, and at each City they must look over the boats at the wharfs to find the one they had lost, having to search on both sides of the river, caused it to be quite tedious. According to my recollection it was 3 days before they were successful. Meanwhile there was anxiety on board, for besides our grandmother & immediate family, father had also under his care two widows with little families, all of whom were interested in their early return. I must say, that we children watched our mother to see how she would bear the trial, when her husband was left. We found her patient & trustful, able to comfort those about her. There was rejoicing on their safe return. At St. Louis we were transferred to the Metropolitan, which proved a much larger & finer boat than the Altamont. When we passed the mouth of the Missouri river, where it joins with the Mississippi, I remember how muddy the waters of the Missouri looked. It was interesting to watch them mingle. For some distance, half the river was muddy & the other half clear. We saw many interesting things along the shore, & sometimes father would take us up on the hurricane deck where the view was unobstructed & we would see the Pilot at his wheel & the sailors at their duties. There were many passengers on river boats in those days, as railroads were not so numerous as since, and the fare by boat less expensive even with board included. After two weeks on the river, we landed at Muscatine, Iowa, about the middle of 4th mo. 1856.

I recollect how awkwardly we felt walking on solid earth after being accustomed to the motion of the boat, but soon this passed off & we were glad our journey was so near over. Our brother Thompson met us with conveyances & the evening of the next day we reached Springdale, a small town only one mile from our new home on the wide prairie."

WILLIAM AARON⁵ FRAME (Aaron⁴, William³, Benjamin², David¹), born near Barnesville, Ohio, 23 July 1852; died at Pasadena, Calif., 20 Jan. 1941; married at Barnesville, Ohio, by a Justice of the Peace; 29 Mar. 1877, FLORENCE MASON OUTLAND, born near Barnesville, Ohio, 8 Oct. 1855; died at Pasadena, Calif., 23 Apr. 1943, daughter of Joseph and Phebe D. (Thomas) Outland.

William Aaron⁵ Frame and his younger brother Oliver were mechanically minded and worked equally well with machinery and wood. Their father, Aaron⁴ Frame in addition to his farming did a great deal of building also so the boys received their early training from him. On his farm was a sort of carpenter shop, and William later on told his children that he always looked forward to the rainy days for then he could work in this shop. When his two younger brothers reached maturity, the three young men opened a machine shop in Barnesville, Ohio, where William and Oliver did the shop work and Ira ran the office. Their building had "Frame Bros." worked into the slate roof and there it stood for many years after they sold out and left it to go to California in 1887.

William Aaron Frame worked some as a builder but most of his life was a machinist. He was a genius in that field and could have made money from his various inventions but was not interested in that end of it. When his employer needed a machine for some particular operation which could not be obtained in the market, he simply invented it. They would get the patent and give him a small bonus with which he was content.

After a few years spent in California, William Aaron returned to Ohio and purchased from his father about one acre of land off the farm, upon which he built a house. There he lived until about 1930, when having retired, he returned to California and settled at Pasadena. He spent much of his time in his small workshop at the rear of his house, making furniture and small articles for his family and friends. These not only show meticulous craftsmanship, but are beautiful in line and proportion.

It was a source of grief to his father that William Aaron did not find a Quaker bride, but married out of Meeting. However he "kept his right" by "acknowledgment", that is, when the elders were sent to deal with him for his deviation, he acknowledged he was sorry he had to marry contrary to Friends' discipline. After twenty five years of married life, his wife, Florence M. (Outland) Frame became a member of the Society of Friends. Her children had joined the Society by request several years earlier.

William Aaron Frame and his wife lacked only two months and a few days of celebrating their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary at the time of his death. They may perhaps have the record in the family for long married life together.

OLIVER C.⁵ FRAME (Aaron⁴, William³, Benjamin², David¹), born in Ohio 24 May 1854; died at Laguna Beach, Calif., 30 Mar. 1943; married at Barnesville, Ohio, by a Methodist minister, 15 Oct. 1885, MARY ESTELLA McDONALD, born near Barnesville, Ohio, 13 Aug. 1861, daughter of John and Martha (Reed) McDonald.

Oliver C. Frame was also mechanically minded and worked as a machinist with his two brothers for a number of years in Ohio and in California, where he moved in 1887. Later he became interested in cabinet work and this led him into the making of organs, when he discovered he had the rare gift of an "ear" for pitch, so he turned to the installation of organs. He installed them in all sections of the country, even as far East as New York.

He was a skilled wood carver and the figures he carved as well as pictures frames and other small articles show artistic ability and skilled craftsmanship.

Oliver C. Frame also married "out of Unity". Like his brother William A. Frame he "kept his right" by "acknowledgement", acknowledging his regret that he had married contrary to Friends' discipline. Mr. and Mrs. Frame considered the matter at some length, as to whether he should go to her church or she to his. Finally they agreed amicably that each should attend his and her own, and this they did during their married life.

Mrs. Frame is living in Pasadena (1952) having celebrated her ninetieth birthday on the 13 Aug. 1951. They had no children.

Mr. and Mrs. Bundy both became osteopathic physicians, practicing in Philadelphia for some years. They removed to California in 1914, where Dr. Ira S. Frame continued to practice in Pasadena until his death in 1931, mourned by a wide circle of friends. He had the gift of compassion. They had no children.

JAMES FRAIM AND HIS DESCENDANTS

SECOND GENERATION

JAMES² FRAIM (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 18 Mar. 1764; died in Chester Co., Pa., 8 July 1833; married there in 1790, RACHEL FRED, born in Chester Co., Pa., in 1765; died 29 May 1836.

James² Fraim is listed in the Census of 1790 from East Marlborough Township, Chester Co., Pa., as James Frame, with "one female". This was the year of his marriage.

The "Index of Wills and Administrations of Chester County, Pa." does not give the name of either James Fraim or of his wife, Rachel (Fred) Fraim.

The parents of Rachel (Fred) Fraim have not been found though careful research has been made at the Chester County Historical Society at West Chester, Pa.; at the Court House for Wills, Deeds etc.; and in the Monthly Meeting Minutes of Quaker Records.

A tradition in the family that Rachel Fred was disowned because she married James Fraim, a Hixite Quaker, is not true, since the Quakers did not separate into Orthodox and Hixite until 1827.

Search has been made to learn whether either James or Rachel (Fred) Fraim ever applied for membership in the Society of Friends. At the Department of Records in Philadelphia and the Friends Historical Library at Swathmore College, Swathmore, Pa., no record of such an application has been found.

Children, all born in Chester Co., Pa.:

- * i. Benjamin³, b. 25 Sept. 1791.
- ii. Jesse³, b. 20 Feb. 1793.

Dear Son:

I received your letter on Saturday and hasten to answer it. We are all well except Mother she has been sick for the last six weeks but I believe she is getting better. I have no objections to your going to the country you speak of. I don't see that it can do any harm except the cost, and it may be a benefit to you and it may not. I would just mention to you that your uncle Reuben came on Saturday last. He is on his way to Cincinnati, O. to attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church and he would be glad to see you. If you will meet him at the depot in Harrisburg on the arrival of the Fast line on Tuesday, you will see him. He will carry this letter today to Lancaster and put it in the office and stay there today. Tomorrow he will be in your place. I have no time to write more and have been writing this without spectacles, there are perhaps blunders in it. I can't read it. (I can't quite make out the words) but ever yours

Affectionately Benj. Fraim

Copy of a letter sent to Reuben³ Frame (James², David¹) by his brother Benjamin³ Frame (James², David¹).

Near Penningtonville, Jan. 15, 1863.

Dear Brother:

Your welcome letter of December 30th was duly received and read again and again with much pleasure and interest. It found me still very feeble or at least quite helpless though my general health is tolerably good, but I am unable to move still; to move either my arm or leg on the right side. For some time past I have had spells of nervous twitching followed by such intense soreness of the palsied members as to cause me great pain or suffering when moved. My mind remains clear and unshaken for which I am truly grateful to God, the giver of all good. I spend most of my time in reading; but the works have to be small and light so that I can hold them in my left hand while lying or propped up in bed. I see clearly the goodness of God in this affliction; for while I am unable to attend to or see to business I am free from every worldly care and can spend my time in contemplation of and preparation for the hour and article of death. God has given me a good hope and I feel that I can patiently and submissively await his gracious purpose.

Mr. Latta (?) died the last of May. He had not been pastor of the church for two years but a standing supply in every case of failure which was often the case. Rev. W. F. P. Noble supplied our church for a time but at the commencement of this war, though on the side of the Union, he was a little too strong, caused the church to split and for a time everything went wrong. Our present Minister came here the first of June, since which time our church has been doing very well. He had fifteen additions at his first and only communion. He is well acquainted with your son John. I have heard him frequently speaking of him in very high terms.

We would all be very glad to see you here but as a matter of course we can neither ask nor expect you to come so far for that purpose.

Four of my sons are in the army. Two of them are in an engineer company and are now in Harper's Ferry. George is in the 2nd Pennsylvania Cavalry; was taken prisoner and paroled but is now exchanged and expects to be home in a few days. They are all this far safe and well.

John Mercer is still living. Has become quite temperate and is doing very well. He married a wife with some property. His brother George was here one week since and is well.

We are all in our usual health and desire one and all to be remembered to yourself and family very kindly.

Affectionately your brother

Benjamin Frame

(It is interesting to note that in writing to his son, Ira, Benjamin spells his name Fraim, while in his letter to his brother Reuben, he signs his name Frame.)

St. Louis, June 6, 1900

My Dear Cousin:

Your dear letter just received, and so glad to hear from you.

It would give us much pleasure to have you stop over and make us a visit and we will meet you at the depot and also see you to the train. Please let us know when to expect you.

We are house-keeping, and your cousin is at home at this time and will be delighted to see you.

My daughter is teaching but her school closes the 16th of this month.

Let us hear from you, what road, and what hour you will arrive in St. Louis, and we will be at the depot to meet you.

So glad to hear from you all, and wish your mother could come with you.

My husband and Daughter join me in love to you and your Mother.

With best wishes and love, I am ever your affectionate cousin,

M. I. McClintock
6151 Etzel Ave.

P.S. We are half a block in the country therefore receive our mail at 1117 Etzel Terrace, St. Louis, Missouri.

St. Louis, June 15, 1900

My Dear Cousin,

Your letter, also paper containing clippings received. While affairs are in a deplorable condition, I think it is exaggerated in the papers.

The attack upon women has been in the Southern part of town where the foreign element predominates.

We have one Street Car Company that is not in the strike "The Suburban" which is in half a block from us, and about ten blocks from Union Station, but all trains do not stop.

If you could arrive in St. Louis in the morning, there would be no difficulty in getting to our house, either by the Suburban cars or Wabash R.R. In the evening the cars are overcrowded as it is the only line that is not in the strike and I think it would be impossible to get even standing room when they reach 18th Street as often Mr. McClintock has to stand or hang on in the rear when he takes the cars as far down as they run.

I notice that the "Banner Limited", Chicago, Wabash, arrives in St. Louis at 7.56 A.M. There is a Wabash train that stops at Hillside, our Station, that leaves Union Station at 7.40, or we can probably get a Cab or conveyance across 18th Street to Suburban, and have no difficulty at all in the morning, as the crowds are going down town.

I do not think there is any danger on either of these roads. Of course we would not travel on the Transit Company's cars for fear of some danger, as we can never tell what will happen. I have given you the full situation of affairs but consider the Suburban safe. Hope you will decide to make us the promised visit. Your cousin says, he is anxious to see you once more again.

Our daughter's school closes today.

All join me in love to you and your Mother.

With best wishes and hoping to hear that you will come to see us, I am as ever,

Yours affectionately,

M. I. McClintock

Miss Harriet Frame,
2310 Indiana Ave.,
Chicago, Ill.

My Dear Cousin,

Your ever welcome letter was received some days ago. We were indeed sorry to hear of your illness but trust you have entirely recovered and will be able to make us the promised visit. I am happy to say, that I see by the papers, that the long strike is ended and hope that everything will be restored to order and prosperity.

My husband was suddenly called away this morning but hopes to be back in a week. He is very well.

We are having very warm weather the last few days. I do not know whether we will leave the city or not. I have a brother in St. Albans, Vermont, and they want us to make them a visit and we may do so the latter part of the month.

I was glad to hear of Selby Vance's success. I remember him quite well. My daughter said that one of her teacher friends told her they had called a Mr. Vance to their Church here in St. Louis, and I wondered if it was Selby.

My son Willie is living in Decatur. He is married and has a dear little boy almost three years old.

Give our love to your Mother, and would love to see her. Often speak of our pleasant visit at your home.

Let us know what day and hour you will arrive, and we will meet you and return you to the depot, but hope you will make us a good visit.

My husband and Daughter join me in love to you and trust that you are well.

With best wishes and hoping to hear from you very soon, I am as ever,

Your affectionate Cousin
M. I. McClintock

St. Louis, Sept. 19, 1900

Dear Cousin Harriet,

Your ever welcome letter was received just after we arrived home from the East, where we spent a pleasant time. We had hoped to hear from you before we left home but were disappointed.

My Brother wrote us from Colorado, where he had been spending a few weeks, to be ready to go home with him, that he had his private car, and so on the 25th July Fanny and I met them at Union Station and accompanied them to Vermont. We stopped a day in Detroit, also at Niagara Falls, Toronto and Montreal; visited Boston, New London and enjoyed an Ocean trip to Block Island and a trip up Lake Champlain to Ft. Ticonderoga. The scenery was perfectly grand. We enjoyed delightful cool weather. We stopped on our return to see Willie and wife at Decatur. We were gone something over five weeks, and had to return on account of school. Fanny and I were both benefitted by the trip.

Mr. McClintock is well as usual. He has just gone down the river on the boat.

I was sorry we did not get to return by the way of Chicago, but we had remained longer than we had anticipated so had to hurry home.

I enclose some poetry written by Mr. Jordan and published in O. C. E. Young Folks. He is still with us and wishes to be remembered to you.

Hope you can return by the way of St. Louis. We enjoyed your visit so much.

Fanny and Mr. McClintock join me in love to you. Hoping to hear from you soon and with best wishes, I am

Yours affectionately,

M. I. McClintock.

JOHN³ FRAIM-FRAME (James², David¹), born in Chester Co., 12 July 1797; died in Pennsylvania, 26 Jan. 1840; married ----.

John³ Fraim-Frame was referred to in a letter written by his younger brother, the Rev. Reuben³ Frame, to his son Walter R.⁴ Frame regarding the spelling of the family name. The reference appears to indicate that John³ Fraim-Frame was not a farmer, but the owner of a shop, and that he had a son living in Brooklyn who spelled his name Fraim.

MILLER³ FRAIM (James², David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 24 Feb. 1802; died at Lancaster City, Pa., 24 Mar. 1853; married at Coatsville, Pa., 5 Feb. 1824, by the Rev. James Latta, ANN ELIZABETH DEVAUTH (or Demuth) of Lancaster Co., Pa.

The following obituary notice was found in the family Bible of the Rev. Reuben³ Frame, his brother.

"In this city, on the 24th inst., Miller Fraim, Esq, aged 51 years and 1 month.

"Mr. Fraim a few years since filled the office of Treasurer of Lancaster County. He was an honest, upright man, kind and gentle in his spirit, faithful in the various relations of life, and greatly respected in the community in which his earthly career came to its close. During the decline of health which preceded his demise, and especially in his final illness, he was sustained by his hope in the Redeemer, and with calmness he yielded back his spirit to God who gave it. The large attendance at his funeral indicated the general sorrow which was felt for his removal from the world in the meridian of his days and the warm sympathy that was cherished for his afflicted family"

A letter from the Rev. Reuben³ Frame, his brother, written to a nephew, Ira Newton⁴ Fraim states "We took our course to Oberlin to visit Dr. Allen who married your uncle William Frame's daughter. From there our course was southward through Ohio visiting friends and your uncle Miller's family. Your aunt and Reuben live together devoting themselves to their confectionery. Samuel, who died, left his family about thirty thousand dollars."

"They are living very nicely in a fine house he built before his death. His only daughter and eldest child is married to a very pleasant young man, are keeping house and have one child. She is handsome, intelligent and very pleasant. Her husband's name is Van Horn, a cousin of their pastor."

The Census Records for Lancaster City, Pa., South east Ward, Aug. 12, 1850, p. 340, gives the following:

Miller Fraim	48 yrs.	Confectioner.
Elizabeth Fraim	44	"

(REV.) REUBEN³ (FRAIM) FRAME (James², David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 18 June 1804; died at Chicago, Ill., 31 Mar. 1891; married at Flushing, Long Island, 18 Oct. 1832, by the Rev. Elias W. Crane, of the Jamaica Presbyterian Church, MARGARET STEWART⁷ SELBY, born at New York City, 9 Aug. 1808; died at Chicago, Ill., 6 Feb. 1902, daughter of Capt. John⁶ and Sarah⁶ (Carmer) Selby of New York City and of Flushing, Long Island.

Reuben³ Fraim changed the spelling of his name to Frame in 1825 to correspond to the spelling adopted by some of his cousins. He prepared for college at West Nottingham Academy, Md., and in 1826 was graduated from Jefferson College (now Washington and Jefferson College) at Washington, Pa. The following year he returned to the West Nottingham Academy as a teacher and remained one year. He had united with the Presbyterian Church in 1821, and while in college decided to become a minister. With this object in view he entered the Princeton Theological Seminary in the autumn of 1827, completed one year of study, taught one year in Clinton, N. J., then returned to the Princeton Seminary and was graduated in the class of 1831. He was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of New Castle on 16 Apr. 1831, and on 13 Feb. 1833, he was ordained by the Presbytery of Cincinnati, Ohio and installed pastor of the church at Bethel, Claremont Co., Ohio. The pastoral charge on this occasion was given by the Rev. Lyman Beecher D.D.

He held the following pastorates in the Presbyterian Church:

Bethel, Claremont Co., Ohio, 13 Feb. 1833-1834.

South Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., 9 Oct. 1834-30 Oct. 1850.

Wappinger's Falls, Dutchess Co., N. Y. 1 Dec. 1850- 1 Apr. 1855.

Fond du Lac, Wis., 1 Apr. 1855- Apr. 1858.

Morris, Grundy Co., Ill., 1 Sept. 1859-1 Oct. 1863.

Bethel, Ohio was a Home Mission field at that time. In Fond du Lac, Wis. Mr. Frame organized the First Presbyterian Church in that place, under the Board of Home Missions. He was the first pastor of the Morris Presbyterian Church. When his eyesight failed owing to the growth of cataracts, he resigned his pastorate and his son John Selby⁴ Frame, who had just completed his theological training at Princeton Seminary, was called to be his successor.

Mr. Frame and his wife continued to reside at Morris, Ill. until 1875, when because of failing health, they moved to Chicago, Ill. to live with their youngest daughter, Mary Elizabeth, the wife of William Gilman. Reuben³ Frame died there 31 Mar. 1891, aged 86 years, and his wife, Margaret Stewart⁷ (Selby) Frame also died there 6 Feb. 1902, aged 93 years. Both are buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago., Ill.

A memorial to the Rev. Reuben Frame, the Rev. John S. Frame, and John B. Davidson was given to the Morris Presbyterian Church by Sarah Selby (Frame) Davidson, daughter of Reuben Frame, wife of John B. Davidson and sister of John Selby Frame. It is a window very beautiful in design, of stained glass of fine quality and rich coloring, which occupies one side of the small stone church. It is arched, and has three panels. The center section portrays Christ blessing little children. He is seated in the garden of a small house, with a view of distant hills. One child is in His lap, another is standing by His knee and a third leans from an open window, all gazing intently into His face. In the panels flanking the central one is the following quotation: "Suffer little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God."

The will of Reuben³ Frame, dated 3 Nov. 1890, proved 12 May 1891, is on file at the Probate Court of Cook Co., Chicago, Ill. Probate Record of Wills, Book No. 12, p. 595. It named his heirs in the following order. Grandson John Davidson Frame; daughter Harriet; daughter Margaretta F. Hossack; wife Margaret S. Frame; children of daughter Catherine deceased; children of son Walter Reuben deceased; daughter Sarah S. wife of John B. Davidson; children of son John Selby deceased; daughter Mary Elizabeth wife of William Gilman; grandson Selby Frame Vance. The executors were William Gilman and his wife Mary Elizabeth Gilman.

Children, (except the eldest) born at the Parsonage at South Salem, Westchester Co., N.Y.:

- * i. Sarah Selby⁴, b. at Flushing, L.I., 8 Mar. 1834.
- ii. Harriet⁴, b. 27 Dec. 1836; d. at Hinsdale Sanatorium, Hinsdale, Ill., 22 Aug. 1921. Unmar.
- iii. William Miller⁴, b. 22 Sept. 1837; drowned at Wappingers Falls, N.Y., 26 Aug. 1851.
- * iv. John Selby⁴, b. 8 May 1839.
- * v. Margaretta⁴, b. 22 Nov. 1840.
- * vi. Catherine⁴, b. 27 Sept. 1842.
- * vii. Mary Elizabeth⁴, b. 15 June 1844.
- * viii. Walter Reuben⁴, b. 26 Jan. 1849.

Reuben Frame to his nephew; Ira Newton Fraim.

Chicago, Ill. Dec. 31st 1875

Dear Nephew,

Before 1875 closes I thought I would show you that we have not forgotten you. We arrived here at our journeys end, five months and one day from the time we set out. We ought to be sincerely thankful that our long journey was free from any serious accident and attended with few annoying circumstances.

We had a very pleasant visit at your Cousin Wm. McClintock on the bank of the Ohio river. His family are very pleasant and pleasantly situated. We also visited his sister Rachel now Mrs. Dunlop, about two miles from him close on the same river.

We did not feel like stopping long enough to visit with the other members of that family, who are mostly settled on that region of country and generally I should judge, doing well.

From there we took our course to Oberlin to visit Dr. Allen who married your uncle William Frame's daughter. They are finely situated.

From there our course was southward through Ohio visiting friends and your Uncle Miller's family. Your Aunt and Reuben live together devoting themselves to their confectionary. Samuel, who died left his family about thirty thousand dollars.

They are living very nicely in a fine house he built before his death. His only daughter and oldest child is married to a very pleasant young man, are keeping house and have one child. She is handsome, intelligent and very pleasant. Her husband's name is Van Horn, a cousin of their pastor.

We were disappointed at St. Louis as your cousin Reuben F. McClintock had left home before my letter had reached him for New Orleans, so we did not see them. Their cousins and their friends however laid themselves out to make our visit pleasant.

From there we visited our daughter Kate at Lexington and then our daughter Maggie at Odell, and from there to this city where your aunt has been ever since. We had expected when in Lexington, to return there and spend the winter, but after coming here our daughter Mrs. Gilman and her husband held out so many inducements we concluded to chance the winter here as we could get about so much better and have the prospect of more privileges and attending lectures etc. Leaving your aunt here I went to Morris and sold our homestead and fixed up my secular affairs, and then returned here where we are very comfortably situated and expect to remain until next spring. What we will do after that, whether we rent and keep house we have not decided. The grape vines you so kindly offered, we should find a place for them next spring. I will write you. I hope you are all well and wish you a happy New Year.

With love to you all, in which your aunt unites, I am as ever your uncle

R. Frame.

P.S. Our address is care William Gilman, 586 W. Van Buren St. Chicago, Ill.

This letter is in the possession of Alida Fraim Lewis, daughter of Ira Newton Fraim, now living at Frederick, Md.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN⁴ FRAIM (Benjamin³, James², David¹), born 11 Aug. 1834, or 30 Jan. 1836.

The question has been raised as to the death of Benjamin Franklin⁴ Fraim. That he was alive and competent to transact business as late as 27 June 1868 is definitely established by the following documents on file in Chester Co., Pa. (1) Last Will and Testament of Benjamin³ Fraim dated 21 May 1862. Admitted to probate 30 May 1867. (2) Indenture made by Harrison Graham and Catherine Fraim as Executors of the last will and testament of Benjamin³ Fraim to Benjamin⁴ Fraim dated 27 June 1868, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, Vol. P. 7, pp. 271 -3.

The facts disclosed by the foregoing records are as follows. Benjamin³ Fraim at the time of making said will owned a farm of 65 acres in West Fallowfield Township, Chester Co., Pa. In said will he empowered his executor, Harrison Graham and his executrix, his wife Catherine, to sell and convey said tract and directed the said Graham to invest the proceeds in trust for his said wife Catherine. But before his death he himself according to the recitals contained in the above indenture entered into Articles of Agreement with his son Benjamin⁴ Fraim to sell said farm to his said son for the sum of $1870.00 payable 1 Apr. 1872, and by his said son assuming and agreeing to pay a mortgage against said premises amounting to $2355.00. Benjamin³ Fraim having died and the terms of said Articles of Agreement having been fully performed by the said Benjamin⁴ Fraim, the conveyance was made to in accordance with the said terms of said articles and the authority contained in said will.

According to the record of Ira Newton⁴ Fraim regarding the names and dates of birth of his brothers and sisters, there were two boys named Benjamin Franklin Fraim. One was born 11 Aug. 1834, and the second was born 30 Jan. 1836. This second date agrees with the Census Records dated 7 July 1870, for the West Fallowfield Township, Pa. p.7.

SARAH SELBY⁴ FRAME (Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Flushing Long Island, N. Y., 8 Mar. 1834; died at Sioux City, Iowa, 5 May 1913; married by her father, at Morris, Ill., 28 May 1861, as his second wife, JOHN B. DAVIDSON, born near Mt. Jackson, in Beaver (now Lawrence) Co., Pa., 28 July 1815; died at Morris, Ill., 13 Apr. 1891.

Sarah S. Frame Davidson was widely known for her generous interest in all public affairs and was especially endeared to the members of the Presbyterian Church at Morris whose interests she always cared for with affection. She was a woman of wide intelligence, of rare grace and gentle bearing.

Having no children of their own, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson took their niece, Carrie Selby Gilman to live with them from the time she was two years old until she became thirteen.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Davidson sold her house in Morris, and went to Chicago to live near her mother and two sisters. There she remained until 1908. When her sister, Mary Elizabeth Frame Gilman removed to Galesburg, Ill., she followed her, remaining in Galesburg until 1912, when both sisters moved to Sioux City, Iowa. There she died.

John B. Davidson was the sixth of eleven children. He lived on his father's farm until he was sixteen when he left home and had training in various mercantile stores at Middletown and Lowellville, Pa., and at Poland, Ohio.

In 1845, he married Catherine, daughter of Dr. Butler of Lowellville, Pa. In 1854 he moved to Morris, Ill., where his wife died on 13 Apr. 1858. In 1855, with Messrs. Walker and Alford, he established the first boot and shoe store in the city. In 1858 he sold out his interest and in 1860 was elected to the office of circuit clerk of Grundy County, which office he filled for eight years. He also established a hardware store in Morris but after a few years turned to the insurance business, which he followed for the remainder of his life.

Before arriving in Morris, he had invested somewhat extensively in city real estate and farming lands in the surrounding county. Among the foremost men of wealth and influence in the city, he did much to encourage enterprises to locate there and became a director and heavy stockholder in the Morris Bridge Co., the Morris Gas Co., and the Grundy County National Bank. He was a trustee in the Presbyterian Church and later an elder. Possessed of a kindly and generous spirit, his hand was always open to relieve distress and he was faithful in all that he undertook.

In memory of her husband, her father and her brother, Sarah S. Frame Davidson gave a very beautiful stained glass window to the Morris Presbyterian Church. Mr. Davidson and his two wives are buried in the Evergreen Cemetery at Morris, Ill.

(REV.) JOHN SELBY⁴ FRAME (Reuben³, James², David¹), born in the Parsonage at South Salem, N. Y., 8 May 1839; baptized in the Presbyterian Church there, in Sept. 1839; died in the Parsonage at Champaign, Ill., 13 Oct. 1874; married at 40 Fourth St., Troy, N. Y., 11 Aug. 1864, by the Rev. D. S. Gregory, assisted by the Rev. J. T. Duryea, CLARA WINCHESTER⁸ DANA, born at Troy, N. Y., 24 June 1842; died there 20 Apr. 1895, daughter of James⁷ and Mary Jane⁷ (Weed) Dana of Troy, N. Y.

John Selby⁴ Frame prepared for college under his father's instruction, and as the family had removed to Fond du Lac, Wis., in 1855, he entered that autumn the Presbyterian college known as Carroll College at Waukesha, Wis., where he remained two years. In the fall of 1857, he entered the Junior class of the Westminster Presbyterian College at Fulton, Callaway Co.,

Mo., and after one year there he became a member of the Junior class of Princeton College, graduating in the Class of 1860. Immediately after graduation from Princeton College, he entered the Princeton Theological Seminary and was graduated in the Class of 1863. He was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of New Brunswick, N. J., on 4 Feb. 1863.

His first pastorate was at Morris, Ill., where he succeeded his father, the Rev. Reuben Frame, who had been compelled to resign his pastorate owing to the growth of cataracts. He remained at Morris seven years, and then accepted a call to the Presbyterian Church at Champaign, Ill., where he died after a short illness while his wife was in Troy, N. Y., on a brief visit.

The Rev. John Selby Frame was a tall slender handsome man with blue eyes, black curly hair and regular features. He possessed in a high degree the power of attracting others to him, combined with charm of manner, gentleness and unfailing kindness and sympathy. One of his friends said of him, "Whenever I saw a small group of people in animated conversation at the church gatherings, I was sure to find John in the center, for he had a magnetic quality which drew individuals to him." Even those who knew him slightly spoke of his courteous consideration of others.

Mr. Frame was at all times deeply interested in civic and political life and frequently preached on these subjects. He believed in the Temperance movement, and when the community decided to hold an out-door mass meeting and he was asked to make the address, he accepted. The day before the meeting he received a threatening anonymous letter stating that if he preached on that subject he would be assassinated. The address was given. Nothing occurred. The night however was chill and damp, and as a result of his exposure, Mr. Frame caught cold. He developed pneumonia and three days later the tolling of the church bell announced to his people and to the city at large that he was at rest.

Clara Winchester (Dana) Frame was of medium height with a good figure, an erect carriage and a quick step. She had deep violet blue eyes, brown hair and dimples in her cheeks as well as a deep one in her chin. She was educated at the Troy Female Seminary, now known as the Emma Willard School at Troy, N. Y., and completed her education at "Maplewood" a boarding school at Pittsfield, Mass. She had a great love for and appreciation of music and her training in voice and on the piano was the best afforded at Troy and at her boarding school. She was the possessor of a clear, pure soprano voice whose lovely quality remained until her death at the age of fifty-two. Mr. Frame had a fine baritone voice so he and his wife sang much together and found pleasure and relaxation in so doing.

Mrs. Frame was naturally cheerful and happy, with a delightful sense of humor. Like her father, James Dana, she was a good story teller and mimic and she had that rare charm which attracted to her people of all types and ages. She never offended by unkind criticisms, and held her friends as readily as she won their confidence.

The married life of Mr. and Mrs. Frame, though so brief was an exceedingly happy one. They were both deeply religious, and though the care of a rapidly increasing family made constant demands upon the time and strength of the young mother, she was intensely interested in doing all that was possible to assist her husband in his work. When at the age of thirty two she found herself a widow, with four small children to care for and educate, she disclosed the real nobility of her character, by the manner in which she adjusted herself to her sadly changed life. Returning to Troy, N. Y. to be near her relatives she continued to live there until her death twenty years later. During all that time her life was devoted to meeting each day's responsibilities bravely, patiently and cheerfully, enduring privations without complaint or bitterness, trusting in God's gracious love and protection and looking forward to the time when, her earthly duties having been fully performed, she might be reunited to her beloved husband in Heaven.

The will of Clara Dana Frame is on file at the Court House, Troy, N.Y. It mentions the names of her four children. Mr. and Mrs. Frame are buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Troy, N. Y.

CATHERINE⁴ FRAME (Reuben³, James², David¹) born at the Parsonage, South Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., 27 Sept. 1842; baptized at the Presbyterian Church there 1 May 1843; died at Chicago, Ill., 6 Aug. 1890; married at the home of her parents in Morris, Grundy Co., Ill., by her father, the Rev. Reuben³ Frame, 23 Dec. 1863, the REV, SAMUEL ELBRIDGE VANCE, born at Paris, Edgar Co., Ill., 29 July 1835; died at Pontiac, Ill., 3 Mar. 1901, son of Andrew Milton and Esther (Shelledy) Vance of Paris, Ill.

Catherine⁴ Frame was about sixteen years of age and was attending school in Fond du Lac, Wis., when her father accepted a call to become minister to the Presbyterian Church at Morris, Ill. She remained in Fond du Lac until the close of the school year, graduating with the honors of her class. She then joined her parents in Morris, Ill., and remained with them until her marriage four years later.

Catherine⁴ Frame Vance was a very devoted wife and mother. She was a zealous worker and helpmeet to her husband in the cause of Christianity and gave special attention to the missionary field of labor. She died while on a visit to her sister, Mary Elizabeth Frame Gilman, wife of William Gilman of Chicago.

The Rev. Samuel Elbridge Vance was a descendant of John Vance through his son Andrew² Vance, who emigrated from the north of Ireland between 1700 and 1715, settled near Harrisburg, Pa., and later removed to Frederick Co., Va. and settled on the Opecquon Creek near Winchester, Va. He aided in organizing the Opecquon Presbyterian Church, the first Protestant Church west of the Blue Ridge. The will of Andrew² Vance filed for record 2 Apr. 1754, mentioned four sons: Samuel, Andrew, Alexander and John. Samuel, Andrew and John moved to Abington, Va. and died there.

John³ Vance born 12 Feb. 1736; died at Abington, Va., 20 Aug. 1823; married Jane Black, born in England 4 Feb. 1741. She died at Abington 2 Feb. 1824.

Samuel⁴ Vance born near Abington, Va. 27 Dec. 1769, married there 4 Feb. 1793, Mary Blackburn, born near Abington, 28 Dec. 1769. They moved to Paris, Ill. about 1821, bought land from the government established the County-seat, gave land for the Court House and made brick for the erection of the Presbyterian Church. Samuel⁴ Vance died 6 May 1856 at Paris, Ill. and his wife died there also 1 May 1852.

Andrew Milton⁵ Vance born near Abington, Va. 3 Jan. 1804, moved with his parents to Paris, Ill. He died at Cassville, Mo., 10 Sept. 1868. He married 29 May 1829, Esther Shelledy, born 6 Sept. 1809, died 15 Feb. 1847.

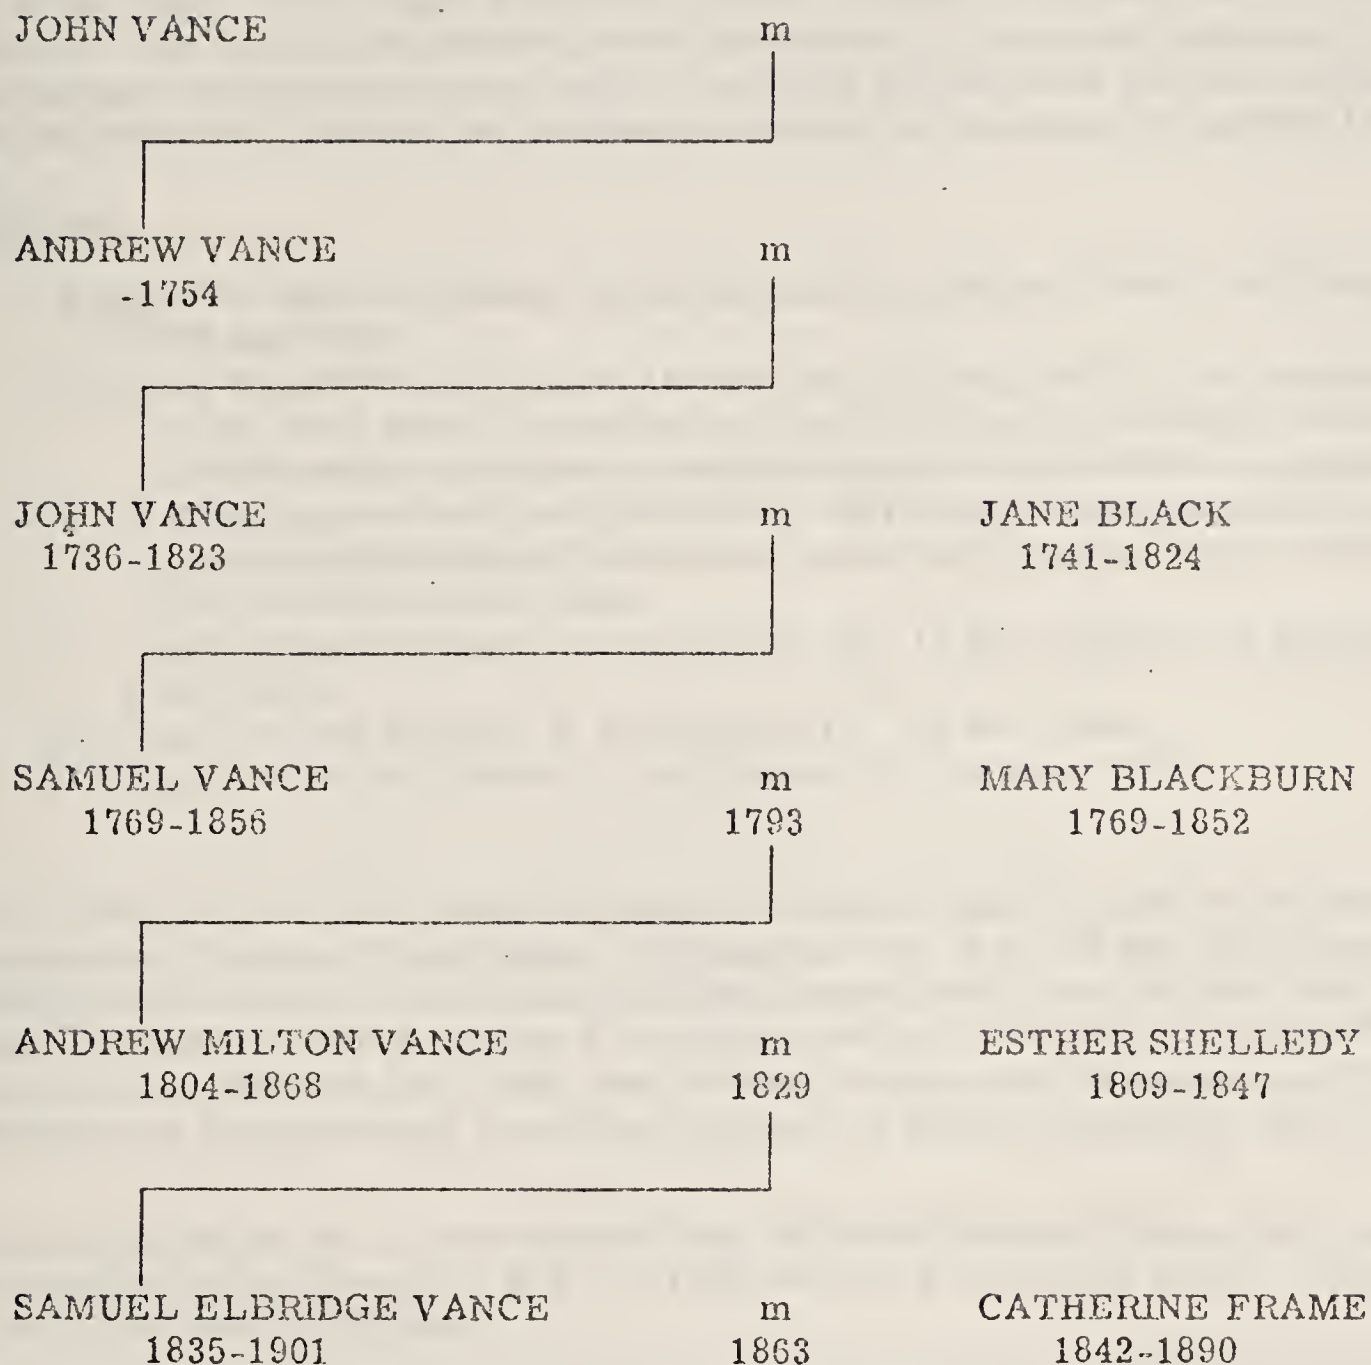

In America the Vances are called Scotch-Irish, but in Scotland and Ireland they are called French. The name was DeVans, probably of Norman descent.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance are buried at Morris, Ill.

Children:

- * i. Selby Frame Vance, b. at Oneida, Knox Co., Ill., 17 Nov. 1864.
- * ii. Harriet Shelledy Vance, b. at Oneida, Knox Co., Ill. 18 Mar. 1867.
- * iii. Edward Elbridge Vance, b. at Granville, Putnam Co., Ill., 23 July 1872.
- * iv. James Milton Vance, b. at Lexington, McLean Co., Ill., 21 May 1875.
- * v. Catherine Stewart Vance, b. at Lodi, Columbia Co., Wis., 19 Sept. 1885.

MARY ELIZABETH⁴ FRAME (Reuben³, James², David¹), born at the Parsonage, South Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y. 15 June 1844, baptized at the Presbyterian Church there, 30 Nov. 1844; died at Sioux City, Iowa, 10 Mar. 1916; married by her father, the Rev. Reuben Frame, at Morris, Ill., 13 July 1865, as his second wife, William Gilman, Jr., of Ottawa, Ill., born at Chambersburg, Pa., 7 Sept. 1834; died at Phoenix, Ariz., 11 Mar. 1902, son of William Gilman (born at Wickham, Berkshire, England) and his wife, Sarah (Warner) Gilman of Chambersburg, Pa.

After her marriage, Mary Elizabeth⁴ (Frame) Gilman lived at Ottawa, Ill., where her husband was engaged in the manufacture of farm implements. Mr. Gilman was educated at Dickenson College, Carlisle, Pa. He was endowed with creative genius, and invented the first power corn sheller. His business prospered and finally grew into the Gilman, King and Hamilton Co., one of the important industries in Ottawa. He was a man of great prominence in his day. In 1869 he retired, and in 1872 the family moved to Chicago and Mr. Gilman began dealing in real estate, as his health had been impaired by the strain of his manufacturing interests.

Chicago was their home for nearly thirty years. William Gilman, Jr., died of pneumonia at Phoenix, Ariz., where he and his wife were spending the winter of 1902.

In 1908, Mrs. Gilman moved to Galesburg, Ill., with her son-in-law, William J. Hayward, and after four years there she moved again with him and his daughters to Sioux City, Iowa. She died at his home there. Mary Elizabeth⁴ (Frame) Gilman's life was one of untiring devotion to her family. She was a most capable, intelligent woman, of excellent judgment, a good business manager, the bulwark of her family. Loved by all who knew her, her memory is precious and inspiring. She and her husband are buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago, Ill.

Children:

- i. Charles Reuben⁵ Gilman, b. at Morris, Ill., 14 Oct. 1866; d. at Chicago, Ill., 17 Aug. 1886.
- ii. Mary Frame⁵ Gilman, b. at Ottawa, Ill., 18 Dec. 1869; d. at Chicago, Ill., 22 Nov. 1892. The Third Presbyterian Church of Chicago paid this tribute to her: "Her's was a character of unusual firmness and stability, combined with a winning sweetness and gentleness. Her work in the Sunday School, among the young people in Erie Chapel, and in the Girls' Mutual Benefit Club speaks for her earnest consecration.
- iii. Emily Warner⁵ Gilman, b. at Ottawa, Ill., 11 Mar. 1872; d. at Chicago, Ill., 1 July 1874.
- * iv. Carrie Selby⁵ Gilman, b. at Chicago, Ill., 12 Feb. 1878.
- * v. Margaret Selby⁵ Gilman, b. at Chicago, Ill., 28 Nov. 1879.

(REV.) WALTER REUBEN⁴ FRAME (Reuben³, James², David¹), born at the Parsonage of the Presbyterian Church at South Salem, Westchester Co., N.Y., 26 Jan. 1849; baptized at the Presbyterian Church there, 1 June 1849; died at Stevens Point, Wis., 29 Jan. 1890; married by his father, the Rev. Reuben³ Frame at Trempealeau, Wis., 7 Oct. 1879, ELLEN STEVENS, born near Fond du Lac, Wis., 26 Apr. 1852; died at West Prairie near Trempealeau, Wis., 20 Aug. 1908, daughter of Alexander and Anne (Scott) Stevens of Brechin, Scotland, and of Trempealeau, Wis.

Born in South Salem, N. Y., the boyhood days of Walter Reuben⁴ Frame were spent in Wappenger's Falls, Dutchess Co., N.Y.; in Fond du Lac, Wis., and in Morris, Grundy Co., Ill., where his father held pastorates.

Walter Reuben Frame was educated at Princeton University, graduating in the Class of 1872 after which he entered the Princeton Theological Seminary and graduated with the Class of 1875. He was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry by the Presbytery of New Brunswick, N.J. on 6 Oct. 1875 and was stated supply at Kingston, Pal, in 1875 and 1876.

He held the following pastorates in the Presbyterian Church:

La Crosse, Wis.	1876-1879
Hudson, Wis.	1879-1884
Stevens Point, Wis.	1884-1890

Mr. Frame was permanent Clerk of the Synod of Wisconsin 1879-1882, and Stated Clerk of this Synod, 1882-1890, consequently was well known at home and abroad, being universally recognized as one of the outstanding clergymen of the state. He was also a most conscientious, progressive citizen, respected and beloved not only by his own parishioners, but by all the citizens of Stevens Point, regardless of denomination or religious preference.

The corner stone of the Walter R. Frame Memorial Church at Stevens Point, Wis., was laid in September 1892, and this church was dedicated 22 Nov. 1896.

Ellen (Stevens) Frame was of Scotch descent. Her father, Alexander Stevens, came from Breckin, Scotland to this country and settled first at Lynn, Mass., where he married Anne Scott, also from Breckin, though he had not known her while living there. The climate of Lynn did not agree with him, and he developed asthma, so he and his wife removed to Wisconsin, settling first in or near Fond du Lac, but by 1855, he was on West Prairie where he took up farm lands. West Prairie is five miles from Trempealeau and eight miles from Winona, Minn.

Mrs. Frame was a graduate of Galesville College, a small church college near her home on West Prairie. After graduation she taught in the public schools of La Crosse, Wis. where she met her husband. At the time of her husband's death, Mrs. Frame was left with limited means and three young children between the ages of six and ten to support and educate. She made a decision which was to have a permanent effect upon their lives and characters, when she moved with her children to Wooster, Ohio, that they might have the advantage of a Christian college education. From that Presbyterian college and from their mother they received the interest in foreign missions which led them all to enter the foreign mission service of the Church.

The Rev. Walter Reuben⁴ and Ellen (Stevens) Frame are buried at Stevens Point, Wis.

HENRY WEED⁵ FRAME (John Selby,⁴ Reuben³, James², David¹), born in the Parsonage of the Presbyterian Church at Morris, Grundy Co., Ill., 18 Feb. 1867; married at Troy, N. Y., 5 Sept. 1893, MARY GRACE ANDRES, born at Troy, N. Y., 28 Apr. 1866; died at the Park View Nursing Home at Medford, Ore., 23 Jan. 1951, daughter of John Price and Mary (Moore) Andres of Troy, N. Y.

Henry Weed⁵ Frame received his education in the public schools of Troy, N. Y. After leaving school he became head accountant and secretary of the Gilbert Car Manufacturing Company, which position he held until 1893. In March 1895, he bought a farm in Stamford, Bennington Co., Vt. For thirteen years he engaged in dairying and was also employed in the manufacture of wood alcohol. For almost two years he was employed by the Chair Manufacturing Company of Readsboro, Bennington Co. Vt.

During his residence in Vermont, he was a member of the Vermont legislature in 1906 and 1907, representing the Town of Stamford in the House of Representatives.

In February 1910, Mr. Frame removed with his family to Jackson Co., Ore., to develop a pear orchard in the Phoenix district on land purchased the preceding December by his younger brother, John Selby, and the latter's law partner, the Hon. Daniel B. Holt, both of Fargo, No. Dak., in which he acquired a one-third interest, and continued as general manager thereof until it was sold in the spring of 1939.

At Troy, Mr. Frame's principal summer diversion was single scull rowing in which he was able to indulge as a member for many years of the Laureate Boat Club.

In addition to his business pursuits, Mr. Frame has always taken a deep interest in military matters. Beginning as a young man he devoted many evenings to the study of the history and conduct of the Civil War. On 4 Nov. 1885 he enlisted as a private in the Sixth Separate Company of the National Guard of the State of New York, an ancient organization dating back to 1836. This Infantry Company was also known as the Troy Citizens Corps. On 8 Mar. 1889, he was commissioned a corporal; on 18 July 1893, he was commissioned a first sergeant; on 10 Jan. 1895, he was elected lieutenant and served as such until he removed to Vermont.

On 27 May 1918 Mr. Frame was elected and commissioned Captain of Company "E" Sixth Separate Battalion, Oregon Guard, stationed at Ashland, Jackson Co., Ore. On Mar. 13, 1919 this company was mustered in as a Provisional National Guard Company and Capt. Frame was elected its commanding officer. On 30 June 1919 the company was extended Federal recognition as Company "B" Third Regiment Oregon Infantry, National Guard. Federal recognition was not extended Capt. Frame due to his physical condition.

Henry Weed Frame was the possessor of a deep bass voice, rich in quality. He enjoyed singing in male quartets and choruses, oratorio societies, and church quartets and choruses, up to the time he was seventy five years old. He gave his services freely to the choirs of the churches of which he was a member: Second Presbyterian Church of Troy, N. Y.; Methodist Episcopal Church of Stamford, Vt.; First Presbyterian Church of Phoenix, Ore. He served as elder of this latter church from 24 Aug. 1924 and was also superintendent of the Sunday School for ten years. In a letter dated 5 Feb. 1949, the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Phoenix expressed their very deep appreciation of the long years of service he had devoted to the affairs of the church and frankly gave him the credit for overcoming the obstacles that threatened the life of the church.

In 1949, the students of the High School at Phoenix dedicated their annual school publication "The Laurel" to him in appreciation of his fifteen years of service as School Director and his seven years as district clerk. That honor had formerly been reserved for Superintendents or outstanding teachers only.

Mary Grace (Andres) Frame was born and reared in Troy, N. Y. Her paternal grandfather, Stephen J. Andres, was an Englishman who came to Canada and settled at Chambly Canton, Province of Quebec. Here her father, John Price Andres was born, 4 Aug. 1835. He removed to Troy, N. Y. where the remainder of his life was spent and where he died 25 Nov. 1900. He married there Mary Moores, born at Hudson, N. Y., 4 Sept. 1840; died at Troy, 26 Apr. 1914, daughter of John and Rachel (Townsend) Moores of Hudson, N. Y. Mr. Andres volunteered for service in the Civil War and was a member of Company "G", 125 Regiment, New York Volunteers. Mr. and Mrs. Andres are buried at Oakwood Cemetery, Troy, N. Y.

Mrs. Frame studied vocal music at the Boston Conservatory of Music and after her marriage devoted her talents either as soloist, choir director or organist to the "Ministry of Music" during the fifty-seven years of her married life. She was stricken while playing the organ in the Phoenix Presbyterian Church for the High School Baccalaureate Service on 25 May 1947. Two years later she had another stroke, and the final one was 20 Jan. 1951, from which she never regained consciousness. During these three and a half years of semi-invalidism she was forced to relinquish her activities one by one. She never complained but accepted her cross with sweetness, patience and serenity, appreciative of the many kindnesses of her friends and the devoted care of her husband. She had been an active member of the Phoenix Church for forty-one years and interested in all the organizations of the church, sincerely desiring to serve her Master and advance His cause.

After her death the teachers in the Phoenix schools gave, as a memorial to her, a colored reproduction of a painting by Grant Wood entitled "Spring in Town". This has been placed in the elementary school at Phoenix. On each side of it is a placque. One describes the painting and the artist, and the other reads as follows: "This picture is placed here in memory of Mary Grace Andres Frame (Mrs. Henry W. Frame) by her friends in the Phoenix schools. Mr. and Mrs. Frame helped the schools for many of their years here from 1910 to 1951".

After the death of his wife, Mr. Frame removed to Sacramento, Calif., to be near his elder son.

Children:

- * i. Dana Selby⁶, b. at Troy, N. Y. 4 Jan. 1895.
- * ii. Howard Andres⁶, b. at Stamford, Vt., 5 Sept. 1896.

REUBEN WALTER⁵ FRAME (John Selby⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born in the Parsonage of the First Presbyterian Church at Champaign, Ill., 15 May 1871; married (1) at Huntington, Ore., 12 Dec. 1900, MATTIE DESCHANT, of Boise, Idaho; who died at Seattle, Wash., 8 Feb. 1928; married (2) at Seattle, Wash., 29 Aug. 1931, EVA (FROST) CARLESS, a widow.

Reuben Walter⁵ Frame was educated in the public schools of Troy, N. Y., and also in the public schools of Chicago, Ill., where he lived for some time with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilman.

In 1891 he went to Omaha, Neb. and worked for the Union Pacific Railroad Co., and the following year was transferred to Huntington, Ore. In the spring of 1898 he returned to Troy, N. Y. to join the Second New York Volunteer Infantry Company in the War with Spain. He received an honorable discharge in October 1898.

Mr. Frame then returned to Huntington, Ore. where he organized the Frame Forwarding Company and also the Huntington Transportation Company, which operated stage lines between towns in Oregon and Idaho.

Ten years later, in 1908, Mr. Frame sold his Huntington interests and moved to Portland, Ore., and bought an interest in the Luckel, King and Cake Soap Company. He remained with them until 1920, when he sold his interest and moved to Seattle, Wash. There he purchased an interest in the Kenworth Truck Corporation and was elected Vice President.

After his second marriage, Mr. Frame removed to Phoenix, Ore., and the following year sold his interest in the Kenwood Truck Corporation and later purchased an interest in the Pierce Auto Freight Lines, Inc., of Medford, Ore. He was elected to the Board of Directors and made Executive Vice President, which position he now holds.

He was elected Mayor of Phoenix, Ore., and served two years, 1948 and 1949.

Mr. Frame has a deep bass voice and was a member of the male chorus of Medford. He still sings in the choir of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Medford, of which he and his wife are members.

He is a 32 degree Mason. He has no children.

JOHN SELBY⁵ FRAME Jr. (John Selby⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born in the Parsonage of the First Presbyterian Church, Champaign, Ill., 29 Nov. 1872; married at Superior, Wis., 26 Apr. 1905, ELIZABETH RUTTER¹⁰ GILBERT, born at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 19 Aug. 1882; died at Fargo, N.D., 8 Dec. 1934, daughter of Henry Wilbur⁹ and Anne (Haviland⁸) Gilbert of Superior, Wis.

John Selby⁵ Frame Jr., prepared for college at the Troy (N.Y.) High School. He entered Princeton University in the fall of 1891. As an undergraduate he was a member of the Philadelphian Society, Whig Hall, the Chapel Choir and the Triangle Club. In senior year he was the Washington's Birthday Orator. He graduated with the degree of A.B. cum laude in the Class of 1895.

In the fall of 1895 he entered the Princeton Theological Seminary and graduated in 1898. Immediately after graduation he sailed for Europe and studied at the University of Marburg, Germany, and later at the University of Berlin. In 1899 he returned to the United States and after a year of ranching in New Mexico studied law at the New York Law School in New York City, N.Y.

In 1901 he removed to Fargo, N.D., where he engaged in the practice of law for thirty years. He became a member of the firm of Newman, Holt & Frame in 1904, and when he retired from general practice in 1931 he was a member of the firm of Holt, Frame & Nilles. From October 1931, he served as general counsel for a group of corporations and in August 1935, was elected President and Treasurer of one of them, namely of Quality Food Stores, Inc. operating food stores in North Dakota, Minnesota, and Iowa, which position he held until his retirement from business in January 1948.

When a resident of Fargo, N.D., he was a member of the Board of Education for seven years, serving eventually as Vice-President and finally as President. For more than twenty-five years (until he left Fargo in 1937 to live in Minneapolis) he was a member of the Bishop and Council of the Missionary District North Dakota and by virtue thereof of the Bishop, Chancellor and Standing Committee of the District of North Dakota of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He was likewise a member of the Chapter of Gethsemane Cathedral of Fargo, from 1903 until his removal to Minneapolis, during all of which time he was a lay reader of the Church.

After moving to Minneapolis, he served as a member of the Bishop and Council of Minnesota for three years. In 1940 he was appointed a member of the Vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Minneapolis and in 1941 was elected Senior Warden of that parish, which position he held for seven years, declining to serve there-after having reached the age of seventy-five years.

Mr. Frame's high standing as a lawyer is indicated by the fact that within a very few years after his admittance to the bar, and continuing up to the time of his withdrawal from general practice, he invariably was given the highest rating for ability and integrity awarded by the leading law directories of that period. This was further attested by a letter written to him by the presiding judge of the District Court of North Dakota, in which he practiced, after twenty years upon the bench, reading in part as follows: "As a Judge, who had for years opportunity to observe, may I attest a simple truth, that never in all these years did I ever notice a dishonorable or uncharitable act committed by you, but upon the contrary you have always been a leader in helping to elevate the standards of our profession. Always straightforward with and respectful to the court and litigants alike, you have won a place of distinction second to none other as a member of the bar of this State."

Both the "Bishop Chancellor and Standing Committee of the District of North Dakota" and the "Chapter of Gethsemane Cathedral" at Fargo, passed resolutions regretting Mr. Frame's removal from North Dakota and expressing grateful appreciation of his many years of service as a member of said organizations.

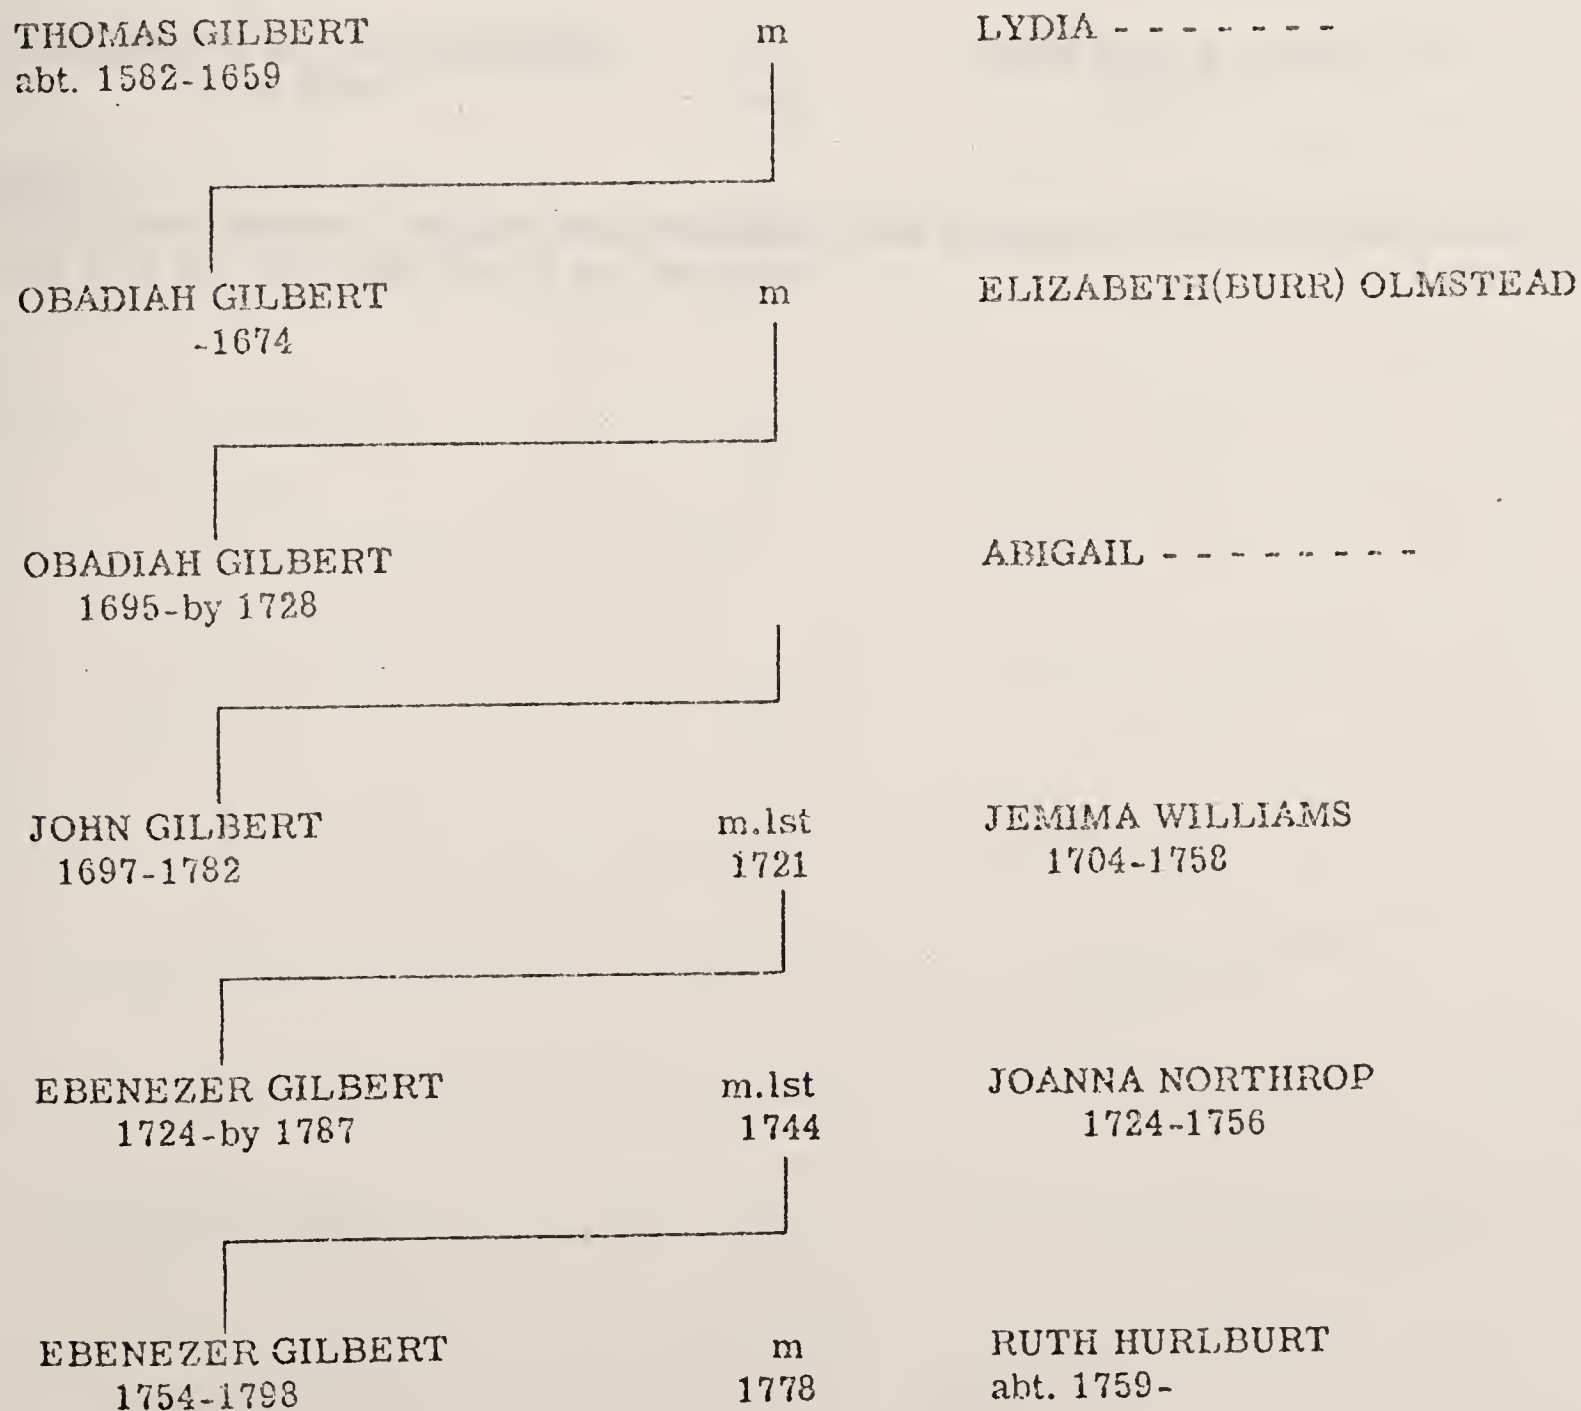

On his retirement as Senior Warden of St. Paul's Church, Minneapolis, the Church paper also contained an article expressing gratitude for his leadership and unselfish service, adding "We will not soon forget his splendid addresses preceeding the annual 'Every Member Canvas' and his keen interest in the missionary work of the Church".

Mr. Frame's principal diversions were all forms of out-of-door athletics, including baseball, football and track while in college, and later golf, which he continues to play though past eighty years old. He has been a member of the Minnekahda Golf Club of Minneapolis for many years. He is also a lover of music, especially orchestral music, and is the possessor of a fine library of recorded music.

Children, born at Fargo, N.D.:

(REV.) SELBY FRAME⁵ VANCE, D.D. (Catherine⁴ Frame Vance, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Oneida, Knox Co., Ill., 17 Nov. 1864; died at Pittsburgh, Pa., 27 Sept. 1937; married (1) at Appleton, Wis., 23 Sept. 1891, AGNES SMITH, born at Appleton, Wis., 26 Apr. 1865; died at Cincinnati, Ohio, 10 Mar. 1906, daughter of David Smith (born at St. Andrews, Scotland) and Agnes Thom (born at Linlithgon, Scotland). He married (2) at Columbus, Ohio, 1 Sept. 1909, JEANNIE PUTNAM; born at Monroe, Mich. 10 Dec. 1877, daughter of the Rev. Douglas Perkins and Jeannie (Williamson) Putnam.

MINUTES ON THE DEATH OF REV. SELBY FRAME VANCE, D.D., LL.D.

Selby Frame Vance was born at Oneida, Illinois, Nov. 17, 1864, and died at Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 27, 1937. He received his college education at Lake Forest University, graduating in 1885 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. From his alma mater he also received the degree of Master of Arts three years later. The next two years (1888-90) were spent in study at Princeton Theological Seminary. For his third year he went to McCormick Theological Seminary, from which he graduated in 1891. After the completion of his theological training he was ordained and became pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Girard, Kansas, which he served for two years (1891-3). On resigning his charge, Dr. Vance enrolled in the University of Berlin, where he spent two years in theological study.

On returning to America he was appointed Professor of Greek at Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa, where he served five years. In 1900 he was called to the chair of English Bible at the College of Wooster, Ohio, where he also spent five years, leaving Wooster to accept the chair of Church History at Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati. After serving five years in this chair he was transferred to the Department of English Bible in which he continued until 1921, when he was called to the Western Theological Seminary Pittsburgh as Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis. After fourteen years of active service in this chair at the Western, on reaching the retiring age, in 1935, he was made Professor Emeritus by the Board of Trustees.

In 1902 Parsons College honored him by conferring the degree of Doctor of Divinity; and in 1916 Cumberland University, Tenn., conferred the degree of Doctor of Laws.

After his retirement he gave up all active participation in the work of the Seminary and of the Church at large on account of indifferent health.

Dr. Vance came from a line of forebears who had given many sons to the ministry. His lifelong devotion to the Church and to the education of young men for the ministry can be easily explained when one remembers his heritage. With the exception of two years as pastor at Girard, Kansas, his whole life was devoted to christian education. This statement is not to be interpreted as meaning that he gave up preaching, for during his thirty years as a theological professor he was in great demand as a supply. In these temporary associations he won a host of friends and admirers.

Dr. Vance was a competent scholar in the New Testament field and was conversant with the latest developments in New Testament study during the past forty years. He had an open but discriminating mind, which enabled him to weigh the merits of new theories and to evaluate them at their true worth. As a teacher in a Theological Seminary he ever kept before his mind his chief purpose, namely, the training of young men to be effective ministers of the Word; hence his emphasis was ever upon the spiritual teachings of the New Testament writings. He often magnified his department, claiming that it was the most important in the theological curriculum, yet always without offense to others. The spirit of sweet reasonableness, which was a predominant characteristic, enabled him to win the respect and affection of all his students.

Dr. Vance was quiet and unassuming and deeply spiritual. Those who were closely associated with him in his work knew that he communed often with God and in his daily life he brought forth the fruits of the Spirit. He was a man of deep convictions, both ethical and theological, but he was always open minded enough to see that those who differed from him had some truth on their side. When he fell asleep, on Sept. 27th. of this year, those who were closely associated with him referred to his death by quoting an Old Testament text: 'Enoch walked with God and was not for God took him'.

The Presbytery of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Agnes (Smith) Vance was buried at Appleton, Wis. Dr. Vance was buried in the Alleghany County Memorial Cemetery, at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Child by his first wife:

Mrs. Selby Frame Vance, Pittsburgh, Pa.

HARNET SHELLEDY⁵ VANCE (Catherine⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Oneida, Knox Co., Ill., 18 Mar. 1867; died at her home at Wooster, Ohio, 15 Feb. 1950.

Harriet Shelledy⁵ Vance was graduated from Lake Forest College near Chicago, and after her graduation taught Latin and Greek for several years. Upon the death of her father, (her mother having died several years earlier) she went into training in Chicago for the Young Women's Christian Association work and became General Secretary for the association in Portland, Ore., and Peoria, Ill. In Pittsburgh, Pa., under her direction, the building now occupied by the Central Y. W. C. A. was erected. From Pittsburgh she went into association work at Denver, Col. and then to Kansas City, Mo.

After spending a year in China with her sister, Catherine Stewart⁵ Vance, a Y. M. C. A. Secretary there, she travelled for several years for the Young Women's National Board. The final and crowning achievement of her work for the Y.W.C.A. was the raising money for and the erection of a million dollar building in Minneapolis, Minn., which was dedicated free of debt. The following tribute was paid to her by Mrs. Roger Lee of Minneapolis. "When I think of Miss Vance the phrase 'Tower of strength' comes to my mind. Whatever was right to do, we could and would do. It might be introducing a democratic system of elections or launching a million dollar building program".

In 1940 Miss Vance moved to Wooster, Ohio, to live with her brother, the Rev. James Milton⁵ Vance, Ph.D. who had recently lost his wife. There she remained until her death. She is buried in the family lot at the Wooster Cemetery.

(REV.) EDWARD ELBRIDGE⁵ VANCE (Catherine⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Granville, Ill., 23 July 1872; died at Denver, Colo., 17 Feb. 1902.

Edward Elbridge⁵ Vance was graduated from Lake Forest College in the Class of 1895. He attended McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, in 1895-96, was a student in the Princeton Theological Seminary during the sessions of 1896-97, returned to the McCormick Theological Seminary in 1897 and was graduated from there in the Class of 1898. He was pastor of the church at Cookeville, Ill., 1898-99, but was forced to resign his pastorate on account of ill health, and died of tuberculosis at Denver, Colo. He was buried in the Evergreen Cemetery, Morris, Ill. He was unmarried.

(REV.) JAMES MILTON⁵ VANCE, Ph.D. (Catherine⁴ (Frame) Vance, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Lexington, Ill., 21 May 1875; died at Wooster, Ohio, 3 July 1948; married at Rockford, Ill., 29 Nov. 1906, ELIZABETH MAY WOOD, born at Marshall, Mich., 6 Nov. 1874; died at Wooster, Ohio, 14 June 1940, daughter of the Rev. Francis Marion and Martha J. (Van-Tuyl) Wood of Marshall, Mich.

James Milton⁵ Vance attended Lake Forest Academy in Illinois, and received his degree of B.A. from Lake Forest College in 1896. Following a years study at Princeton Theological Seminary he transferred to McCormick Theological Seminary, graduating with the Class of 1903. Six years later he received his B.D. degree from this same school. He was awarded the Blackstone New Testament fellowship in 1903 and in this same year began his studies abroad, attending the Universities of Marburg, Berlin and Jena. It was at Jena that he acquired his Ph.D. degree in 1905. Later on he did graduate work at Teacher's College, Columbia University, New York, and at the University of Chicago.

In 1906, Dr. Vance obtained the Mercer religious professorship at the College of Wooster, Ohio. He succeeded his brother, Dr. Selby Frame Vance as Professor of religion. His brother, who held the professorship from 1900 to 1905 was greatly responsible for the enlargement of the religious department. In the year 1908-1909, Dr. Vance served as acting dean of the college and from 1921 to 1930 he was dean of men.

One of his students wrote "He made students think, introducing them to new ideas . . . Under him Bible was anything but a 'Snap course'. He was deeply interested in all the religious life of the College, heartily in sympathy with Wooster's ideals and traditions, and eager to help wherever and however opportunity offered. And what he promised he fulfilled. No one on the faculty was more reliable than he."

Two works of Dr. Vance have been published. Eight Studies of Jeremiah, and his thesis. Mimeographed outlines which he used in class work have been edited twice, in 1919 and 1931. Besides his work as a writer Dr. Vance gave lectures in the Y.W.C.A. conferences in Estes Park, Colo., and Geneva Lake, Wis.

Both Dr. Vance and his wife were intensely interested in travel. Sabbatical years and summer vacations were generally devoted to pursuing this interest, and at one time or another, they visited many parts of the world together. Five summers were spent in travel in Europe. During two other summers, they passed through Europe, once enroute to America and once enroute to India.

In March 1918 Dr. and Mrs. Vance went to Palestine as members of the American Red Cross Commission. Because of war conditions which made the Mediteranean unsafe, the journey was made via South Africa and Ceylon to Port Said, Egypt, and thence to Jerusalem, Beirut and Aleppo. Altogether they spent fifteen months in Jerusalem, EsSalt and Aleppo. Dr. Vance's work at EsSalt centered around rebuilding the town with wood from Damascus after German occupation had wrought such destruction. In Aleppo he worked under the British and was in charge of 800 Armenian refugees.

Starting in 1932, Dr. and Mrs. Vance made a world tour of fourteen months. They both taught in Ewing Christian College, Allahabad, India, from July 1932 to Jan. 1933. After visiting mission stations and attending missionary conferences in several parts of India, they continued their journey eastward. The ensuing four months were spent in travel through China, Manchuria, Korea, Japan and the Phillipines. They returned to America via Honolulu and took up their residence and resumed their duties again at Wooster in September 1933.

In 1934 Dr. Vance was exchange preacher in England.

Two of his other interests were the direct result of his studies in Germany, for it was there that he first concentrated on Wagnerian music and the paintings of Rembrandt, availing himself of the opportunities found in cultural centers.

After thirty-seven years as head of the Department of Religion and professor at Wooster College, Dr. Vance retired on an Emeritus basis, but continued to live at Wooster, in the attractive house he had built there, until his death.

Elizabeth May (Wood) Vance was graduated from Lake Forest College, Ill., in 1899. During her college years she had already developed that deep interest in music which was one of her outstanding characteristics. At Lake Forest she was a member of the Church Choir, and organized, directed and sang in the College Girls' Sextette. The seven years following her graduation from college were spent largely in studying and teaching music both in the United States and abroad. She studied vocal music under Dr. Bartlett in Des Moines, Iowa from 1899 to 1901. In 1901 she went with her parents on a trip to Wellington, South Africa, to visit her brother, the Rev. Clinton Tyler Wood, who was teaching in the Missionary Training Institute there. During her stay in Wellington, which was prolonged to 1904, she taught vocal music to the girls at Huguenot College. From South Africa she went to Germany and France for further training. She studied at Munich under Karl Drechsel during 1904, and in the winter of that year spent several months in Berlin attending song recitals and observing the program technique of leading singers of that day. Early in 1905 she went to Paris for training under Emil Bourgeois, coach of the Opera Comique. In the summer of that year she returned to the United States to teach music at Brunot Hall, Spokane, Wash.

After her marriage Mrs. Vance began to take an active part in musical affairs in Wooster. She sang the soprano solos in Handel's Messiah at the Christmas Concert of the College Oratorio Association in 1906 and later made several appearances as soloist of this Association. In 1908 she founded the Girl's Glee Club of the College of Wooster and served as its director for the ensuing ten years. In addition to this work she took an active interest in all musical affairs of the community, stimulating and encouraging various local organizations and assisting in the preparation of many special musical programs. For a period of several years she served as organist in the Methodist Church in Wooster. During 1917-1918 she studied harmony and counterpoint at Columbia University, New York.

It was natural that one so interested in music should feel the urge to give expression to this interest in composition. Mrs. Vance wrote nothing pretentious, but rather chose to compose simple melodies and songs for her own pleasure and for the enjoyment of her friends. After her death and in response to various requests it was decided to publish forty of her compositions. The musical editor was Professor John Winter Thompson, Mus.D. of Knox College Conservatory of Music, Galesburg, Ill.

"The Elizabeth Wood Vance Scholarships" have been established at Wooster College, and are given annually for girls in the upper three classes who are of fine character and brilliant scholarship.

Dr. and Mrs. Vance had no children.

CATHERINE STEWART⁵ VANCE (Catherine⁴ Frame Vance, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Lodi, Wis., 19 Sept. 1885; died at Oberlin, Ohio, 14 June 1952.

Catherine Stewart⁵ Vance graduated from the College of Wooster, Ohio in the Class of 1907. In 1937 she completed her research work for her doctor of philosophy degree from Columbia University. Her dissertation in connection with this degree was in the field of social group work, a study of the Girl Reserve Movement of the Y.W.C.A.

After graduating from college, Miss Vance taught English in the high school at Zanesville, Ohio and at Boise, Idaho. The school year of 1911-1912 she was teacher of English at James Millican University Decatur, Ill., and later at Oregon State College at Corvallis.

After taking training with the Y.W.C.A. she sailed for China in 1914, where she was at first a National Secretary for student work and later a National Secretary for religious education. She served in China for thirteen years and then returned to the United States where she held the position of Executive Secretary in Philadelphia, Pa., Grand Rapids, Mich. and Montreal, Canada.

Miss Vance retired from the active work of the Association in 1945 and returned to Wooster, Ohio to live with her brother, Dr. J. Milton Vance and her sister, Harriet S. Vance. She is buried in the family lot in the Wooster Cemetery.

CARRIE SELBY⁵ GILMAN (Mary Elizabeth⁴ (Frame) Gilman, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Chicago, Ill., 12 Feb. 1878; married there 23 Oct. 1900, by her cousin, the Rev. Selby Frame⁵ Vance D.D., CHARLES EDWARD CAREY, born at Red Oak, Iowa, 21 Nov. 1874; died at Colorado Springs, Col., 5 May 1945, son of Edward Madison Carey.

Carrie Selby⁵ (Gilman) Carey lived in Morris, Ill. with her aunt, Sarah Selby⁴ (Frame) Davidson from the time she was two years old until she was thirteen, when she returned to her parents home in Chicago. She attended the Brown School and Miss Brooks Private School in Chicago, and then, with her sister Margaret Gilman went to Colorado Springs to enter Cutler Academy where she remained one year. For the next three years, she was a student at the Morgan Park Academy, near Chicago, and from there she went to Smith College, Northampton, Mass. for her freshman year. She then transferred to the University of Chicago, but left after a year and a quarter of study to be married to Charles E. Carey.

Charles Edward Carey was graduated from Morgan Park Academy and from the University of Chicago in the Class of 1900.

Upon their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Carey went to Glenwood, Iowa where Mr. Carey was in the Dry Goods business for thirteen years, and later was agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. In 1916, Mr. and Mrs. Carey with their daughter Margaret moved to Red Oak, Iowa, where they lived until 1943. While there Mr. Carey supervised his farming interests and was a Director in the Montgomery County National Bank. Mrs. Carey became President of the Montgomery County Welfare League, which office she held for fifteen years. She was also Chairman of the Montgomery County Christmas Seal Sale for many years, Chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call for several years, and a Trustee of the Murphy Memorial Hospital.

When, due to the serious illness of their only child, Margaret they moved to Colorado Springs, Col. the minister of the church of which the family were members sent the following letter to the church at Colorado Springs.

"First Congregational Church, Red Oak, Iowa.

June 7, 1943

To the members of the First Congregational Church, Colorado Spa. Col.

Dear Friends:

At the request of the members of the Red Oak Congregation I extend to you our heartiest greetings and congratulations. Possibly you do not know just how fortunate you are. But in the coming to your city and fellowship of the Chas. E. Carey family, you are most fortunate. We have been honored by their gracious presence in Red Oak for many years, and we have seen them leave with great regret.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Carey and their daughter Margaret are choice souls. Their Christian life is so rich and meaningful that we who knew them so well were constantly inspired to better things. In the community they were actively interested in every worthwhile endeavor. Their charity and understanding reached into every corner of the city, and in fact far outside of it. In the church they were our strongest pillars. No part of our program missed their earnest attention. We came to depend upon them so much that it still does not seem possible they will not be coming back.

At the time of their departure Mr. Carey was a Deacon and Mrs. Carey our Church Clerk. They had held almost every office in the church in the years gone by, and always their work was done with insight and thoroughness. When our church was built they were built into it, and it is true to say that in the many years of their sojourn in Red Oak, by their generous spirit and gracious living they built themselves into the life of the city as a whole. Such people cannot be replaced. They leave a great gap in society and in the church of which they are a part.

So it is with deep regret, and with a sense of great loss, that we commend them to you. It is our hope and prayer that they will be happy in your church and city. In time you will come to feel as we do now, that your indebtedness to them is greater than you can ever repay.

We have been helpless and at a loss to know how to express our feelings to them. It seemed possible that in this public manner we could in a small way show them our gratitude and sense of privilege, for all they have meant to us. As pastor of the church I confess that I have lost a family whose counsel and loyalty will never be forgotten.

Sincerely yours,

Harold C. Bradshaw, Minister

Written at the request of the congregation."

In Colorado Springs, Mrs. Carey has held the following offices:

Member of the Board of Directors of the Y.W.C.A. for six years, and President for one year.
Member of the Executive Committee of the Community Council of Social Agencies.
Member of the Board of Managers of the Women's Educational Society.
Member of the Board of Directors of the El Paso County Tuberculosis Association.
Treasurer of the First Congregational Church.
Member of the Executive Committee of the Colorado Conference of Congregational Christian Churches.
Member of the Woman's Literary Club.
Treasurer of Colorado Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women.

MARGARET SELBY⁵ GILMAN (Mary Elizabeth⁴ (Frame) Gilman, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Chicago, Ill., 28 Nov. 1879; died on 29 Mar. 1912; married at Chicago, Ill., 24 Apr. 1902, by Dr. Pleasant Hunter, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, WILLIAM JOHNSON HAYWARD of Chicago, born 15 Dec. 1870; died at Sioux City, Iowa, 12 Feb. 1941, son of George Calvin and Frances Amelia (Baker) Hayward of Lewiston and Lockport, N.Y. He married (2) Evelyn Taylor.

After her marriage, Margaret⁵ Gilman Hayward and her husband lived with her mother, Mary Elizabeth⁴ (Frame) Gilman in Chicago until 1908, when with their two young daughters they moved to Galesburg, Ill.

The Second Presbyterian Church of Chicago paid the following tribute to her:-

"The memory of her kind deeds, her faithfulness to every department of church work, her gracious hospitality and her sweet personality, is still fresh in our minds, although her residence had not been in Chicago for five years. Upon her removal from LaGrange to Galesburg, four years ago, Mrs. Hayward with returning health, took up church, social and civic duties with an enthusiasm which, joined with her fine ability, made her a leader in the circle of which she was a part. Her life in Galesburg was a particularly happy one, bringing her in touch with Knox College and its advantages, and letters written during these years speak of her delight in the atmosphere of culture and refinement peculiar to a college town. Because of her children, she was deeply concerned for the education of other little ones, and she organized the Parent-Teachers Association at Galesburg, of which she was the first President. She was a Director of the Illinois Congress of Mothers, and a Patroness of the Tri-Delta Sorority of Knox College. All these interests claimed her attention and she gave them freely of herself, opening her lovely home with the true spirit of hospitality to promote their advantage.

But it was to the church that she devoted herself first of all, and her pastor, Dr. Stuart Campbell, found in her a sure dependence. Her generous gifts to its benevolences, and her quick response to every demand for her service made a place for her that scarcely will be filled."

William Johnson Hayward from his youth showed marked business ability. He entered the employ of Marshall Field when about sixteen years of age, and at the time of his marriage was General Salesman in their Wholesale House. Some years later he bought an interest in the Kellogg-Drake Dry Goods store in Galesburg, Ill., and remained in that city until 1908, when with his two daughters and his mother-in-law he moved to Sioux City, Iowa to become partner in one of the leading Dry Goods stores in that city.

"Before he ever married Father took a trip to Central America selling watches, whether for Marshall Field or not I do not know. While there a man made several attempts to steal his sample cases, even going so far as to try to get rid of him, Daddy thought. Perhaps it was on his return to Chicago from this adventure that he had a store of his own on tough Blue Island Ave., the kind where his wares were on display on packing boxes outside the store. On the second floor of this establishment there lived a family of professional pickpockets and many years later Daddy met one of this brood 'working his way' thru a streetcar crowd in the Loop. He didn't talk a great deal about these adventures of his early life but I think they were quite romantic to him; his rare allusions to them always struck me forcibly.

"Of course he was the first of his family to go West and one of our favorite stories was of when Auntie Knight warned him 'If anyone should ask you to smoke a cigar or have a glass of beer, look him squarely in the eye and say 'No thank you, I will take a banana'. I believe he received $3 a week as stock boy at Field's Wholesale (his first job). He carried his lunch, packed by his landlady, and hitched his way to town on the back of drays". (Data supplied by his daughter Elizabeth based on recollections of conversations with her father.)

Children, both born at Chicago, Ill.:

- * i. Elizabeth Gilman Hayward, b. 2 Mar. 1903.
- * ii. Anna Sargent Hayward, b. 24 May 1906.

JOHN DAVIDSON⁵ FRAME, M.D. (Walter Reuben⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Hudson, Wis., 26 June 1880; died at Resht, Iran, 11 June 1942; married (1) at Resht, Iran, 26 Sept. 1915, GRACE JENNETTE MURRAY, born at Maryville, Mo., 17 Nov. 1885; died at Resht, Iran, 11 Sept. 1939, daughter of Cassius Hale and Jennette Ryburn (Harriman) Murray; married (2) at Resht, Iran, 11 Jan. 1941, ADELAIDE KIBBE, M.D., born at Lima, Ohio, 28 Sept. 1901, daughter of Laverne Harmon and Mary Ellen (Condit) Kibbe, who married (2) at Resht, Iran, in April 1950, Rollo E. Hoffman, M.D.

Dr. John Davidson⁵ Frame was graduated from the College of Wooster, Ohio, in the Class of 1900, and received his medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1904. He studied also at the Methodist Episcopal Hospital in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1904 he was appointed to service in the Iran (then the East Persia) Mission and from that time (with the exception of the year 1907-08 spent in Teheran) had been in charge of general medical work at the American Hospital in Resht which was permanently established in 1918.

The following excerpts are taken from the Memorial Minutes to Dr. John Davidson Frame adopted by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, dated July 1, 1942.

"Dr. Frame was a Christian pioneer - ever pressing on to the new, that the 'old, old story' might be told more effectively. Born of a line of Presbyterian ministers, he joined the church at ten years of age and at eighteen resolved to become a doctor and a missionary. In college he was known as 'a man of Bible study, of prayer and of personal work.' In medical school he was, according to the testimony of his professor of surgery, 'constant and unwavering in his efforts to enlist and retain the interest of the students in Bible Study. The general testimony is to the effect that he was very successful in his personal work among his fellow students, which is always a difficult task.' A fellow student wrote 'He has gotten together and led a Bible class of men believed to be almost beyond reach.'

"In applying to the Board for appointment, Dr. Frame wrote: 'There is growing upon me this last year a knowledge of Jesus, a feeling of companionship with Him and a desire to do His will which makes obedience - never a hardship - a joy and a privilege.'

"Dr. Frame's service in Iran fulfilled the promise of these early tributes and experience. Even before he had learned the language of Persia he was put in charge of a hospital sponsored by the prince and the governor of Resht. When he did not receive the necessary cooperation from them in this new and untried venture, he struck out on his own, working with almost no equipment and with few funds, and combining, as always, the message of spiritual healing with his ministry to the body. Almost from the first he had planned 'medico-evangelistic' trips to neighboring bazaars where he began by sitting under the trees and treating those who came to him, combining with his treatments New Testament stories and talks about Christ.

"In 1918 one of Dr. Frame's ambitions was fulfilled when, with the help of the American-Persian Commission, a mission hospital was finally established in Resht on a permanent basis. He was active in it in giving relief and medical aid during the hardships, epidemics and struggles of the post-war years. Another of his ambitions was realized fourteen years later when the first class graduated from the school of nursing which he had opened in Resht.

"Dr. Frame was one of the leaders in the East Persian Mission and later in the united Iran Mission. He served for many years as secretary of the Mission, was a member of the Executive Committee and directed the publication of most of the literature published by the Mission from 1911-25. Although he was good in this administrative work he did not particularly enjoy it and rejoiced when he could be relieved to give his full attention to the medical and church work in Resht.

"Dr. Frame's ideals for the Christian life were high. Frequently he spoke of would-be Christians and those who 'professed to accept Christ but failed to show any signs of true Christianity in their lives.' His judgment of himself was no less severe. He wrote 'Although we have been encouraged by the medical side of the work, we feel that we have failed to obtain the highest spiritual results which might have been gained from our opportunities, and once more ask our friends to unite with us in special prayers that the work may receive a spiritual blessing.'

"It is small wonder that a man of such intellectual honesty, such sweetness of spirit and such zeal in service should be able to say in later years, 'Instead of being an unwelcome stranger, scarcely able to find a stopping place, I find old patients and acquaintances throughout the district.'

"At the same time he said 'One wishes one could report a more definite turning to Christ.' That Dr. Frame's work has made a rich contribution to a 'Turning to Christ' none can doubt. He was a pioneer and he knew it. He did not despair, nor did he question the value of the work he was doing, for, as he himself wrote, 'the results are with God'.

"The Board extends its loving sympathy to Dr. Frame's wife and children and rejoices with them in a rich life, well-lived for the Master."

Dr. Frame's first wife, Grace Jennette Murray, was an educational missionary in Resht at the time of their marriage. She was of Scotch and English descent on her mother's side. Her grandmother, Elizabeth Ryburn, was born in Ayreshire, Scotland about 1824. She married first, in Scotland, a Mr. Steele by whom she had three daughters. After the death of her husband, she and her three children came to the United States, entering this country about 1845, as Elizabeth Ryburn Steele. Three years later, in 1848, she married as her second husband, James E. Harriman who had come to this country as a young man, and who died about 1880/1. To them was born one daughter, Jennette Ryburn Harriman, born 23 Mar. 1851, who married 3 Apr. 1875, Cassius Hale Murray. These were the parents of Grace Jennette (Murray) Frame.

Dr. Frame's second wife, Dr. Adelaide Kibbe had been in charge of surgery in the American Hospital at Meshed, Iran, from 1929 to 1937, when she was transferred to the American Hospital in Resht.

Children by his first wife, born at Resht, Iran:

- * i. John Davidson⁶ Jr., b. 16 Feb. 1917.
- * ii. Charles Ryburn⁶, b. 15 Mar. 1918.
- iii. Murrory Scott⁶, b. 15 May 1922; d. at Resht, 8 July 1924.

(REV.) MURRAY SCOTT⁵ FRAME (Walter Reuben⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Hudson, Wis., 4 Nov. 1881; died at Peking, China, 5 June 1918; married at Kyoto, Japan, 10 Oct. 1913, ALICE SEYMOUR BROWNE, born at Harpoot, Turkey, 29 Oct. 1878; died at West Newton, Mass., 16 Aug. 1941, daughter of Dr. John Kittredge Browne.

Murray Scott⁵ Frame graduated from the College of Wooster, Ohio, in the Class of 1901. Following his graduation, he taught for three years in Forman Christian College, a Presbyterian College at Lahore, India. On his return to this country he entered Union Theological Seminary at New York City, from which he received his degree of Bachelor of Divinity, and also a fellowship for two years post-graduate study in Jerusalem and Berlin. Mr. Frame then returned to the United States and studied at Columbia University from which he received his Master's degree. While studying Chinese language at Columbia, he was assistant to Dr. George Webster of the Church of the Covenant in New York City.

The following is quoted from the July 4, 1918 issue of "The Congregationalist and Advance". "The Christian forces of China have met with irreparable loss in the death of Rev. Murray Scott Frame, a missionary of the American Board, located in Peking. Although Mr. Frame was just finishing his first period of service, he had made a large place for himself in missionary circles. President Brown of Union Theological Seminary remarked of Frame when he offered himself to the American Board, that he was one of the two or three ablest men the Seminary had put into the foreign work in thirty years.

Mr. Frame's work in North China fulfilled the expectation implied in that tribute. Both in the realm of education and of evangelism he proved to be rarely efficient. Of late he had had charge of the Board's evangelistic work in Peking, where, under arrangements with other societies, about one-quarter of the city had been assigned to the Board as its exclusive responsibility. Here Mr. Frame found a superb field for his evangelistic and organizing gifts. His plans for reaching, through well chosen native pastors, the entire population of this section, met with the hearty approval of the mission, and the administration of the Board. Mr. Frame was expecting to take his furlough, already over-due, when he was seized with typhus fever, which resulted in his death on June 5, 1918.

The loss is a severe one in many ways. Among other things Mr. Frame was expecting to write the mission study textbook on China, to be used by all the denominations in this country in 1919. He was counted upon, with the aid of his talented wife, who was Miss Alice Browne, to produce a book of unusual force and brilliancy. He was expected to address the annual meeting of the Board in October, and to speak in conventions and Churches."

Dr. Alice Browne Frame was the daughter of Dr. John Kittredge Browne, a missionary, who when he died in 1939, at the age of 95 was the oldest living graduate of Harvard College.

She was graduated from Mt. Holyoke College in 1900, where she won the Phi Beta Kappa key, and in 1925 received the honorary degree Litt. D. She received a Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Hartford Theological Seminary in 1903. After serving as a Secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions for two years, she was, in 1905, commissioned as Mt. Holyoke Representative in China under the American Board.

Her first location was at Tungchow, China, as Principal of the Goodrich Girls' School. Here she lived until 1911 when she was transferred to Peking for a brief period prior to a furlough year taken in 1912. She returned to China in 1913 and married and she and her husband continued to live in Tungchow, where their three children were born.

After the death of her husband, Dr. Alice (Browne) Frame taught in the North China Union College, 1918-22; was Dean of Yenching Women's College, Peking, 1922-31; and Acting Dean of Residence in Mount Holyoke College, 1928-29. She served as Secretary of Religious Education of the North China Kung Li Hui, 1931-41; was a delegate to the Madras Conference, 1938; and General Secretary of the North China Council of the Kung Li Hui, 1939-40.

"The abbreviated list of events above shows that Alice Browne Frame was a woman of unusual accomplishments, but her great contribution to China, where she spent most of her active life, and to the Kingdom of God, to which her whole life was dedicated, was not so much the things she did as the influence she exerted on the multitudes with whom she came in contact.

For thirty five years she had an important part in developing many leaders who are filling important positions in China today."

Children, born at Tungchow, China:

- i. Frances Kendall⁶, b. 26 Oct. 1914; d. 28 Dec. 1916.
- ii. Murray Scott⁶ Jr., b. 30 Apr. 1916; d. 5 May 1916.
- * iii. Rosamond⁶, b. 13 Apr. 1917.

MARGARET ANNA⁵ FRAME (Walter Reuben⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), was born at Stevens Point, Wis., 25 May 1884.

Margaret A. Frame was graduated from the College of Wooster, Ohio, where she won the Phi Beta Kappa key, in the Class of 1905.

In 1910 she went to China as a missionary under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions and taught in a school for girls at Tengchowfu, Shantung, China until 1926. In 1926 she became Secretary of the China Council in Shanghai, which responsible position she held until her retirement in 1949.

In 1938 Miss Frame was a delegate to the Madras conference and then was a member of a Presbyterian Board deputation that made a ten week tour of the India Stations.

In 1943, Miss Frame with other American citizens and British subjects was interned by the Japanese. In that camp the internees did all their own work but were well organized under their own leadership for preparation and service of food, cleaning of the buildings, or teaching in the schools organized for the children. Margaret A. Frame was among the fortunate ones, repatriated in the fall of 1943 after only seven months in this camp. The war conditions held her in America for a two year period toward the end of which she was sent by air on a tour of four of the Presbyterian Board's Latin American mission fields to participate in conferences being held in each field. She then returned to Shanghai.

On the date when her retirement was normally due, the Communists entered Shanghai so that she was held there for four months of very responsible service while adjustments were being made to the new government, but then she returned to the United States and was retired on 31 Dec. 1949.

DANA SELBY⁶ FRAME (Henry Weed⁵, John Selby⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Troy, N. Y., 4 Jan. 1895; married at Corvallis, Ore., 13 Oct. 1918, by the Rev. Mr. Bell of the Presbyterian Church, HELEN MacDONALD, born at Chicago, Ill., 16 Oct. 1895, daughter of Louis Arthur and Ida Mae (Thompson) MacDonald of Chicago, Ill. and of Corvallis, Ore.

Dana Selby⁶ Frame received his early education in the rural school at Stamford, Vt. where his father had a dairy farm. When his parents moved to Phoenix, Ore., in 1910, to develop a pear orchard in that district, he attended the schools at Ashland, Ore., and graduated from the high school there in the Class of 1914. After high school he entered Oregon State College at Corvallis where he majored in Agriculture for three years then transferred to Education. Since receiving his degree in Education from Oregon State College, Mr. Frame has done graduate work at the College of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif.

Dana Selby Frame did College Extension work for the College from June 1916 to September 1917 and upon leaving college spent six years in the dairy business. His first work was as field representative of the Oregon Dairyman's League and following this he was superintendant of two different and large dairy ranches both located in the coast areas of Oregon and Washington.

In 1925 he accepted a position in the Sacramento City Schools in the personnel office. While here he was head of the attendance office where he spent years in counselling children of all ages, particularly in the field of guidance of adolescents. Following this work, in 1938, he was appointed principal of the Bret Harte Elementary School, which position he held for ten years. In March 1948 he was transferred to the principalship of the Sutter Junior High school.

Mr. Frame has held the following positions:

President of the California Elementary School Principals' Association, 1947-48.

President of the Sacramento Principals' Association.

President of the Masonic Luncheon Club of Sacramento.

Like his parents, Mr. Frame has a great love for music and is the possessor of a good baritone voice. For ten years he sang in the choir of the Fremont Presbyterian Church at Sacramento and was also a member of a Sacramento Male Chorus.

During the summer of 1948 he built a mountain cabin at Wright's Lake in the Eldora National Forest in the high Sierras where he and his family spend their summer vacations.

Helen MacDonald Frame was graduated from the Hyde Park High School, Chicago, Ill., in the Class of 1913. She moved with her family to Oregon where she attended the Oregon State College at Corvallis, from which she received her B.S. degree in June 1917. She also received the Waldo Prize as outstanding Senior Woman in 1917. She is a member of the Oregon Beta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Mrs. Frame has held the following positions:

President, Sacramento Branch of the American Association of University Women, 1938-39.
Vice-President, California State Division, American Association of University Women, 1939-40.

Affiliated with the P.E.O. Sisterhood in 1931; served as Chapter President in 1940, and represented three Sacramento Chapters at the National Conference at Houston, Texas, 1941.

Assisted with Red Cross Blood Donor Program in Sacramento also in Community Chest Work on various occasions.

Mrs. Frame is of Scotch descent. Her paternal grandparents were William Gilbert and Almeda Virginia (Cox) MacDonald of Decatur, Ill. Her father Louis Arthur MacDonald (1859-1948) was born at Decatur. He taught school and was graduated from Illinois Wesleyan College at Bloomington, Ill. Later he obtained a degree in Law at Northwestern University. He practiced law in Chicago for over thirty years.

Mrs. Frame's maternal grandparents were Samuel Alexander Thompson (abt. 1825-1890) and Cynthia Ann Gillespie who was born at Saginaw, Mich. and died in 1895. Her mother Ida Mae Thompson was born in Ohio, 18 Oct. 1861 and died at San Diego, Calif. 23 Oct. 1937. Mrs. MacDonald was reared in Gibson City, Ill., was graduated from Lake Forest Female Seminary and from Illinois Wesleyan College. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald are buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Los Angeles, Calif.

MARGERY DANA⁶ FRAME (John Selby Jr.⁵, John Selby⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Fargo, N.D., 7 July 1910; married at St. John's Episcopal Church, Moorhead, Minn., 22 Nov. 1932, ROBERT LOUIS HANNA, born at Fargo, N.D., 24 Jan. 1902, son of the Hon. Louis Benjamin and Lottie Lucretia (Thatcher) Hanna of Fargo, N.D.

Margery Dana⁶ (Frame) Hanna received her early education in the schools of Fargo, N.D., and during the three years the family lived at St. Cloud, Minn. she graduated from the Junior High School there and completed her first year at the High School. When the family returned to Fargo, she entered the sophomore class at the high school there and completed her junior year of study also. In the fall of 1927, she entered the Dwight School for Girls at Englewood, N.J. graduating in the Class of 1928. That autumn she entered the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts (now called the Parson's School of Design), New York City where she studied Costume Illustration. Owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. Hanna remained at home the following year, but in the autumn of 1930, she entered the American Academy of Art, at Chicago, Ill., from which she graduated in 1931.

Robert Louis Hanna attended public schools at Fargo, N.D., and later at Bismarck, N.D. during the time that his father was Governor of the State. He attended a private Quaker School at Washington, D.C., when his father was Congressman of North Dakota. He then entered St. James Military Academy at Faribault, Minn., graduating as commanding officer of the class of 1916. The following two years were spent at Shattuck Military Academy and after the family moved to Coronado, Calif., he completed his high school work there.

Mr. Hanna then entered William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., but due to an eye condition was forced to leave school at the completion of the second year. He travelled extensively in Europe, having made three trips before he was twenty years old. On two of these trips he spent some time in Africa and the Near East. After leaving college he went to Oregon and took a position with the Benson Timber Company, one of the oldest and largest concerns of its kind in the United States at that time.

Shortly before his marriage in 1932, Mr. Hanna acquired a part interest in a farm with his father and became manager and later sole owner of this ranch, known as the Hanna Stock Farm. There he developed an outstanding registered herd of purebred Aberdeen-Angus cattle. Many of these cattle were shown at State Fairs all over the United States and the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago. For many years this herd not only won many of the major prizes offered by these fairs, but they brought top prices at many auction rings throughout the country. Thorough-bred stock was sold to pure-bred breeders in forty states, in Canada and as far away as New Zealand. One of the bulls that went to New Zealand brought the highest price at a government sale of any bull of any breed sold, up to that time, in New Zealand. Mr. Hanna was elected as a director of the National American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders Association, Chicago, Ill., in 1940 and served as a director for six years. He served five years as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

The farm also had a top flock of Columbia sheep and set many records with them including the highest priced ewe ever sold in an auction sale up to 1946. This ewe brought $950.00. Mr. Hanna sold this ranch in 1947 and has since confined his interests to his investments.

Children, both born at Fargo, N.D.:

- i. Robert Benjamin Hanna, b. 21 Sept. 1934.
- ii. Daniel Louis Hanna, b. 1 Aug. 1938.

(REV.) DOUGLAS SELBY³ VANCE (Selby Frame⁵ Vance, Catherine⁴ (Frame) Vance, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Cincinnati, Ohio, 17 Sept. 1912; married (1) at Denver, Col., 16 Feb. 1936, by the Rev. Benjamin F. Judd, MYRTLE OLIVE SEGLEM, born at Minneapolis, Minn., 5 Sept. 1907; died at Sequanota, Charlevoix, Mich., 16 Aug. 1941, daughter of Gustav Adolphus and Ingeborg O. Seglem of St. Paul, Minn.; married (2) at Pittsburgh, Pa., 22 Sept. 1942, by the Rev. Jarvis M. Cotton, assisted by the Rev. J. Milton Vance, Ann Elizabeth Townsend, born at Pittsburgh, Pa., 3 July 1916, daughter of Edward D. and Mary () Townsend.

Douglas Selby⁶ Vance prepared for college at Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh, Pa., graduating in the Class of 1930. He studied at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., 1930-1933, then transferred to Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., where he graduated with the degree of A.B. in the Class of 1934.

After a short business career, Mr. Vance decided to devote his life to the ministry and entered the Western Theological Seminary, Cleveland, Ohio. He was graduated in the Class of 1940 and on 17 May 1940, he was ordained and installed at Cross Creek, Pa., as pastor of the Cross Creek Presbyterian Church. He has held the following pastorates:-

Cross Creek Presbyterian Church, Cross Creek, Pa., May 1940-May 1944.

Community Presbyterian Church, Post Falls, Idaho, June 1944-Oct. 1945.

Federated Congregational-Presbyterian Church, Lewiston, Idaho, Oct. 1945-Sept. 1952.

During the summer of 1951, despite formidable opposition, Mr. Vance launched a community-wide preaching campaign against the town of Lewiston's 289 slot machines and punch boards. Cooperating with him were Methodist, Christian Church, Baptist, Episcopal, Lutheran and Mormon pastors who exhorted their congregations to rid the town of the machines. A petition asking the city council to outlaw the slot machines was prepared but was ignored and two ordinances submitted by the Lewiston Ministerial Association were turned down. Finally a special election was called for November 14, 1951 to decide the issue. Due to the work of the men and women of the churches the ordinance was passed by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. Vance has recently received and accepted the position of Synod Executive for Arizona under the Board of National Missions and also the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church. He will have general oversight of the organizing and building of new churches and of the Indian work of the Presbyterian denomination as well as some work in connection with other denominations.

Child, by his first wife:

- i. Judith Mildred Vance, b. at St. Paul, Minn., 14 June 1937.

MARGARET⁶ CAREY (Carrie Selby⁵ (Gilman) Carey, Mary Elizabeth⁴ (Frame) Gilman, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Glenwood, Iowa, 17 July 1901; died at Colorado Springs, Col., 2 Jan. 1947.

Margaret⁶ Carey attended Brownell Hall in Omaha, Neb., 1915-1918, and was graduated from Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wis., in the Class of 1919. She then entered Vassar College, New York, and remained there 1919-1921, but was forced to leave college because of ill health. A few years later she was able to resume her studies and entered the University of Chicago from which she was graduated in 1928.

She was ill for many years with tuberculosis but during a period of improved health she was on the staff of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City for five years. Endowed with an unusually good mind and good judgment, she was time and again frustrated by ill health in her desire to lead an active life. But thereby she developed a beautiful character of cheerfulness and patient endurance and a host of loyal friends. Bed-ridden as she was for years at a time, she never lost her interest in world events and in social welfare.

ELIZABETH GILMAN HAYWARD (Margaret Selby Gilman Hayward, Mary Elizabeth⁴ Frame Gilman, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Chicago, Ill., 2 Mar. 1903; married at Sioux City, Iowa, 22 June 1929, by the Rev. Mr. Rippey, of the First Presbyterian Church there, EDWIN FORREST ALLEN, born at Sioux City, Iowa, 11 Sept. 1902, son of Arthur Frank and Bernice (Andrews) Allen of Sioux City, Iowa.

Elizabeth Gilman Hayward Allen prepared for college in the public schools of Sioux City, and at Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill. She entered Wellesley College, Mass. from which she was graduated in the Class of 1926.

Edwin Forrest Allen after graduating from high school, served four years as signalman in the Navy. He left the Navy in October 1926 and entered the University of Iowa in January 1927. The following summer he and his fiancée attended the summer session at the University of Wisconsin to which University he transferred and received his degree in Journalism from there in the Class of 1931. While at the University of Wisconsin he was chief editorial writer for the Daily Cardinal, 1929-1930, and also worked for the University's publicity department. The last year Mr. Allen and his wife were in Madison he held a full time position on the Wisconsin State Journal and received his final school credits in seminars which met once each week.

In the summer of 1931, Mr. Allen went east having received several letters of recommendation from Mr. Glenn Frank, then president of the University. Through one of these addressed to Mr. Roy Howard, Mr. Allen became associated with the Press-Scimitar of Memphis, Tenn. In November 1933, he transferred to the Scripps-Howard paper in Knoxville, Tenn., the News-Sentinel. Mr. Allen left Scripps-Howard in June 1934 and went with a subsidiary of the Tennessee Valley Authority in Chattanooga, but he returned the following June to Knoxville to become assistant to David E. Lilienthal, a director of TVA. In July 1939, Mr. Allen became Director of Public Relations for John Carmody, head of the Federal Works Agency and moved to Vienna, Va., near Washington, D.C.

Mr. Allen applied for a commission in the Navy when France fell in May 1940 and reported for active duty as a Public Relations officer in the 14th Naval District in Honolulu in May 1941. Mrs. Allen and their son accompanied Mr. Allen, returning to California in March 1942, but Mr. Allen was on Oahu until 1944. He had left Public Relations in August 1942 but was in the Control Tower at Pearl Harbor until he was transferred to the Sea Frontier in New York in May 1944. Enroute to New York he stopped in Washington and requested sea duty. His orders came three weeks later and he was assigned to the President Monroe, a combat-transport in the Pacific. He was made Executive Officer of the General Ernst, a Navy Troop Transport in January 1945 and was with her until he left the Navy in June 1946, sailing the Atlantic as far as France and the Pacific as far as Korea. He left the Navy with the rank of Commander.

In August 1946, Mr. Allen joined the staff of the Cleveland Press as a special investigative reporter. He and his family reside at Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

DOUGLAS MACDONALD⁷ FRAME (Dana Selby⁶, Henry Weed⁵, John Selby⁴, Reuben³, James², David¹), born at Portland, Ore., (Wilcox Hospital) 26 July 1922; married at the Piedmont Community Church, Calif., 7 Sept. 1947, by the Rev. Holland F. Burr, PHYLLIS ANN SCHODT GULICK, born at Modesto, Calif., 11 Sept. 1924, daughter of Clarence Martin and Marie Elizabeth (Lundeberg) Gulick, of Piedmont, Calif.

Douglas MacDonald⁷ Frame was educated in the schools of Sacramento, Calif. He graduated in the Class of 1940 from the C. K. McClatchy High School, having been president of the student body. He entered the Sacramento Junior College (1940-1942) and received A.A. degree in 1942. He entered the University of California in the fall of 1942, but his studies were interrupted by army service.

Mr. Frame was heavy machine gun section leader (Staff Sergeant) with the 271st Infantry Regiment (69th Division) in combat in Belgium and Germany (1944-45). During his military service he studied at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y. and attended the American University at Biarritz after V-E day, for three months before returning to the United States for discharge.

Upon his return to this country in 1946, Mr. Frame re-entered the University of California, majored in Public Administration and was graduated with the degree of A.B. in the Class of 1947, and received his master's degree in Public Administration in 1948. He was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Frame moved to Los Alamos, New Mexico, (1948-1950) where Mr. Frame was employed with the Atomic Energy Commission. He was assigned to the Washington, D.C. Headquarters of the AEC (1950-1952) and transferred to the San Francisco office of AEC, March 1952.

Phyllis Ann Schodt (Gulick) Frame attended the Bentley School in Berkeley, Calif., and graduated from the University High School, Oakland, Calif., in the Class of 1942. She then entered the University of California, from which she was graduated in the Class of 1946 with the degree of A.B. in Social Welfare. She was a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority and also had membership in the Torch and Shield and Prytanean activity honor societies, and was active in the University Y.W.C.A.

Following her graduation she was engaged in personnel work with the Bureau of Occupation on the campus of the University.

Mrs. Frame has an extensive musical background and is an excellent pianist.

Mrs. Frame is of Norwegian descent. Her father, Clarence M. Gulick (born Gullick) was born at Slayton, Minn. 28 Oct. 1896. He was graduated from the University of Minnesota in the Class of 1921 and has been in business in California since 1922. He is the son of William Gullick who was a banker in Slayton, and of his wife, Bertha Njos, who was born in Norway about 1878.

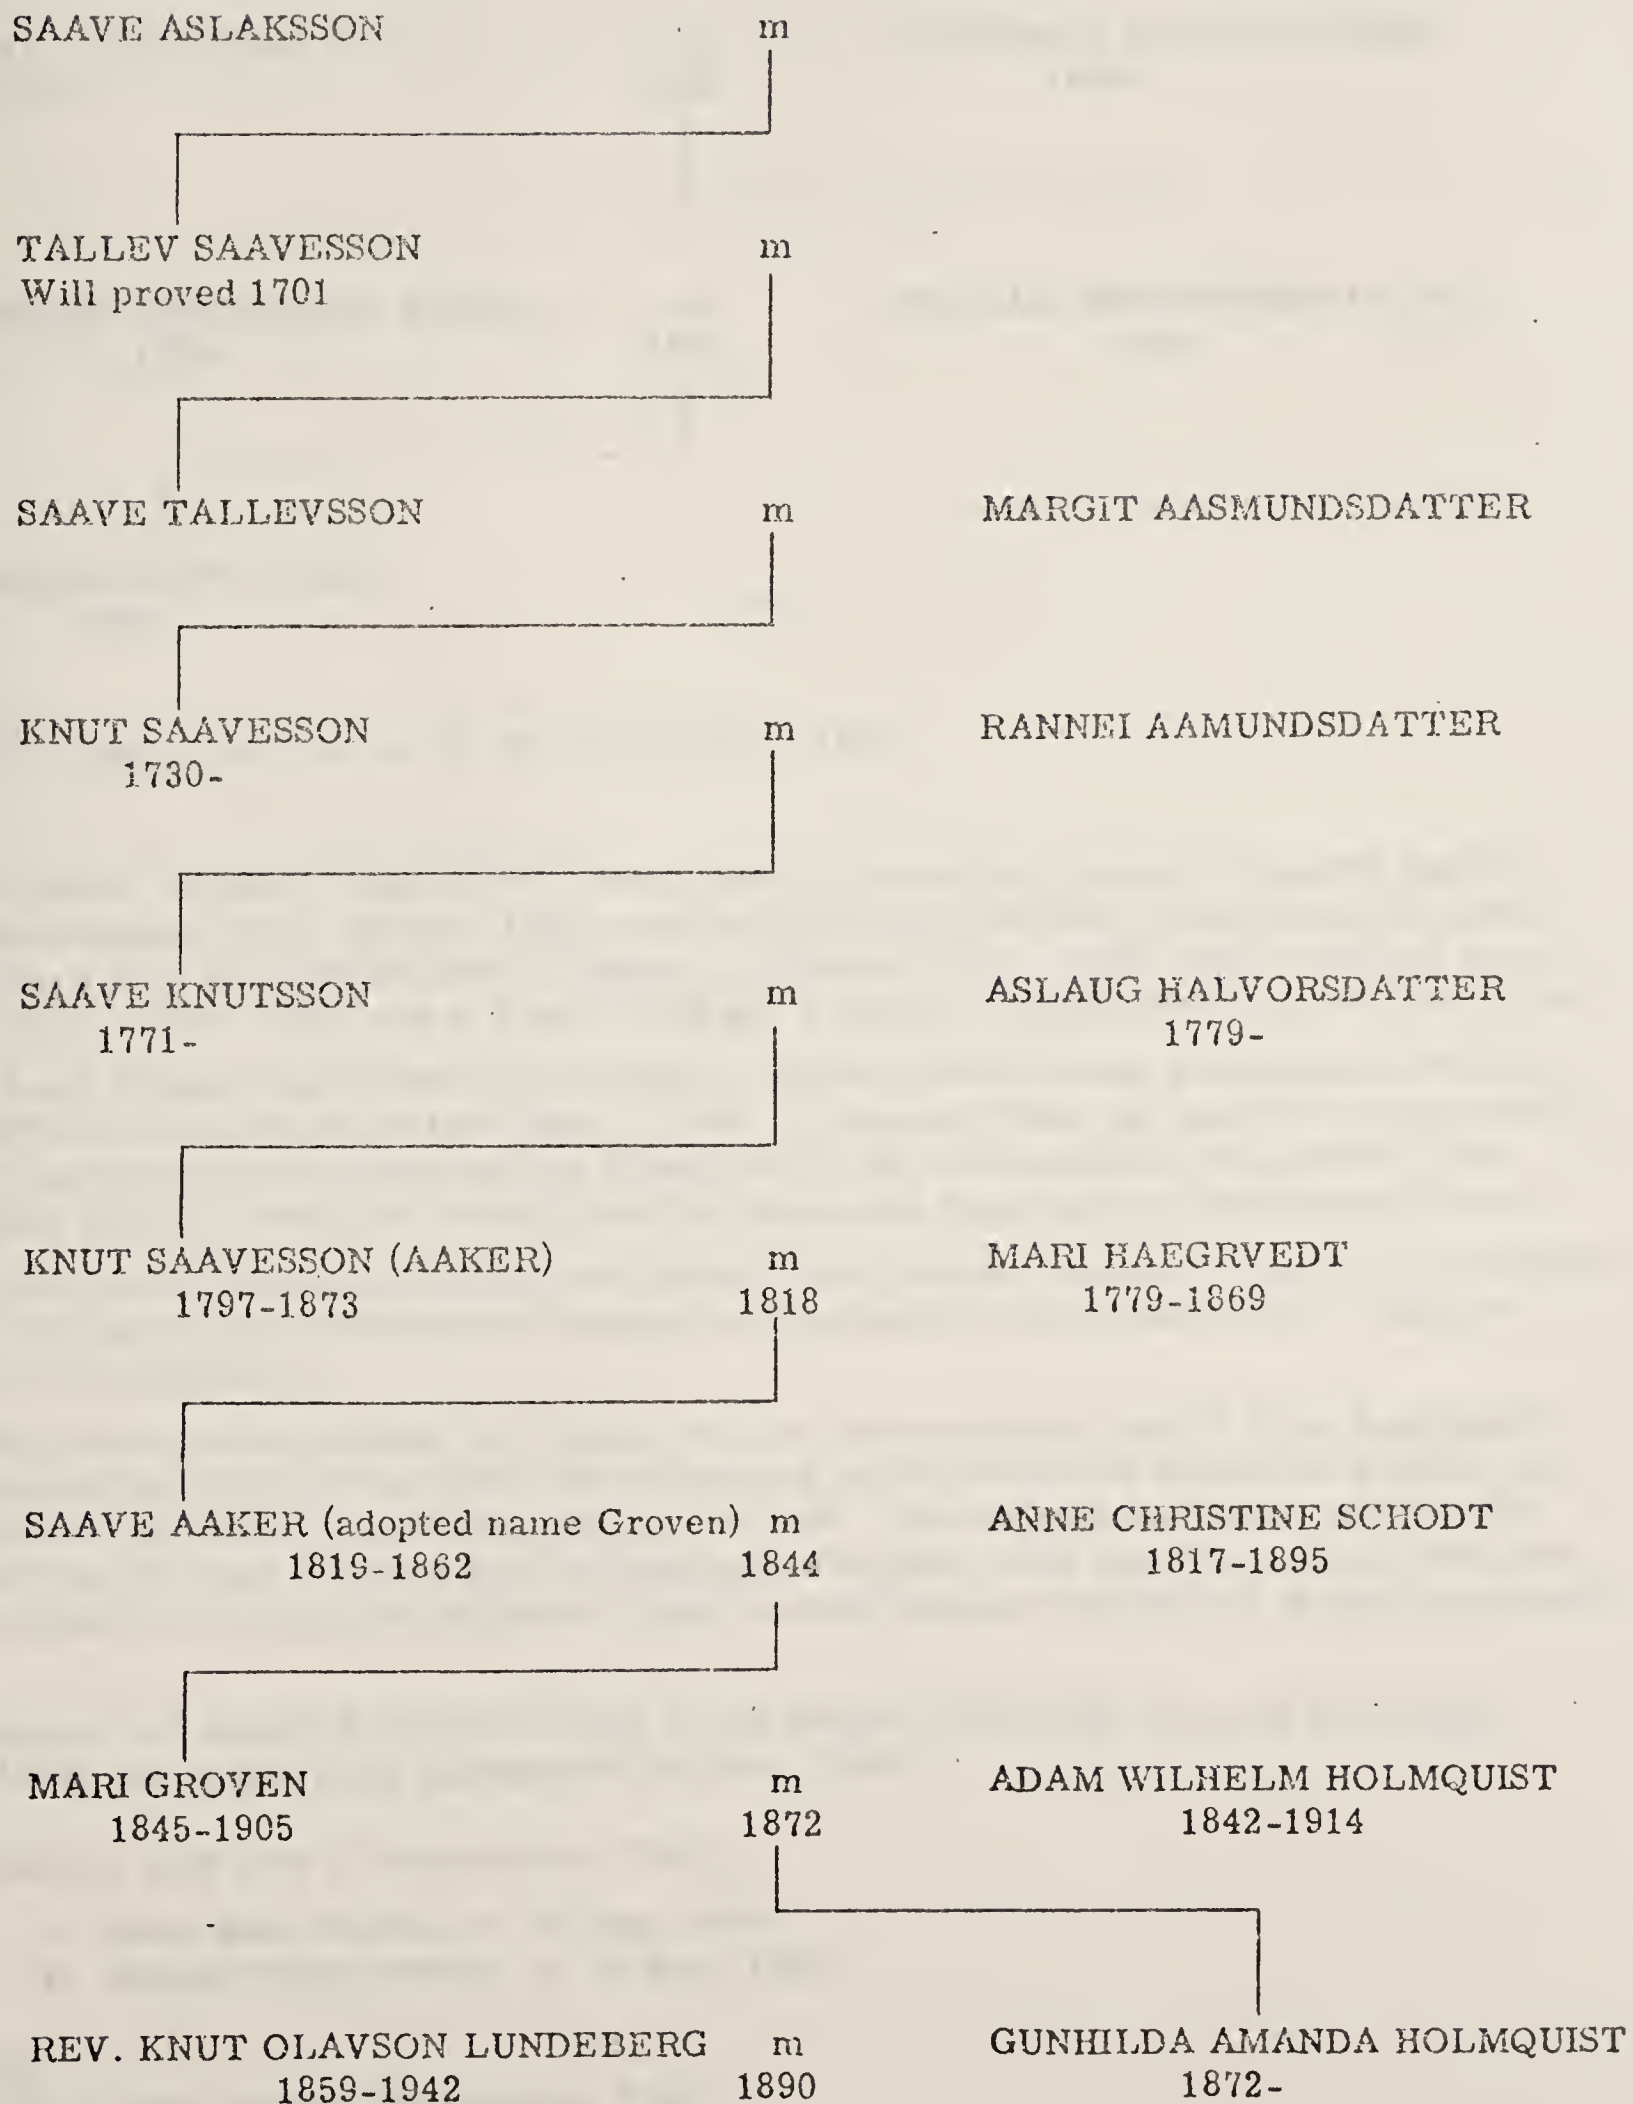

Mrs. Frame's mother, Marie Elizabeth (Lundeberg) Gulick is the daughter of the Rev. Knut Olav Lundeberg, born in Telemark, Norway, 23 Jan. 1859, who graduated from Kvileseid Seminary in 1879. He came to this country in 1879, settled in Minnesota, where he died in 1942. He was one of the best known ministers of the Norwegian Lutheran Church in America. His wife, Gunhilda Amanda (Holmquist) Lundeberg, whom he married at Gol Church, Kenyon, Minn. 10 June 1890 was born at Faribault, Minn., 8 Dec. 1872.

The Aaker Saga (1951) gives the ancestry of Phyllis (Gulick) Frame, carrying her line back twelve generations to Saave Aslaksson who in 1650 was living on the farm known as Berge in Morgedal, which is in southern Norway. A chart of her ancestry follows.

SECOND GENERATION

RACHEL² FRAME (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 16 Dec. 1766; was living in 1850; married (1) at Sadsbury Monthly Meeting, 4. 1mo. 1797, GEORGE² MERCER of Sadsbury Township, Lancaster Co., Pa., born 21. 10mo. 1772; died there 9. 5mo. 1803, son of Caleb¹ and Mary (-----) Mercer of Sadsbury Township, Lancaster Co., Pa. Married (2) at Sadsbury Monthly Meeting 13. 3mo. 1805, William² Moore, Jr., of Sadsbury Township, Chester Co., Pa., born there 22. 10mo. 1762, died _____, son of William¹ and Lydia (Minshall) Moore of Sadsbury Township, Chester Co., Pa.

On 9 Jan. 1788 Rachel² Frame was a witness to the marriage of her brother Benjamin² Frame to Elizabeth Pierce. The following year, 1789, she united with the Society of Friends of the Sadsbury Monthly Meeting.

According to the unpublished notes on the Frame family compiled by the Rev. Reuben³ Frame, his aunt, Rachel² Frame married first ----- Coulson. No proof of this marriage has been found.

On the 23 Nov. 1796, George² Mercer and Rachel² Frame declared their intention to marry. The use of her maiden name would indicate that she had not been previously married. Among the witnesses to her marriage 4 Jan. 1797 were Benjamin, William and David Frame, her brothers. Those who were witnesses to her second marriage to William Moore, Jr., were Caleb Mercer, James and Rachel Frame.

Although the exact date of the death of Rachel² (Frame) (Mercer) Moore is not known, the Census of Sadsbury Township, Chester Co., Pa., for the year 1850, states that Rachel Moore aged 84 years was living with George Mercer, a farmer.

Children by first marriage:

- * i. Mary Mercer, b. 31. 11mo. 1797.
- ii. Caleb Mercer, b. 20. 7mo. 1799.
- * iii. John Mercer, b. 10. 6mo. 1801.

DAVID FRAME AND HIS DESCENDANTS

SECOND GENERATION

DAVID² FRAME (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 22 Mar. 1771; died ; married ESTHER -----.

On 4 Jan. 1797 David² Frame was a witness to the marriage of his sister, Rachel² Frame to George² Mercer at the Sadsbury Monthly Meeting, Chester Co., Pa.

According to the notes on the Frame family compiled by the Rev. Reuben³ Frame, son of James² Fraim, the David Frames lived near Ellicott's Mills, Md., and had six sons: David, John, Thomas, James, Jesse and William, whose dates of birth are not given.

Mary Marsh³ (Frame) Meacham, daughter of William² Frame, in her "Recollections" writes "While we were in Maryland Father had a brother David who lived 50 miles west of us. He was a Quaker and often came to see us and wanted Mother to send Ruthanna with him to attend Quaker school. They had children and Ruthanna went and enjoyed very much".

Ellicott's Mills, Md., was between Baltimore, and Sandy Spring, Md. There was a Friend's Meeting at Ellicott City and also a school kept for various short periods. No records are in existence of the school and scant records of the Meeting. There was a large Quaker community at Sandy Spring, Md., about forty miles west of Baltimore, where there were also Friend's Schools. The Indian Spring Meeting was an early meeting between Sandy Spring, Md., and Washington, D. C.

William Wade Hinshaw in his "Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy" gives the name of David Frame and his wife Esther who were Quakers and members of Monthly Meetings in Maryland and later in Virginia. The names of three of their children are given with dates of birth. Although there is no definite proof that the David Frame recorded by Mr. Hinshaw is the same David² Frame, son of David¹ Frame, I am including the data I have recieved in this compliation of the Frame family.

Children of David and Esther (-----) Frame:

- * i. Eliza³, b. in 1804
- * ii. James M.³, b. 17 July 1807
- iii. Allice³, b. 21 Apr. 1817
- iv. David³, b. .

DAVID JAMES⁴ FRAME (James M.³, David², David¹), born in Loudon Co., Va., 26 Sept. 1836; died in Johnson Co., Kan., in 1891; married (1) Phoebe -----; married (2) near Waldron, Mo., in 1869, ANNA SMITH, born in Dearborn Co., Ind., 10 July 1850; died at Bonner Springs, Wyandotte Co., Kan., in February 1928, daughter of William and Marilla (Hoard) Smith who lived near Waldron, Mo.

David James⁴ Frame's mother, Anna H. (Brown) Frame died of tuberculosis when he was fourteen years of age and one of her brothers took him into his home. During this time David James attended a Quaker school, called the Springdale Boarding School which was in Virginia. One of his composition books bearing this name and the date 1854, is in the possession of his daughter Elida M. Frame Putcamp. That he was a member of the Society of Friends is proved by the following notice:

12 May 1859. David James Frame received a certificate from the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting, Bedford Co., Va., to the Green Plain Monthly Meeting in Ohio.

After the death of his first wife and baby, Mr. Frame moved to Missouri where he lived for a time, and then bought land in Kansas.

Children, by his second wife, born, with the exception of the first child, near Monticello, Kan.:

- i. Alice Marilla⁵, b. near Waldron, Mo., in June 1870; d. in Effingham, Kan., in Dec. 1949; mar. in Apr. 1896, Albert Valentine. They have 4 daus. and 1 son.

JESSE FRAME AND HIS DESCENDANTS

SECOND GENERATION

JESSE² FRAME (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 4 Feb. 1774; died at Bayside, Long Island, N. Y. 7 Oct. 1826; married at New York City, 12 Dec. 1798, MARY⁶ LEGGETT, born 17 Dec. 1776; died 3 Feb. 1853, daughter of Joseph⁴ and Miriam⁷ (Haight) Leggett of New York City.

As Jesse² Frame lost his mother when he was less than ten years old, he and his younger brother William² Frame, as has been previously stated, were taken into the home of their aunt, Hannah⁴(Miller) Lindley, and her husband, Jacob Lindley, who were Quakers. Upon the death of his wife Hannah, Jacob Lindley married (2) at the Pottstown Meeting, Pa., 26 June 1800, Ruth Anna Rutter, born 3 Jan. 1768; died 10 Sept. 1810, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Potts) Rutter. Ruth Anna Rutter had joined the Exeter Meeting in May 1787, and both she and her husband were ministers in the Society of Friends. The Lindleys lived at Kennett Square, Pa.

Nothing has been learned about the childhood and education of Jesse² Frame, but we do know that he was in the tanning business in Bridgetown, N. J. in partnership with a man named Davids, whose wife's name was Katharine. The grandfather's clock still in the family (at Saybrook, Conn. in 1946) was bought by Jesse Frame in that town. At the time of his marriage, Jesse Frame had moved to New York City and was still in the tanning business.

The Leggetts lived in New York City and were wealthy importers of East India goods. They also were Quakers and members of the New York Meeting, and the marriage of their daughter Mary to Jesse Frame is recorded in those minutes.

Mr. Edmund Van Dyke Cox Jr. has in his possession a well preserved note book inscribed as follows on the fly-leaf:

Jesse Frame
No. 291 Pearl St.
New York
6mo. 10th 1812.

There is every reason to believe it is in Jesse Frame's handwriting and from the notes contained in it, it would appear to indicate that Mr. Frame was also in the wholesale grain business. Page after page show such items as "Bushels of corn from schooner Hamlet, Captain Churchward." "Bushels of rye taken from sloop Vermont, Captain J. W. Petersen, Master. 10mo. 21st 1812." This is followed by a series of lines and checks indicating the unloading.

In 1814 Jesse Frame bought a large farm at Bayside, Long Island, on which he built a spacious, handsome house with paneled woodwork in the hall, a beautiful staircase, an upper hall which was like a gallery, and many bedrooms. He planted many locust trees along the edge of the farm on what is now known as Cross Island Boulevard. He had a lovely garden with box bushes and fine farmland. He engaged chiefly in raising Marino sheep whose wool at that time was very rare in this country and very valuable.

On 5 Oct. 1814, a certificate for Jesse Frame, his wife Mary and his five children, Catherine D., Joseph, Maria, Thomas and Eliza was granted by the New York Meeting (of the Society of Friends) to the Flushing Meeting, Long Island. The date of the birth of Eliza only is recorded as of 12 Nov. 1811. Later mention is made of three other children: Elizabeth, Benjamin and William.

Jesse Frame and his wife were a most cultured and hospitable couple who always kept open house. Mr. Frame died at the time of the typhus fever epidemic, but whether this was the cause of his death is not known. His wife survived him for many years.

Dear daughter

These may inform thee that our own family are all as well as when I last wrote to thee. John White still remains very ill with the typhus fever at our house. His father and mother are here with him. Thy Uncle Silianus is still mending - he walked into the front room yesterday. It is getting very sickly here - six funerals having passed up Chatham Street yesterday. Last week there were upwards of Seventy Deaths reported. I presume it will be best for thee to stay awhile at Rahway if thy friends are willing to keep thee. Perhaps thee had better stay mostly at John Williams on acct of friend Marsh being sick which I am exceedingly sorry to hear of. Thy mother sends her love to thee and hopes thee will conduct thyself orderly which will make it more agreeable to thy friends to have thee. I remain thy affct. Father

My Dear Niece

I have just returned from Meeting and have a few leisure moments before dinner and thought I would scribble a few lines to inform how I had passed my time in Philadelphia. I will begin with saying that I reached Rahway on third-day afternoon, on fourth day visited the old homestead, it looked natural tho very much out of order. On Sixth Day-morning at four o'clock I arose and at five sett off for our Journey. We rhode until five in the afternoon and stopt at Trenton, took some pleasant walks. I had pigeons. We retired about 10, arose at six and at seven we left for Philad. There were a great many passengers on board - most of them were friends tho strangers to me. We made many calls on the way for the purpose of taking in passengers. When we arrived at Bordentown (spelled Bordintown) seven miles beyond Trenton I was delighted with beholding the face of my friend Elizabeth Corlies of Shrewsbury who was going to attend the Yearly. She knowing I was a stranger invited me to make my home with her Cousin Jacob Justices which offer I gladly accepted. She having many acquaintances introduced me and took me with her which made it much pleasanter than if I had staid with Uncle Sammy. I purchased one hat only for myself for I found it was impossible to bring more. I have ---- and soiled it much. I think its handsome - 'twas so called in Philadelphia but in N. York I expect it is not - at least Sister Jenkins thinks so and thee knows thy Auntys tastes differ from many others. Goods were scarce and dear so did not purchase one article except what I have mentioned. Tell Maria I have sent her a pretty pair of kid gloves because I expect she is a very good little Girl. I expect her bonnet is shabby. If its worth cleaning I will have it done, if not I will get her a new one an am thy affectionate

Aunt E. L.

Philadelphia is a fine place for beaux. I saw and became acquainted with several and am much -----.

To Catherine D. Frame, aged 15, from her Aunt Esther Leggett, aged 19. Copied exactly as written.

New York 10th mo. 30th 1822

Dear Catherine

In much haste I wrote thee on first day, directed the same as this but have received no reply to gratify my anxious enquiries. Thee must know I want to hear what thee is about, how thee is spending thy time, how thee is pleased where thee has visited, what pleasing acquaintances thee has formed, etc. etc. In fact I must know and shall lay my absolute commands on thee for a letter - and if this comes to hand before tomorrow morning before thee has become engaged, thee must engage thyself to me for two hours and let me have a letter by return mail giving me the particulars. Thee may say to any whom thee may wish to invite to see thee that I am their humble servant at N. Y. to gallant them to Flushing, but I think thee had as well make up thy mind to spend most of the winter in town.

Sister Hannah has moved and her family are now all settled at Vandewater. The merchants are now preparing to move and by next second day the whole city will, if the present weather continues, be again the active metropolis. I went to our store yesterday to see how Joseph was getting on having the store cleaned and my curiosity led me on the dock where to my surprise I saw the shipping had taken their old places and though but ten days ago not a mast nor a vessel was to be seen, now the docks are lined with them and the masts and spars put on the appearance of a thick cedar swamp. In riding up Broadway you see the multitudes in motion - carts, (or as the Philadelphians would say drays) carriages, and people with their goods and chattels moving in all directions, though great caution is yet observed in going into the lower part of the city. It is rumored that we have six cases today but no facts warrant the report. S. D. J. has this moment called on me to say Anne will be down on tomorrow. Samuel and Eliza were at Thomas H's house yesterday. They are putting their house in order. Thee will at once conclude that as Samuel has ventured himself down that it must be healthy. He was, however, but a short time in town and with E. went to Whitestone in the evening.

I make great calculations on a letter from thee as I do not think Frances will be willing to come home in some days. I very much hope thee will have a pleasant and interesting visit and make thyself as cheerful and happy as possible, as in that state we are most sure of pleasing which will doubtless be the result of thy intercourse with thy new acquaintances.

Affectionately thine

Catherine Davids³ Frame to her cousin Eliza³ (Frame) Allen

My dear Cousin,

Thee has been so often brought to our remembrance that I thought I would write presuming thee would be pleased to hear from us. I did expect thee would have written us on thy return home giving us the particulars of thy journey, how thee found thy family and all of which would have been very agreeable to have heard. We made some inquiry about thee in town, but could learn nothing. Brother Joseph did not hear of thy being in town, and his feeble state of health at that time prevented his following thee up, as he wished to do. I have been in town twice and for very short time or should have call'd on Mrs. Hainse on purpose to enquire after thee, so thee sees dear cousin we have not forgotten thee but appreciated thy visit and do look back with a great deal of regret that we were so encumbered with a large family and the care that it brings as to make it impossible to pay the attention we would like to have done or to have enjoyed thy society. I only wish thee could pay thy visit over again. I have thought thee did not have a chance to get acquainted with thy cousins or to know how clever we are.

Thy sister Jennett's visit also was a very hurried one, but I hope when any of you visit us again, we will be differently situated and should your husbands ever get to New York hope they will take the trouble to find us and pay us a visit. Brother Joseph is still delicate but is better than when thee saw him. We have been very anxious for him to take a voyage thinking it might benefit him. He expressed great regret at not seeing thee again. My mother's health has been better I think than for several previous winters, her cough which troubled her so much in the winter has been better. She often speaks of thee and Jennette. My sisters, Maria and Eliza and their families are well. Brother Thomas and his wife paid us a short visit last week. I believe thee did not see them. His family were staying with us at the time thy sister was here, my brother Wm. is at home and well and sends his love to you. We have had a very cold winter and a good deal of sleighing which thee knows makes the country people lively and gay. There has been a good deal of visiting, some parties and weddings, some of which I have attended. We were invited to a wedding two or three weeks since. Brother and I went (I feel at liberty to attend wedding party) the bride was a Miss Lawrence. There were 600 invited and about 200 accepted. Everything was very orderly and very elegantly conducted. I spent the evening quite pleasantly. The groom was a son of General Rust of Virginia where the young people intend to settle on a plantation not far from Washington. By the way when thee writes to me do inform me in which part of Virginia your Uncle David's daughter lives and the name of her husband.

I suppose the Gold Mania or fever as it is called has reached your town as I believe there is not a section of our country however isolated but what has been in a greater or less degree infected by it. In New York it has been for the last 3 months the prevailing topic and seems to fill all minds from highest circles to the lowest, and hundreds have left or about leaving, many from our most respectable and intelligent families. Many of our acquaintances and several of my mother's cousins have gone. My brother Thomas has been a good deal excited about it and nothing but the importunity of his family has kept him from joining the multitude (he says against his own judgement). He is fond of adventure, he has been from home a great deal. He onced crossed over from Tubasca to the Pacific by land and is somewhat acquainted with the people and their ways, and is much better calculated to embark upon such an expedition than many who go, and who in my opinion will find before they return that all is not gold that glitters. The spring is returning though slowly to us, our nursery men and farmers are beginning to be busy. It warns us that our season for activity is approaching and will soon be here. The Day family that were with us last summer think some of coming again which will be their fourth summer. They staid with us about thirteen weeks but the time soon passing and the remainder of the year we are very much at liberty. I contemplate going to the city soon to spend a week. I shall try to find Mr. Hainse and also hunt up the Selbys to enquire after Cousin Reuben whom we have not seen or heard of since thee was here, I think he must have given up the city of late like myself or he would have taken a run up to see us. I have wanted to get up to see them but it has been impossible. I find I cannot leave home so easily now my sisters are gone. It seems so lonely for Mother. When we were all together I was frequently absent and have often thought I would have to visit? ? should I ever do so my principle object would be to hunt you up. Who knows what time may bring about yet but if I should never have the opportunity I shall always hold you in remembrance and I hope when this scrawl reaches thee do not be tardy in answering it.

My Mother and Brother William wish to be remembered to all your family included in the same wish, and conclude thy affectionate cousin

Catherine D. Frame

March 20th 1849.

Catherine Davids Frame was the daughter of Jesse² and Mary (Leggett) Frame who lived at Long Island.

Eliza (Frame) Allen was the daughter of William² and Rebecca (Marsh) Frame.

This letter was in the possession of Emma Kirtland Hine, who was tracing the family tree.

JOSEPH LEGGETT³ FRAME (Jesse², David¹), born probably in New York City, 28 Aug. 1802; died 11 Jan. 1879; married JOHANNA HEARD, born in 1806; died at Perth Amboy, N. J. 23 Oct. 1901, aged 95 years, daughter of James and Maria (-----) Heard of New York City.

Joseph Leggett³ Frame received his early business training from his grandfather, Joseph Leggett of New York City, an importer of East Indian goods. He made several trips to Europe for the firm and later in life was one of the leading New York merchants.

Mr. Frame was very handsome and a great society man in New York in his youth. His portrait was painted by Peale and exhibited at the Academy of Fine Arts where it was seen by a Miss Johanna Heard. She fell in love with it and determined to meet the original, which she succeeded in doing at a ball given shortly afterwards. Later they were married.

A letter written by Mr. Frame's sister Eliza³ (Frame) Titus dated 2mo. 2da. 1879 tells of his illness and death:

I must now inform thee of the death of my dear Brother Joseph. He departed this life on the night of the 11th day of January 1879.

Although he has had to suffer much for so many years he was favored at last to pass gently and quietly away. On the 8th Inst he was stricken with paralysis and although he knew me when I went in to see him he could not articulate. But I have reason to think that his work was done and that he felt ready for the change. I wrote to you while he was making his home with us which was about 9 months and since then he has lived with his married daughter and his wife was with him also."

Mrs. Johanna (Heard) Frame lived to be 95 years old. Although she died at Perth Amboy, N. J. she and her husband are buried in a lot she purchased in the Friends Burying Ground at Flushing, Long Island, N. Y.

The will of James Heard, merchant, of New York City, dated 22 June 1842, was probated 7 Apr. 1847. It mentioned his wife, Maria Heard, also his daughter "Joanna, wife of Joseph L. Frame". (Liber 93, p. 479)

My dear Sister,

I now for the first time have the pleasure of addressing thee since my arrival which I would have done before, but was a good deal engaged and made a few hasty lines to Father suffice.

I will not at this time attempt to relate the particulars of my voyage, that you shall see when I return and even then you must not expect to find it painted in high colors.

Our passage was not filled with much variety. We saw but few of the curiosities of the Ocean to interest us but being pretty clever fellows this deficiency was in a good measure made up by our sociability and the time passed very pleasantly. Our passengers seemed to be a concentration of all parts of the Globe. There was one Frenchman, one German, two Englishmen, one Irishman, one Canadian, one Barbadian, one from the Isle of Porto Rico, and two New Yorkers and we all agreed remarkably well though the Englishman and Frenchman would now and then give each other a "rub", and our poor Paddy often had to bear the brunt of all our jests.

A voyage across the Ocean is not so terrific as I had imagined and where the passengers are clever and communicative it is real enjoyment. On board the "Manchester" you seem to have everything to make you comfortable and make the time pass pleasantly.

I have now been here a week and tomorrow or next day expect to start for Manchester. This is First Day and as I wish to attend Meeting I must bid adieu. If I have time after Meeting before the Packet sails I will write something more. My best love to all and my respects to R. Franklin if he should enquire after me.

Very affectionately thy brother

Joseph

Part of a letter written from London. First part missing.

"-----in one of which there was eight and in the other seven hundred dining. The Hospital is a retreat for seamen who by age, wounds, or infirmities, are disabled for service and for the widows and children of those who are slain in battle, and is an institution that does credit to the country. It has an extensive park near it, the completion of which was the work of King Charles the 2nd, and on the hill in the park is the Royal Observatory erected by him. From the meridian of this place all European astronomers make their calculations. The park abounds with deer and in summer is a place of great resort for parties on a little excursion of pleasure. My visit to the Abbey was very hasty and as I observed above, gave it only a glance. I shall not say much of it until I see it again. It is most magnificent and exceeded my expectations. I sat in the Coronation Chair but I think I feel no more kingly than before. It has not so much splendor as one would suppose. The monuments are numerous and some of them SPLENDID, that of Mary Queen of Scots seemed to interest me more than anyone I saw. I also visited Westminster Hall but confess I was much disappointed in its appearance. It has not the grandeur one would suppose.

A place of great novelty and one that afforded me much interest that I visited a few days since, is the Bazaar. It is an establishment for the sale of fancy goods on a most extensive scale and is conducted by about two hundred females. It is useless to say the goods and everything is kept in the neatest manner, and the many rosy checked and interesting countenances you see attending the different stands almost makes a gentleman buy whether he will or not. The novelty of this mart attracts numerous visitors and renders it quite a fashionable lounge for the gentry.

This morning I had the pleasure of seeing friend Parr. He called at my lodgings. He looks very much as he did in America and has lost none of his ingeniousness and sociability. He wished to be remembered to you all and particularly to Grandmother and said he had often thought of her and should like very much to see her. He talks as much of his fine daughter as ever. I understand she is a fine girl but not very handsome. I shall probably see her soon. I hope I shall hear direct from some of you by the next Packet.

Give my love to father and mother and sister M. and little Eliza and Billy and Benny and all the enquirers, and accept a great share for thyself.

Very affectionately thy brother

Joseph

Maria^s Frame to her younger sister Eliza^s Frame

Saratoga 8 mo. 18th 1835.

My dear Sister,

Thy letter with one from brother Joseph was handed us at meeting last First day and we were really glad to hear from you. The evening previous we rode to Schuylersville which is about 7 miles distant thinking that perhaps your letter had not been properly directed and that it had gone there. I found by the postmark on thine that it had been to Saratoga Springs but there was very little detention about it. Joseph said that one of them would meet us at Poughkeepsie on 7th day last but I hope that my letter was received in time to prevent their disappointment. I thought that as Benjamin was improving it would be of more use to him to remain quietly where he was a few days longer and as he too had a wish to stay we persuaded Mother to change her intention and she now seems satisfied with it.

Mother, Aunt Abigail and Elias left home this morning for Saratoga Quarterly Meeting which is held at Galway about 25 miles west of us. They go through the Springs on their way to it and expect to return on 5th day.

This place is differently situated from what I expected. I had an idea that it was N. W. of the Springs but instead of that it is only 10 miles east of them and about 5 from Saratoga Lake, a beautiful little sheet of water nine miles in length. Tomorrow will be a week since Naomi, Elias (cousin William told me not to forget their names) and myself crossed it on our way to the Springs. We left home about 1 P. M. and when we got there found them at dinner which I was heartily glad of for every once in a while I kept thinking how shall we do when we get there. I found it was nothing but paltry Pride that made me feel so, and at last made up my mind to be very independent for where is the difference between a go-cart and a carriage. We stopped at the best Public House in the place and after being treated with some first rate lemonade we took a stroll through the village to see all that could be seen. I was surprised to see so much improvement as a few years had made in it. The Spring is prettily fitted up but the view of it on Catherine's work box is very much embellished. The water was very mild that day. I am told that there is such a demand for it that they are obliged to add a little fresh water now and then. I know that it was much milder than it used to be. We walked up to see the Cars come and found that they had not been in that day owing to an accident that they met with a few miles from Schenectady. It seems that there was a man riding by horseback by the roadside and as the steam car approached the horse took fright and jumped in the path and they say was cut in two at once. The man escaped with but little injury. As we heard that they (the Cars) were on their way we waited to see them. It was quite a novelty to me and well worth seeing. There were about 2500 visitors at the Springs the day that we were there but I saw no one that I knew. On our return we stopped at the Andrew Dorlands to tea. We had a delightful ride home and felt quite compensated for our warm, dusty ride going. I have only made 3 visits since I have been here but have taken a great many pleasant rides which I like far better than visiting. We have our Tea between 5 and 6 and it gives us good time for riding. It is the practice around here to blow the horn at 5 o'clock for the men and all to come in for Tea and then they go in the fields to work again. The men are not particular to leave work at sundown as with us so that there is no time lost and it makes it easier for the women.

Mother has visited around a good deal. Before she left this morning she wrote some directions which I will copy for thee.

"1st. Take care of the ashes about the fire. That boy must pull every weed out of the garden and cut all the brush that he can. I only kept him out of kindness to his mother. Examine the linchpins of the waggons. Don't settle with the men till I come home. We want no men by the day. The men must do all. I do hope the hedge is cut and some of the oats stubble ploughed. I am glad you have sold the wheat. Don't make too much bread at once."

Benjamin is not getting along quite as fast as we could wish but is better. The Doct. has recommended something that we think has helped his cough, his appetite is good and he has things comfortable. At present there is no time fixed to leave here but I fear that we shall tire them out though I have no reason to think so except that I know that we hinder their spinning and weaving. Has thee heard the particulars of the Moonlight Party? I want thee should write all about it. Gil would have seemed much more like a gentleman had he not invited thee at all. I should have been so provoked to be invited in that way that I should not have sent an answer to him of any kind but I suppose it is owing to his ignorance more then anything else. If that is the case we must look down with pity instead of contempt. Margaret, too, minded the matter much by saying "A fine invitation". What did Joe King say about it - did he go? I quite long to know what Flushing girls would engage in such ungenteel arrangement as that was. It looks as though they were at a great loss for sport. I hope that Thomas did not go, did he? Write all about it and every other particular this week. Don't be afraid of postage. I am very glad that you get along so well without me. It was quite an inducement to stay longer. When you write send your love to Aunt Abigail. Love is much thought of. Have they heard from Uncle A. since we left? I hope that I shall have an opportunity of sending this soon but do not know of any at present. Have you heard from Uncle F. lately? I hope that you may enjoy all the "stillness" and repose that you so abound in in our absence and with much love to you all remain

Thy affectionate sister

Reuben and Margaret Frame

My dear Cousins,

I feel much regret that so long a time has been allowed to pass without any correspondence between us. It may appear that we are indifferent but this is not the case. We often think and talk about you and it would be one of the greatest pleasures in the world to see you once more. I find in looking back that two years has passed since thy last letter was received. At that time you were in Chicago and thought in the following spring of going to Kansas that Hattie might receive some benefit from that delightful climate, but we never heard whether you did or not. I am pleased to acknowledge the receipt of a paper the "Presbyterian" in which it speaks of thy son Walter as being an eminently successful Pastor at North La Crosse also of his being elected President of a University. I read it to my brother Joseph and to my Sister and Brothers Thomas and William. I well know how to participate with you in your feelings as parents. When we see our children moving in a direction to glorify their Heavenly Father, it does honor to their earthly parents, and we feel well paid for all the care of bringing them up. I must now inform thou of the Death of my dear Brother Joseph. He departed this life on the night of the 11th day of January 1879.

Although he has had to suffer much for so many years he was favored at last to pass gently and quietly away. On the 8th Inst he was stricken with paralysis and although he knew me when I went in to see him he could not articulate. But I have reason to think that his work was done and that he felt ready for the change. I wrote to you while he was making his home with us which was about 9 months and since then he has lived with his married daughter and his wife was with him also. I like to give every one their due and think I can say that his wife showed an interest to make him comfortable. What a blessed thing it is that we can reform. Enclosed you will find a memoriam of Brother Joseph written by my daughter Adona (Silas wife). Silas is not yet able to go down to business. My Sister Eliza's Family are all well except Gilbert who at present is quite sick, and confined to his bed. He has passed his 80th year and yet been an invalid so many years. In connection with the gout he has kidney complaint and I would not be surprised to hear of his death at any time.

Brother William's family are all well. He has a small family - Two estimable daughters. Brother Thomas is spending the winter in the City. His Son Charles Frame sent a letter to me a few days since which he had received from David A. Frame, Montclair, Essex County, New Jersey. He had noticed the death of Brother Joseph in the papers and spoke of being with you when making him a call. Although he did not see him to speak to, he seems desirous to know whether this is the same person and wants to hear a little about our ancestors. It seems by his letter that he has written to thee a long time since and received no answer. Perhaps it would be well to make an extract from his letter as follows. "Having met with the name of Rev. John Selby Frame in a necrological list published by authority I took occasion some time after to write to his Father Rev. Reuben Frame and directed according to the best knowledge of his whereabouts but as yet have had no reply. The presumption is that it was not received or that he too may have passed away. Perhaps he may be with his Son Walter at La Crosse." Now cousin if that letter was received it shows that some others beside myself may be delinquent too. David A. Frame further says "I regret to see the North of Ireland Frames gradually simmering away to nothing. Of the three brothers who came here immediately after the troubles 1798 in which they participated I am the only male Descendant. The Brother names who came over Robert, John and Andrew. The names of their Brothers left there, William, Thomas and David." No doubt we are of the same Family by the names running so much alike. My Father died in 1826, when we were young and this Family much scattered. The mode of Travel so different from now that Ohio and Maryland was thought to be a great way off. Had my Father lived a little longer his prospect was to take me with him in the next autumn to visit his relations. As thou hast traveled much about and through the west or rather in Ohio and Pennsylvania which we do not now think very far west you have a chance to gather the early knowledge of their Family. Our Grandfathers and Grandmothers names were David and Catherine Frame. They died leaving some of the children young and Jacob Lindley's wife who was nearly related (aunt, I believe) took my Father and Uncle William under her care. This Lindley was a conspicuous member of the Society of Friends. Lived at New Garden, Pennsylvania and Dr. Allen's wife Ruth-Anna was named after this aunt.

Last summer I heard of a David Frame living at Brookville, near Sandy Springs, Maryland. My nephew Charles met with a Thomas Frame in Minnesota last autumn. I think the Sisters are more likely to treasure up Family records than Brothers. My Father's Sister Rachel married a Moore; another Sister a Mercer. All were living in the vicinity of New Garden. Our Legend is that our Family were of the Covenanters who left Scotland and settled in the North of Ireland, but when they came to this country cannot tell. In the grave yard of Wm. Penn in the old country there is a Tomb Stone with Frame on it as one of the Family. My daughter Mary spent three months at Aiken, S. C. last winter (not on acct of health) and visited Savannah, Augusta and Charleton etc. and last September she made a little excursion taking in Cincinnati, Richmond, Indiana, Washington, Baltimore and so home. Now my dear Cousins with my sincere love to both of you and to Hattie in which my Family joins, I bid you farewell.

Your affectionate Cousin

Maria Titus

I hope that I may soon receive an answer to this my long letter giving me particulars about you all.

THOMAS LEGGETT³ FRAME (Jesse², David¹) born probably in New York City, 28 Mar. 1809; died at Patchogue, Long Island, N. Y., 7 Apr. 1901; married at the Philadelphia Monthly Meeting (Society of Friends) 6 June 1837 by the Rev. Charles E. Pleasants, ANNE EMLÉN PLEASANTS, born 16 Aug. 1806; died 24 Aug. 1885, daughter of Charles and Anne (Emlen) Pleasants of Philadelphia, Pa.

Thomas Leggett³ Frame; with his parents, was granted a certificate from the New York Meeting to the Long Island Meeting, 5 Oct. 1814, but was transferred back to the New York Meeting in 1825.

He was sent to South America, Australia, Mexico etc. by his uncles, the Leggetts, who wished him to look after their interests in the mahogany trade. Mr. Frame was very musical, played the flute, and whistled marvellously. Once in Mexico City he unintentionally attracted a crowd by his whistling, and some of the people were so entranced that he was tossed up on their shoulders and carried about the streets. He was noted as a wit and could tell the most wonderful stories of his travels and adventures. A friend of the family remembered him as a tall handsome man.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leggett Frame are buried in the Flushing Cemetery, Long Island, N. Y.

New York 7 mo. 9, 1825

Dear Sister

Jos. and Ann left this morning for Phil. He received thy letter yesterday and said he was very glad thee wrote him. He anticipated a great deal of pleasure and I think he will have a delightful time and I hope he'll not meet with any unpleasant occurrence to disappoint him. I expect he will go to Washington and Mount Vernon also, and stop by the way of Sadsbury to see Jno. Mercer when he returns. He has a great many letters to deliver and Uncle A. has given several of introduction to the great folk at Washington. He received a letter from Joshua Thompson 3 or 4 days ago - it's a funny thing, all big words - amounts to nothing, can't make any sense of it. Joshua showed it to Caroline H. before he sent it to Jo., so little Eliza told me yesterday. I expect he thought it was something great. I believe he thinks a good deal of Caroline. I have been asked by the great news monger I. B. when thee and Maria were going to the Falls. He says Morris F. told him of it. It is reported among my acquaintances that I swam clear across the East River - clear across. I have been thought a great deal of for doing such a wonder. Whether it was reported by Tom Pearsall, Sam. L., or William, can not tell but I think most probably from A. L. as his clerks were the first ones who spoke of it.

I continue to like my abode yet very well. There's something new - the boarders coming in from all parts of the city always have something laughable to tell and we have our meals regular. I don't go home for breakfast and find ----- in bed some mornings and others all the tables cleared off and have tea sometimes before dark and others between 8 and 9 o'clock, but breakfast at 7. Dine at 1. Tea 20 minutes or about that of 8. It is laughable to see a pair that eats with us - they both eat of the same piece of cheese, one will take one half of a piece of bread and the other the other, but it is delightful. Two evenings in the week there is a music school right back of us and I sleep in the back part of the house, and to be lulled to sleep by sweet music is truly delightful. I am reading the 4th Vol. of Sir Charles Grandison. It almost makes me in love with him - how I pity poor Clementina. I have got to where Miss G. is about to marry Lord G. and Sir Charles is getting ready to go to Italy to the Poretta Family and I hope he will find the noble Clementina entirely recovered. I think she deserves him more than Miss Byron. I don't like some speeches of the author such as for a lady to say "hang it", "the duice take it", "Good God" etc. etc., but I believe it's not uncommon among the most refined English ladies at the present day for I heard one say "Good God" once myself.

I hope you will write often. Uncle A., Aunt H., Uncle Jos and I all think it would be good for little Bill to come down here. Aunt H. is going to ask Uncle T. to bring him.

(Little Bill was a younger brother).

New York 7mo. 7th 1830

My dear Sisters,

I got in town this morning about five o'clock from my Fourth of July jaunt and I don't believe anyone has spent a more pleasant and rational one. Oh how I do delight to travel. The variety, the scenery, the many little and sometimes big occurrences (by the by I believe I always have a more than common share both little and big) the opportunity to study Character and study Human Nature, all tend to make me enjoy it to the fullest extent. I left here on 7th Day at 4 o'clock bound for Hartford, found on board about 250 passengers of all sorts - some ladies, some women, some men, some niggers and negres, among the number I was acquainted with a dozen or 15. Became acquainted with a fine young fellow whom I have met and dogged whenever I have travelled. We recognized each other and the thought seemed to be reciprocal that it was time we should have an introduction, and we introduced ourselves to each other, He proved to be a German, been in this country about three years, travelling. Had travelled a good deal in England and Europe. I found him intelligent and agreeable, very handsome though appeared unconscious of it. I had a long and interesting conversation up on the upper deck till near 1 o'clock at night. There were so many passengers we had to draw for our berths and he did not get one and it was such a gloriuous night - the moon shone as bright as day - that I could not go to bed so kept him company. I awoke in the morning about 5 and went up on deck to view the scenery as we sailed up the Connecticut River. The river is very winding and the sail is very fine but not so grand as the North River. There are no Highlands to pass through nor so many large towns nor much fine scenery. However, tis very beautiful. Well, we got up to Hartford about 11 o'clock First Day morning, put up at the best hotel, of course, shaved, dressed ourselves and stroll'd about in the neighborhood till dinner. Saw a good many merchants I knew and after dinner one of them called on us to take us about to see the town, the churches were all open and we visited most of them and from the number at Hartford as well as New Haven a body would be led to draw the conclusion that they were very religious. They are beautiful inside. We were afterwards called on to accompany one of the first men in the place to go to the new and most fashionable church in town. Tis like, as to style, St. Thomas Church up Broadway. After church a gentleman called in his gig to take me out riding which was very delightful. I should like to go into particulars but I have not time as tis nearly four o'clock. After my ride I accepted an invitation out to tea. After tea I called on a Mr. Phelps whom I travelled with up in Canada who was extremely glad to see me and invited me to dine with him on 2nd day but I would not accept though he cracked a bottle of champagne and had two beautiful daughters who played on the piano although it was First Day night. He offered me his horse and gig to ride in all the next day, but didnt accept.

Second day, got up, ate breakfast and started off for a place called Tower. Tis situated 9 miles N. W. from Hartford and commands a beautiful view of 40 or 50 miles each way. On one side we could follow the serpentine Connecticut and on the other the Farmington canal for 50 miles. Oh, the view was beautiful beyond description. I should like to particularize but I can't now. We left Hartford for New Haven 2nd day about 3 o'clock in Stage, got there at 1/2 past 8. Walked about for twas lovely and moonlight. N. H. is a very pretty place. Visited the Colleges and Churches the next day (which was yesterday) wrote some poetry in some pretty girl's Hymn Book at the finest church (at least we supposed she was pretty for she had a pretty name) and stating we were New Yorkers passing through N. H. and wished to leave a small memento etc. etc. We afterwards visited the merchants, dined, walked about, took tea, and left there last evening at 8 o'clock. Got home this morning at 5 and found I had spent only 7.87 1/2 so it shows how much can be done with $8.00 if we have a mind to. Aunt Frances particularly desires that Benny will get her a quantity of St. Johnsworth to make ointment and send down the first opportunity. They expect to go on to Stonington some time next week. I hope you can make out to send my clothes by next 3 or 4 day at least. I could not well send them up on 7th day last.

From Thomas^s Frame to his brother, Joseph L^s. Frame.

Tabasco (Mexico) Feb. 23rd 1833

My dear Brother,

By this vessel going to New Orleans I take this opportunity. Since the brig Tabasco sailed I have written by the following opportunities, viz., Jan 23 per M. L. Eastman via Havana; Jan. 25 per Schooner Emerald, Captain Posner; Jan. 25 via New Orleans. Feb. 5 per Schooner Jane; Feb. 15 per Schooner Banner. I am this particular in mentioning by whom I write thinking there may be some treachery about delivering the letters and I wish you to do the same in New York. I am always careful to deliver my letters in the presence of some one so that I can trace who shall intercept. Nothing has transpired since writing my last, worthy noting. We have heard via Vera Cruz that England and France have commenced operations against Austria, Russia and Holland and have already taken Antwerp and other places. There are a considerable number of French in this country and they are all surprised at the alliance of France and England and at the friendship that has subsisted between the governments for the past 8 or 10 years. They regret it as much as they are surprised at it and seem to have all that old feeling of hatred towards the English which we need not be so much surprised at when we take into consideration the rivalry that has subsisted between the two nations for centuries and their many and long disputes. Mexico is, much as thee said in one of thy former letters, made up of the dregs of all nations. There are many rascals who flee to our country from the Old World but the grade of rascals who come to this country are of a far worse character, and it is as thee says, those who came here with good principles leave the country ruined, even not excepting Americans. I have no doubt but Gahagan had good principles when he first came, indeed I can see by the books. The accounts were commenced and kept regular for the 5 or 6 months, then I can perceive where his principles were first begun to be shaken. I think when he came to New York in March last he left this country as he thought forever. He has been to Vera Cruz where he lost all the money by gambling that he had gained before he went. He is now returned and drunk through the day and all of his acquaintances have discarded him. Several of us Americans deputed one of our number to go to him and say that if he would leave the country for New York by the first vessel a present of 4 or 500 dols. would be got him and a passage home, but he insulted the messenger and said he had plenty of money etc. We have heard within a few days that the cholera is now up in the country where I have been and if that is the case we may expect to have it here pretty soon. We are now three months without advices from New York. I should like very much to know how the South Carolinians got on. Although, don't advocate the tariff and I think that those that do advocate high tariffs reason upon wrong principles, yet the South Carolinians have acted in a very strange manner and under a singular infatuation. Since Uncle A's vessels are out of the Tabasco trade the intercourse is not so frequent as it was a year ago and I hope for a good bundle of Papers and Letters. When the tall man with a cockade returns I hope it will be without his badge which gives him so much consequence among these Indians and ignorant and uneducated fellows as a Duke would in New York. For the last three days at this place we have had a carnival and although the diversions are of a low cast yet there is much that has occurred to laugh at. The men change clothes with the women and the women with the men and night and day go about the streets naked. The young ladies play a trick upon their acquaintances by throwing flour in their faces or filling their hair full and at the fandangoes which are in numbers at this time everybody gets floured and such looking objects as you never saw before. Uncle A. and myself are both full of it and it can not readily be got rid of. But at a ball the other night Uncle A. and I fixed them. They began to flour us and he went home and got a paper of lamp black and we blackened almost every ladies face in the room. Everyone had on their best duds but white frocks were soon made all colors and no respect to persons. We soon all had the appearance of a parcel of dirty, greasy faced niggers. Another diversion is for the women to have a pole or flagstaff erected at the top of which is a beautiful flag. The pole is perfectly smooth and well shushed with grease. The women defend the pole and flag and the men attack them and if they get the flag down the women give a ball but if the women defend it successfully the men pay the expenses. If a man tries to get up the pole he is assailed by the women and they send oranges and rotten eggs, they tear off his clothes; the women are also assailed by the men with rotten oranges etc. etc. and for a looker on the two parties afford no small diversion. The time of the people is taken up at least one half of the year in feasts and diversions and it is not surprising that they are idle and ignorant. As the "Charlotte" has not yet been heard of, course it is lost. By this time I think the Tabasco must be at New York by which I hope on her return to have some sent me. We now have and have had for three months a most delightful climate and trees have been in full bloom the whole winter. I suppose thee with the rest have been as usual visiting and joining in the general gaiety of the winter. I think it a little strange that the Graham family have dropt corresponding with me. It was marked on my part and Tom's and M's writing to me was perfectly unexpected. I answered their letters and have written David three times. I should like Sackett to write me and he sent me some interesting papers in July last. I still am of opinion that it would not be a bad thing for Ben to come out and return with me, about which I wrote more fully in my former letters. Uncle A. went off this morning on a jaunt of 5 or 6 days up the mountains. He says I write too often and my letters are too long. He's an old granny and a fortune would make him tyrannical, taunting insulting character. My best love to all.

Affectionately thy brother

Thomas L. Frame

Thomas L.^s Frame to his brother William^s Frame. Refers to the death from small-pox of a man servant named Larry.

New York Feb. 12th 1851

Dear Brother William

Thy letter to me of the 9th I rec'd last night when I went home and we read it with a good deal of interest. We had already heard of the death of poor Larry and we felt anxious to hear how you all were getting along and regret to hear such a poor report. If it were only for account of myself I would immediately come up and see you and try to be of some service but perhaps it would be more prudent not to do so at present. I do hope the disease will not spread or any others be taken down with it. I myself have passed through the cholera and several epidemics and part of the repelling force against all such diseases is to not become alarmed and nervously frightened but at the same time to be prudent. You must have had a pretty hard time and a trying one during the month past. The small-pox is quite prevalent here in the city but it is more or less so here every winter. We rec'd a letter from sister Catharine last week brought to my office by Thomas H. Junior. As to ourselves we are all well now and the children go to school regularly. About 3 weeks ago Mary was taken sick with something like scarlitina and was kept at our home over a fortnight, and Ann was complaining 2 or 3 weeks after we came down but Charlie and I have kept well. Miriam has been in town several days and been to see us several times. John Griffen and Mary Leggett's proposals came before Meeting last week and hear that they and Reuben expect to get married at the same time. Joseph has just called to see me and read thy letter and he thinks if George should be taken with the small-pox it would be well to bring him to the Hospital. But such a thing after a man is taken down is not so possible. Joseph says they are well at home. Since he has had employment he looks and feels and is a great deal better. When thee comes to the city if you have plenty of apples we would like to have a 2 bushel bag of apples. Those we brought lasted until a fortnight ago and the children miss them very much. I gave a dollar for a half bushel the other day. The winter is passing rapidly away and today is quite spring-like. The bay, however, has a good deal of ice floating from the North River. Nothing yet heard from the steamer Atlantic but we expect to hear something definite in a day or two by the Asia which vessel has been out ten days. If nothing should be learned of her then the feeling will be to give her up as lost. Give much love to Mother and Catherine and believe me thy affectionate

Brother Thomas L.

Letter from Mrs. Gilbert Pearsall and her daughter Antoinette Pearsall. Eliza³ Frame, daughter of Jesse and Mary (Leggett) Frame married Gilbert H. Pearsall.

Sept. 9th 1893

My dear Cousin Margaret

Thy delightful letter reached me just before I left home for a three weeks visit to White plains. My dear children sent me in the country to try and get my old strength restored. Through the winter and spring I became so reduced and shaking. I am rather better and stronger - but thee can see by my writing that my hands are not quite steady yet, and my head is weak. I have enjoyed reading thy letter over and over and see dear Cousin Reuben so plainly. I am so thankful to thee for it. We have all enjoyed it very much.

We are comfortably settled at housekeeping by ourselves but are glad to see our friends who do not forget us, and hope we will see some of thy family some time in the future. My daughter Antionette is preparing to leave me on Monday morn, the 11th with a large party of her friends to visit Chicago. She intends hunting thee up, her address will be -

Miss A. G. Pearsall - at the Pullman Hotel -
55th St. and Washington Ave.
Chicago.

I hope she will find you all well. She is a good substantial lovely character and will give you all the information you would like to have of our present home - which I do enjoy ever so much. - and I have such conscientious good children.

Thy account of Mrs. Hanna's family and all thy family was so interesting to us, where is thy daughter Sarah? does she live in Chicago? My dear son is an excellent and intelligent man - stands very high in the estimation of his employers - who are

He has been with them 12 years.

Brother William's daughter Catherine D. Frame intends going to Chicago with this party - and I presume will go to see thee with Nettie - she is the oldest child - the 2nd daughter Mary is married to a Mr. Cox, a grandson of old Jordan Wright whom you may remember. They live with my brother on the Farm. But Mr. Cox is doing a good business in New York and comes down every day - is an excellent man. They have two children "Girls".

I have enjoyed thy letter to me very much, read it over every little while, and hope thee will feel able to write to me again before so long a time passes. I can not walk in the street very well and seldom go out to walk. We are living in the upper part of the City in a pleasant neighborhood to look out upon - but the people are a different class from and we do not mingle with them as associates, tho they feel kindly and we exchange courtesies some times with the next neighbour who is Irish. I have by my side a bunch of beautiful flowers from their garden. We are only a short distance from the park.

Farewell my dear cousin give love to all thy family

My dear Cousins,

I little thought I would wait so long before writing after having such a lovely visit with you, but it seems as if there had been one continual strain, and the things to do seem endless. My staying so long in your wonderful city has made me late in getting ready for the winter and the cold weather has caught us before we are quite ready. I sincerely hope it will not be a severe long cold winter for there seems to be so much poverty and so many people out of work.

The last two days I spent in Chicago, I stayed with my cousins. Their Mother was a first cousin of my Mother and her name was Phebe Ann Leggett and she married Thomas Brown, the family now live in your city. I thought perhaps you would remember them. I left for home on the third of October, not stopping at Niagra as I fully intended. (excuse mistake but I wrote on another sheet). We were so delayed by our engine dropping our train the first few hours that we lost three hours and could not make connections, consequently I came right through, found them awaiting my arrival although it proved to be a very late hour, or early one might say, for it was ten minutes after two A. M. fortunately I telegraphed Frank to meet me or otherwise I would have been wandering around the streets in the wee small hours.

My visit to you has been such a pleasant memory and I only wish we could see more of each other. I have wondered how Hattie is - if she is any better and does she think of coming on to that cure, we all call it. If any of the family come to New York do give them our address we will be so glad to see them, they can easily find us by crossing the Brooklyn Bridge and then enquiring for the cars run from the Bridge crossing 8th Street.

Do write to me. We are all very well. Dear little Mother was so pleased to hear from you and I've told her over and over about my visit.

Lovingly

Nettie G. Pearsall

William³ Frame, the youngest child of Jesse and Mary (Leggett) Frame, seems to have been the one to continue farming at the old homestead. He was married to Phebe Willets in the house where she had been born and in 1946, this house was still standing and was known as the "Maine Maid Inn".

In 1873, William Frame sold his farm on the Whitestone Road (now Cross Island Boulevard) and bought a house and forty acres at Broadway, Flushing. This house was also standing (1946) at the south east corner of Northern Boulevard and Cemetery Lane.

Sharon, 1st mo. 12th 1849

Dearest Brother,

I received thy very acceptable letter last evening by Stephen Sutton which was very acceptable indeed, and also the bundle and more than all, mother's likeness, which is a great gratification for me to see her. The girls think I have a very pretty mother, and so I have. I received a letter some time ago from home saying that father had taken a box down to New York for me so I have been on the outlook for it ever since but at last I came to the conclusion that perhaps you had waited to send it by Stephen Sutton but the bundle I got and the money thee sent will answer just the same purpose as the box. Tell Matilda that I think the apron very pretty and it was quite too much for her to make it for me, but I will try and repay her some way or another for her kindness. The girls think it a beautiful apron. I believe Stephen Sutton has quite a curiosity to see me, I believe he takes quite an interest in my welfare. Stephen and his sister are going to Philadelphia today. He has relations there by the name of Edgar Lang. Stephen Sutton has got a very nice daughter. He said thee had a great notion to come along with him. I should like first rate for thee to come here and see all the pretty girls. There is one very pretty Jersey girl here and some very pretty ones from Phil. Oh dear me, I am not going to stay here any longer than five months anyhow, for I am really unhappy here, and as for learning, I don't learn much, I don't feel very well, I am just as fat, thee can not imagine how fat my face is, and I really think my throat is swollen for it appears very thick. My voice is as thick as I don't know what. I am sitting in the dining room writing this letter to one who is very far away, but often do I sit and muse upon thee, so deep in thought that I forget I am at Sharon. My last letter stated that Grandfather Crocker had passed from his earthly abode to a happier place, he has for a long time been suffering bodily and mental pain to a very great degree and I trust his spirit is much happier, but how uncertain is life. Every night before I close my eyes does this sentence flit before my imagination. I can not account for it, it makes me feel more desponding than I would do. No, I will not stay more than five months. It has been very muddy walking for a day or two past. I have not been to Meeting for five or six meeting days on account of my sore throat and the bad walking. I do get very few letters from home and from Mary and Elizabeth and from thee. I think it so strange that the girls don't write oftener, when thee sees them tell them to write, won't thee? I think they might write oftener than they do for I have received two from E. and one from Mary. Some of the girls here are very nice and others quite to the contrary. I am so sorry that my tooth is broken out that I don't know what to do, it makes me look so ugly and so funny. There is a girl here from Reading, Penn. but she is a nice girl, she is my intimate friend, she reminds me of Matilda a good bit and looks something like her. She is going to come on and see me next summer. She is the most graceful girl in the school. The marriage of John Plummer and Elizabeth Dodge seems to be quite a funny occurrence but a very unsuitable one. Uncle John says he don't want the school as large these next five months as it has been and Aunt Rachel told all the five month girls that they must know for certain whether they are going to stay any longer than five months or not. There are one or two girls who want to stay seven months but she says she will not take them if she can get girls in their places to stay for five months and she says she has plenty of applications and so the next time thee writes thee must conclude for certain whether I am to stay on longer. Oh had I the wings of a dove how soon would I flee to my own native home. Mary Jane Sutton's father brought her the most eatables, mince pies, cakes and so forth. I did receive thy letter that thee wrote when at home. I forgot to mention it when I last wrote to thee. New Years was spent here dull enough for the greater part of the girls were in town and if you get to cutting up here they give you marks. Every day they set down our behavior and keep a strict account of our conduct and then at the end of the five months they reckon up our behavior and write it down on a card and send it to our parents so you need not be surprised when you see mine and if the girls get to carrying on they always get found out and the better girls you are the better will be your conduct card. I have no more news to write to thee and as my time is limited I must now draw to a close, and do answer soon, very soon. I must now stop for Mary Jane Sutton says I must leave off for her father says he wants me to come in the parlor and have an introduction to him. Do write soon. From

Phebe

Give my love to all enquiring friends.

Sharon 11th mo. 12th 1849

Dear Brother

Thy very acceptable letter was received Seventh day quite unexpectedly for I did not expect an answer so soon from thee and I hope thee will continue to answer my letters with as much punctuality as this last one. Our Lyceum has just commenced, we had two meetings last week, one was to elect officers who should fill the station for president, vice-president, and secretary, and they were accordingly elected, those who the scholars thought best calculated to fill such important offices, and in the other meeting were read several essays written by some of the scholars here term before last. One essay was a farewell address which was more interesting than the other two. At the next meeting they will debate "Whether civilization has been an injury or blessing to society". There are seven on each side to debate the question and I think it will be very interesting. We are to have them every Seventh day evening. Dear Brother, I have laid thy letter aside to answer Libby's letter. I don't expect to write to Mary till she answer mine. I think it very strange she can't devote one half hour to her absent sister. I was very glad to get thy letter Seventh day and I had been looking all the week for one. I want thee to answer those girls a first rate love-letter, can't thee get some young man to help thee compose it. Tell him how two young girls wrote to thee and wanted a reply or at least let their correspondence go to some young man and I will make them believe it is from thee, or some how but I want thee to answer them in a first rate manner. Rosalie sends her best respects to thee. When thee answers them thee can write one side of a sheet of paper to me and then tare off the other side and write to them and put them in the same envelope. I expect David and his! Troubador! had a lovely time. I am very sorry indeed that I have to scratch off thy letters to such a shocking rate, but so it is. If I had some black cloth I would work thee a pair of slippers. Tell mother to put some cloth in my trunk that you are agoing to send me. I don't see that it ever is agoing to come. Has thee been home lately? I suppose Hannah is at Westbury at school. Does Thomas and Mary come home as often as ever? They do not live near as well here as they did when I first came. They have the poorest meat, it is almost putrid, have good meat First Days. I don't believe I shall get a letter from thee as soon again for I expect thee will think the Postage is too much. My letter is not quite as long as thine but I have not time to write any more. I think I am quite excusable am I not? When thee directs my letters do not scratch them off quite so quick, take a little longer time, I mean just on the outside. Give my best respects to Grandfather's folks. Write soon.

From Phebe.

To Miss Phebe Willets from William Frame. 1852 or 1853.

Flushing, L. I.

It is only two months since I saw thee last yet what I have passed through renders it an age in seeming. Little did I think when I parted from thee that evening I should so soon be called upon to mourn the loss of my dear Mother. So sudden was the transition, I could not at first fully realize she was gone: but after came the desolating feeling that I should never meet her again this side of the grave.

May Heaven grant it long e're thee has to experience those feelings of bereavement. It was a severe trial to me at first to be so suddenly stript of my devoted Mother but we should feel happy than otherwise that she was not made to linger on a bed of sickness or suffering but passed away like one "who wrapt the drapery of her couch around her and lay down to pleasant dreams", pleasant dreams, indeed for her, for I fully believe her peace was made with her Maker and she is now enjoying a sweet tranquility, the reward for her good deeds done on earth. But I am showing a degree of selfishness in this intruding upon thee my own private grief. I feel sad and lonely, and if I err in thus holding a little converse with thee, my dear friend, excuse me and look upon it for what it is worth.

I have called several times at Thomas' but there seems to be a blank now that a certain young lady has taken her departure.

As ever thy friend

William

From William Frame to his bride. A pressed flower is enclosed in the original letter.

Flushing, 2 mo. 28/54 (1854)

My dear Wife,

What a multitude of thoughts come rushing upon me in addressing this - my first epistle to "My dear Wife". I would I could command language to express my feelings but nature has been more bountiful in her gifts of the heart than talents.

That I miss thee- thee of course must know, but the extent is only known to myself. I got safely home about 2 oc. and during the afternoon we were favored with a call from Miss Boerum and sister with a card of invitation to a party at their house on 6th day eve next. Do not know how large a one but suppose twill be extensive. Feel quite relieved it should come off during thy absence as that will afford sufficient excuse for our non-appearance. Sister Catharine went to Brother Thomas' this morning and returns tomorrow. I told little Mary of thy wish to have her spend the day with thee - she was highly delighted and every now and then it would be "Now Uncle Bill thee must be sure and come for me and come early". Thomas Leggett Jr. was very much disappointed on 7th day last to find we would not be at home as he and Miriam had fixed upon spending the evening with us. I can not help regretting thee arranged to leave Flushing so soon. Uncle Thomas' folks were like Maria, making preparation for having us meet our brothers and sisters there socially to tea. It is now growing late and I must draw this to a close. In regard to my coming on 7th day next with my box wagon I think I will be doubtful as "Napoleon" was a little lame again the next morning from the long drive. I am almost inclined to come with the cars. I have not seen Mary but will probably do so tomorrow and will then determine. The travelling will have its influence but in all probability it will be bad.

I must now conclude with a to my affectionate wife

And believe me as ever thy attached husband

3rd day evening, 1/2 past 11 oc.

(At this point in the original letter there was a sketch of a man and girl kissing.)

To Mrs. William Frame, Flushing, Long Island.

Alexandria, 6 mo. 11 1860

My Dear Wife

We arrived in this place about 7 o.c. this eve and tomorrow shall go to Uncle A's place. Got along very comfortably (considering all things) left Charles Roc at Baltimore. Broke axle of one car, nobody hurt, got a little tired, just enough to make us sleep well however, and shall soon go to bed at 1/2 past nine o. c. Can't have our Dear little Katy's arms around my neck but must make the best of it. Do write and direct to the Continental House, Philadelphia that I may hear how you are. Good night. Kiss little Kitt for me.

Thy attached Hus.

To Mrs. William Frame, Flushing, Long Island.

Willards Hotel
Washington, 6 mo. 13 1860

My Dear Wife,

We have just returned from the farm and have only time to scratch a few lines before the mail leaves. I hope thee will write me at Phila. Have had a pleasant time thus far and shall be home on 7th day. I trust you are all well and that the men are getting along properly. Tell little Kitty her father wants to see her wonderfully.

Thine as ever

Wm. Frame

"Frank delivered thy message regarding the records in the old family Bible. But I did not respond to it immediately because I was making all things ready for my leaving home on a visit to Flushing where I was sure of getting more information than I could give thee regarding it. Sister Maria told me Uncle Thomas had Grandfather's Bible and I presume one of the sons has it now. I did not see Ans(?) I found some memoranda in my Father's Bible which I copied off thinking they might be useful to thee. As far as I can discover from remarks I heard when I was young, made by Mother and Aunt Sophia Underhill's family our Aristocratic Blood on our Mother's side of the house came thro the Popes who I heard held a high Position in the Bermuda Islands under the English government and came from there to settle in Newport, R. I. Aunt Sophia Underhill was the only one who visited them, she being among the eldest children, I think, and I used to be interested in hearing of their style of living and the elegant furniture and solid plate they used daily. One of them married a Redwood who donated a large sum to the Library at Newport and it is now called the Redwood Library. I think they were on Great Grandmother's Haight's side of the house. Where the Leggetts and Haight's came from I do not know. I think the oldest member of the Leggetts settled in Saratoga and Aunt Mary Maxwell's children very likely could tell more about them.

I have felt often within twenty years how important it is to know something of one's Ancestors. We have been at considerable trouble to trace of my Father's life and his family who lost their parents when Father (Jesse Frame) was a child and find they came originally from Scotland in consequence of Religious Persecution and were called in Scotland "Covenanters" and here Presbyterians and settled near New Garden in Penna. and are an intelligent, educated and refined family attached to that church mostly, and I know of 4 of them being clergymen of excellent standing. Jesse Frame and his brother William were educated and lived with their Aunt and Uncle Jacob Lindley, a minister in the Friends Society. As the children grew up they scattered to different states in Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Illinois and some of their children are in Kansas.

Note. This letter was unsigned and a copy of it was sent me by Miss Frances W. Pennypacker of Phoenixville, Pa. As Jesse Frame is referred to as "Father" and the Leggetts and Popes were ancestors of Jesse's wife, and William³ Frame, son of Jesse² married Phebe Willetts, daughter of Isaac and Amy (Underhill) Willetts, it seems probable that the letter was written by William³ Frame.

Children by his second wife:

- iii. Nancy Douw⁷, b.
- iv. John Roberts⁷, b.

WILLIAM FRAME AND HIS DECENDANTS

SECOND GENERATION

WILLIAM² FRAME (David¹), born in Chester Co., Pa., 2 or 29 June 1776; died at Poland, Ohio, 10 Feb. 1842; married 20 Feb. 1802, REBECCA MARSH, born 22 Oct. 1775; died at Poland, Ohio, 20 July 1842, daughter of Rolph and Jannet (-----) Marsh of Rahway Township, Essex Co., N. J.

William² Frame, having lost his mother when he was less than ten years old, was, with his older brother Jesse, taken into the home of his mother's half-sister Hannah, (daughter of James Miller and his second wife Rebecca (Kirk) Miller). Hannah Miller had been married twice, (her first husband was William Miller) and when William Frame became a member of the household, she was living with her second husband, Jacob Lindley, who was also a member of the Society of Friends. William had been with the couple a comparatively short time when his aunt Hannah died.

On 26 June 1800, at the Pottstown Meeting, Pa., Jacob Lindley married as his second wife, Ruthanna Rutter, born 3 Jan. 1768; died 10 Sept. 1810, who was a daughter of Thomas and Martha (Potts) Rutter of Philadelphia. Ruthanna Rutter had joined the Exeter Meeting in May 1787, and both she and her husband were ministers in the Society of Friends.

It is evident that the couple were generous, warm-hearted and sympathetic, devoted to the interests of the Frame boys who continued to live in the Lindley home. They always called Ruthanna "Aunt" and that she had been taken into their hearts, and her kindness appreciated is shown by the fact that her name has been carried down several generations in the William Frame line.

The first mention of the name of William Frame is found in the Minutes of the Sadsbury Meeting, when, on 4 Jan. 1797, he was one of the witnesses to the marriage of his sister Rachel² Frame to George² Mercer of Sadsbury Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

The "Recollections" of his daughter Mary Marsh³ (Frame) Meacham give us an interesting account of some of the experiences of the family (p. 203). We learn that William and his wife began life together in New York City where William was engaged in the grocery business. He did not remain there long, for in 1805 he was in Downington, Pa., proprietor of an Inn. He also became the postmaster, the post office being located in the Inn. According to his daughter all but the first of his ten children were born in Downington, Pa. Sometime in 1823 or 1824, William Frame removed with his family to Baltimore, Md., and there became proprietor of another Inn, known as the "Golden Horse Tavern". Another daughter, Eliza, by name, often told her grandchildren that Lafayette was there in 1824, also that she was invited to his "Birthrite Ball" which was held on a boat in Baltimore harbor. She was eighteen at the time.

Two years later William moved to another Inn which was four miles from Baltimore and on the Post Road. This location being in the country, attracted many of the Baltimoreans, who made extended stays at the Inn in order to escape the heat of the city.

Still another move took the family to Ohio, where William's elder brother Benjamin Frame had settled, and there William and his wife spent the remainder of their lives. Both are buried in the New Cemetery at Poland, Ohio.

The will of Rolph Marsh of the Township of Rahway, Essex Co., N. J. is dated 22 Sept. 1804. In it he mentions his wife Jannet. To his daughter Rebecca Marsh Frame, wife of William Frame he leaves $500.00 "to be levied out of my estate and paid to her in one year after my decease by my executors, together with the lawful interest arising thereon from the time of my decease, provided always and upon condition my said daughter Rebecca or her lawful representative makes or brings any charge against my estate on any account whatsoever". The executors were his sons Lewis R. and Sidney Marsh. The other children were not mentioned by name. (Trenton, N. J. Court House)

Eliza was only fifteen when she returned home to help her invalid mother care for the flock of younger sisters and brothers, and to wait on her father and brush his powdered wig and braid and tie it neatly - "for we were always great cronies, he and I, my dear, and he said no one could do his hair so well as I". So she used to say, when she was past eighty.

When she was sixteen came that great event in every girl's life, the first ball. Here is a copy of the invitation.

RUTHANNA LINDLEY³ FRAME (William², David¹), born at Downington, Pa., 8 Mar. 1809; died at Poland, Ohio, 8 June 1888; married at Poland, Ohio, 5 Apr. 1829, BILLIUS KIRTLAND, born 29 Aug. 1807; died at Poland, Ohio, 21 Aug. 1891, son of Judge Turhand and Mary (Potter) Kirtland of Wallingford, Conn., and Poland, Ohio.

Ruthanna Lindley³ Frame was named for Ruthanna (Rutter) Lindley, wife of Jacob Lindley, who had reared her father, William² Frame. She attended the Quaker Boarding School in Wilmington, Del., where her elder sister Eliza had spent two years.

The following quotation is taken from an article written by Miss Florence Campbell which was published in the Kansas City Star in 1910.

"Meanwhile the little sister Ruthanna who had taken Eliza's place at the school was cheerfully writing home in the daintiest cooper-plate hand such moral reflections as these.

Wilmington, June 20, 1820

Dearest Sister: Yesterday after the return of a most elegant walk and which added greatly to my pleasure what do I spy but a letter from my dearest sis oh! how glad was I you may know my feelings my love for remember how glad we are to receive a line from those we love although there are a great many dear friends here to love those around us and to be beloved by them in return, is the great felicity the world can afford. It doubles our joys to share them with those around us and in like manner lessens our sorrows, smooths the rugged path of life and strews with roses the wilderness of woe. Now my dear Eliza, is thy happiest days. Terrestrial happiness is of short continuance. 'tis then meditation drops the veil and thought hovers round, sometimes dwelling on past scenes other times contemplating bliss to come. I am sure I have experienced enough to convince me that there is a nother source than any transitory pleasure this world can afford let us anticipate the awful moment of bidding it farewell what part then shall we wish to have?

"If your own 11-year old should favor you with an epistle like the above, at this year of grace, 1910, I incline to think you would call in the nearest doctor in haste. But it wasn't a bad

THOMAS³ FRAME (William², David¹), born at Downingtown, Pa., 5 Jan. 1811; had died at Medora, Iowa, by 6 May 1873; buried in Indianola, Iowa; married probably at Kinsman, Ohio, 16 Jan. 1840, MARY BRACKEN, born at Kinsman, Ohio, in 1818; died at Minneapolis, Minn., in 1888, daughter of David and Mary (Hayes) Bracken of Kinsman, Ohio, and later of Pontiac, Mich.

Thomas³ Frame was Justice of the Peace at Poland, Ohio, for eighteen years. He was a very able man, highly respected by other members of the legal profession in Mahoning Co.,

Ohio. When he moved to Iowa, which at that early date was a new country, Mr. Frame was very helpful in getting schools established, in laying out roads and in the numerous activities which always face members of a community under such conditions. In Iowa, he became a sheep farmer.

Mary (Bracken) Frame's father, David Bracken fought in the War of 1812. Her mother Mary (Hayes) Bracken was a cousin of Pres. Rutherford B. Hayes. After the death of her husband, she resided with her son, James Bracken⁴ Frame, for ten years.

The name of Thomas³ Frame with that of his wife and three children appears on the 1860 Census of the Town of Poland, Ohio.

Children, born at Poland, Ohio:

- * i. James Bracken⁴, b. 21 Apr. 1842.
- * ii. Rebecca⁴, b. 18 Mar. 1843.
- iii. Clara⁴, b. 15 Mar. 1846; d. at Minneapolis, Minn., in July 1890; mar. Joseph Wilson and lived in Indiana. No chn.

JANNET MARSH³ FRAME (William², David¹), born at Downingtown, Pa., 10 Aug. 1812; died 22 Mar. 1862; married 17 May 1837, DUDLEY ALLEN, M. D., born 27 June 1814; died at Oberlin, Ohio, 11 Apr. 1898, son of Peter Allen, M. D. and his first wife Charity Dudley.

Dr. Dudley Allen was a descendant of Benjamin and Rebecca (-----) Allen of Norwich, Conn. His father, Peter Allen, who was a physician and surgeon, had moved West to Kinsman, Ohio, where he practiced for forty years. Dr. Dudley Allen went from Kinsman to Oberlin about 1865 for the practice of medicine and there he died. He was a cousin of Albert Allen who married Eliza³ Frame, elder sister of Jannet Marsh Frame.

The Allen Memorial Hospital in Oberlin was erected in 1925 as a memorial to both Dr. Dudley Allen and his son, Dr. Dudley Peter Allen.

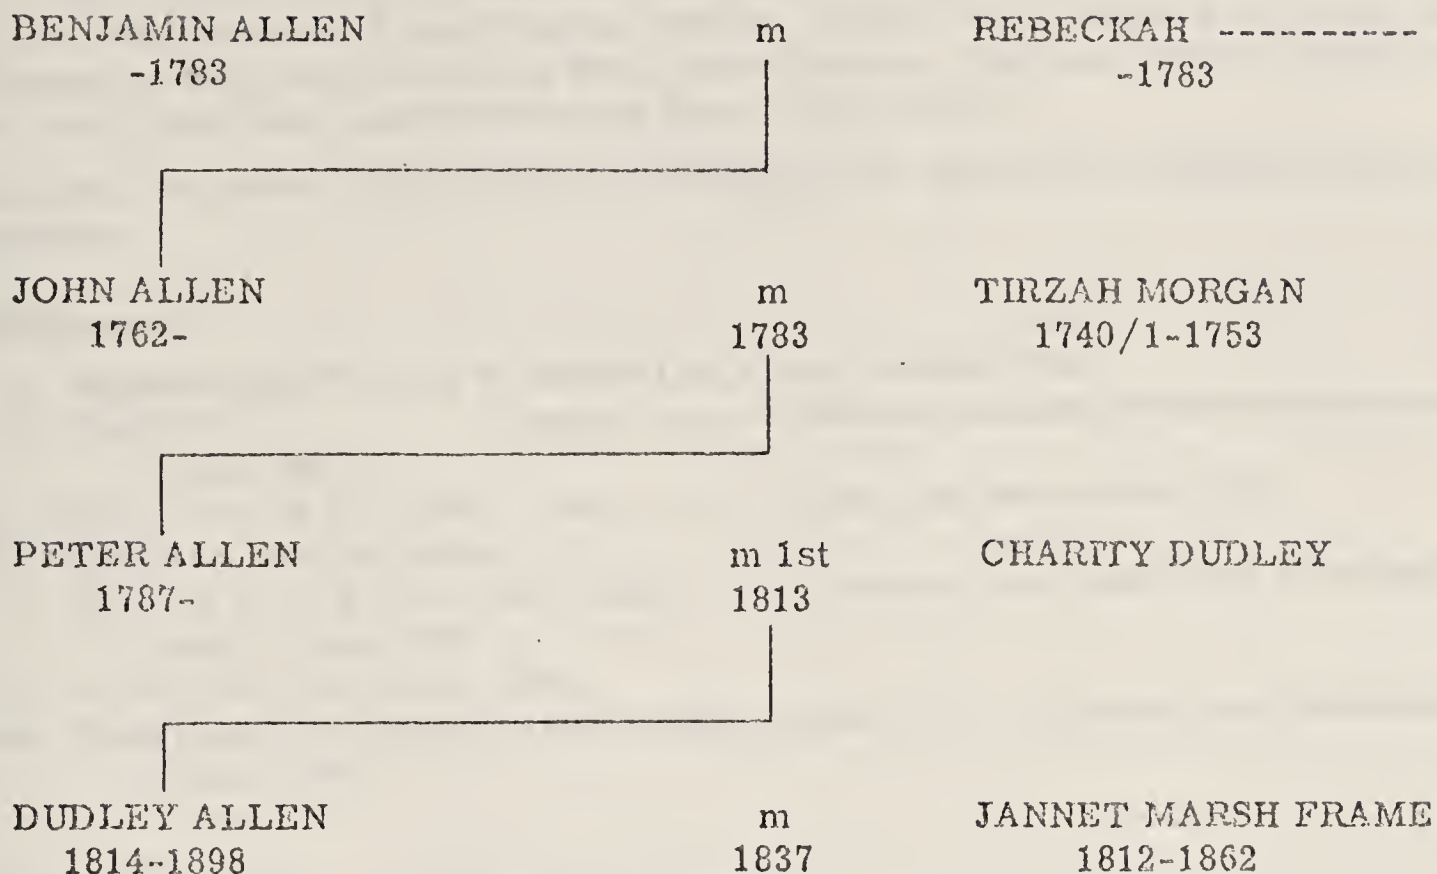

Children, probably born in Kinsman, Ohio:

- i. Martha Dudley Allen, b. 30 May 1838; d. in June 1846.
- * ii. Emily C. Allen, b. 9 June 1840.
- iii. Theresa Rebecca Allen, b. 4 Apr. 1842; d. in July 1867.
- iv. Cornelia Allen, b. .
- v. James Allen, b. .
- * vi. Dudley Peter Allen, b. 25 Mar. 1852.

WILLIAM S. M.³ FRAME (William², David¹), born at Downingtown, Pa., 11 Sept. 1814; died in the Woodward Post Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio, 6 Apr. 1865; married at Quakertown, Bucks Co., Pa., 23 Nov. 1839, JULIA A. BAKER, born in 1818; died "in the 80's".

William S. M. Frame was a farmer and served in the Civil War. He enlisted in Company H. 37th Regiment of the Iowa Volunteers, and became Sergeant in Capt. Hensham's company. He joined this company at Clay Township, Washington Co., Iowa 26 Sept. 1862, and was mustered in at Muscatine, Iowa 15 Dec. 1862. He "served honestly and faithfully to the day of his death".

His widow, Julia A. Frame applied for a pension in April 1865. She stated she was a resident of Clay P. O., Washington Co., Iowa. She gave her age as 47, but not the date nor place of her birth. She did give the date and place of her marriage and declared the children of her marriage to William S. M. Frame were the following:

Mary Frame, b. 17 July 1850; Alan Frame, b. 26 June 1852; Albert Frame, b. 23 Oct. 1855; Julia Anna Frame, b. 10 Apr. 1859, all living and the only ones under 16 years.

Birth affidavits of Washington Co., Iowa, give the names and dates of the children born as above, but listed a female child named Laura A. Frame, born 6 June 1853, and there is no mention in these public records of Alan Frame, born according to his mother on 26 June 1852.

On 25 Aug. 1866, Julia Frame, widow, states her children as follows:

Mary Frame, b. 26 July 1850; Albert T. Frame b. 23 Oct. 1855; Laura A. Frame, b. 6 June 1853; Julia A. b. 10 Apr. 1860.

Martha K. (Swihart) Frame, widow of William Clark Frame, in her application for a pension, dated 17 Jan. 1917, stated that her husband was the son of William Frame; that William Clark Frame had one brother named Albert Frame, and four sisters, two of whom were dead. She gave their names as Mrs. Mary Cook and Mrs. Annie Tansley. The two sisters who were living at Indianola, Iowa, were Mrs. Lucy Moore and Mrs. Alice Sinnott.

From this data the names of the children of William S. M. and Julia A. (Baker) Frame are listed as follows:

Children:

- * i. William Clark⁴, b. in Trumbull Co., Ohio, 14 July 1842.
- ii. Lucy⁴, b. ; mar. -----Moore, and was living at Indianola, Iowa, 17 Jan. 1917.
- iii. Mary⁴, b. 17 July 1850; mar. -----Cook, and had died by 1917.
- iv. Alan⁴, b. 26 June 1852.
- v. Laura A.⁴, b. 6 June 1853; mar. -----Sinnott, and was living at Indianola, Iowa, 17 Jan. 1917.
- vi. Albert T.⁴, b. 23 Oct. 1855.
- vii. Julia Anna⁴, b. 10 Apr. 1859 or 1860; mar. -----Tansley, and had died by 17 Jan. 1917.

Recollections of Mary Frame³ Meacham when she was 71, while she was visiting her sister, Ruthanna Frame who died two months before this was written, or at least dated. Perhaps the paper was laid away and taken out after the trouble over the death of her sister. It seems to have been worked on at different times.

Poland, Ohio
August 8, 1888.

William² and Rebecca Frame, my parents-

There were nine children of us, three sons and six daughters. Father was from Pennsylvania, brought up by an aunt, a Quaker preacher, Ruthanna Lindley was her name. He married Rebecca Marsh of New Jersey, her father's name was John Marsh, his wife's name was Jannett. I have heard Mother tell of her father and mother having hard times in the War of 1812. My parents began life (together) in New York. He commenced in grocery business. Their first child was born there, her name was Mary Miller Frame. She died while an infant, and being strangers in the city they decided to take the babe back to her home in New Jersey to bury. She had to go on a schooner, no steamship in those days. She traveled all night and set by her darling baby. Father could not leave so she was alone and the home folks knew nothing of it until she arrived. It was a sad coming home. I do not remember how soon she returned to New York. The family was of Scotch descent. Her father served in the Revolutionary war and claimed royal blood. Mother's sisters names were, Mary, Ann, Letitia and Elizabeth. Brothers were Lewis, John, George. I do not know how long they lived in New York but moved to Pennsylvania. Father engaged in the milling business. He was of Irish descent and the children were all born in Chester county, and lived there many years. Eliza the eldest was educated at Wilmington Boarding school for girls, only a Quaker school I think. George the eldest brother was sent to New York to learn to be a millwright, and stayed until he married.

Ruthanna Lindley, second daughter was named for Father's aunt who brought him up. Thomas was named for one of Father's brothers. He had four brothers, Jesse, David, James and Benjamin or Reuben Frame. Sisters Rachel, Sarah and Jane, all I remember.

When I was about 13 years old (13 is crossed out and the correction might read 14, 17, 19), I went back with brother George and stayed a year. He took me to visit my uncles and aunts in Rahway, and on Staten Island. We visited uncle Lewis- they treated us to clams. We went on snow across the Sound frozen up. It was very unusual but that year many heavy teams crossed the Sound. I see some very old fashioned furniture of mahogany. After staying there a year my brother moved to Ohio in a two horse carriage he bought for Billins Kirtland, Ruthanna's husband.

Now to go back to my childhood. My father left the milling business and opened a public house in Downingtown, Pennsylvania on the Turnpike about 50 miles from Philadelphia. He also kept the post office. In early days people traveled by stages and their stopping place was at our house for dinner. This was Downingtown. We children were born there. I remember it well that they kept black help and Father owned a black boy called Bill. The people were mostly Quakers. My Father was raised a Quaker. Mother a Presbyterian. I wish I could remember dates. When I was five years old my parents moved to Maryland, Baltimore City, and kept a Tavern; it was called the (Golden Horse) ? It was in the upper part of the city near Washington monument. We only stayed there two years and moved four miles out on the Turn Pike. That seemed like the country and we children enjoyed it and our folks kept a tavern or more of a boarding house for city people to come out summers. Father was fond of flowers and had a lovely garden and yard. Our neighbors owned slaves. They were Quakers. As a child I remember they had dogs housed and kept them chained up through the day and let them out nights. We were afraid to go to the neighbors but she was a widow, had two daughters, young ladies that often called at our house. Mother sent Rebecca and I on an errand to Mrs. Hunt's ? and when we got in their yard the dog was loose and came at us and jumped on me and I screamed which brought the ladies out very soon and called off the dog.

I was not bitten but badly scared. They took us in and the ladies gave us something and played the piano for us and we soon scampered home. On the north a Capt. Anderson lived who owned many negroes and hounds they kept chained days. We children would go there, they had no children, lived in grand state, and on their mantelpiece they had globes with gold and silver fish. They were very nice to us and showed us many pretty things. After staying there two years the boys (?) (?) and (?) to be on a farm and my parents decided to come west - only nine children. There was a gentlemen with whom he became acquainted that owned land in Ohio and induced him to go on that farm which was in Trumbull Co., Ohio. While we were in Maryland Father had a brother David who lived 50 miles west of us. He was a Quaker and often came to see us and wanted Mother to send Ruthanna with him to attend Quaker school. They had children and Ruthanna went and enjoyed very much. After Father decided to move to Ohio the only way was then to come by land. He had a pair of horses fitted up with a wagon to accommodate the family and bring a bedstead, a few household things, and extra horses but we children walked until we were tired. We crossed the Allegheny Mountains. Mother's brother George was with us and he could play the flute and when we stopped to rest he would play and the girls sing. Ruthanna had a lovely voice. I do not remember how long it took us to our journey's end but remember well the farm and the house we expected to occupy was not vacated and we had to go into a small log cabin, only one large room and a floor half over the second story and no window, only a hole to see day light, and we girls were stowed away in the loft, my parents brought the bedstead which they enjoyed. I do not remember what the boys and uncle did do, but I remember well the girls thought that they had come to the back woods sure enough. They were ambitious and had pride enough. Sister Ruthanna rebelled and exclaimed one day in walking around the cabin, is it possible we have come to this? But we did not have to stop there. Moved into a double log house and had plenty of room but plain.

Father and uncle soon made us comfortable and we were a happy family. After about two years sister Ruthanna married Judge Kirtland's son Billins and was nicely provided for. We as a family had many ups and downs. Eliza and Jannet married Yankees.

Brother George was between Eliza and Ruthanna. Then brother Thomas. He was named for Father's brother Thomas Frame. His brothers were James, Jesse, David and Benjamin. The sisters were Rachel, Jane, Sarah all I remember. While I stayed in New Jersey I visited many aunts and uncles. George took me up North River to visit aunt Mary Descamp. I was delighted. It was in the summer when berries were ripe and vegetables. I was amazed to see all kinds of vegetables going to New York.

Brother George was attending a buzz saw which sawed mahogany veneering. Jane Maiens (?) was his wife's name. She was very kind to me. They had two children, then after moving to Ohio, they had two daughters, Henrietta, Maria and Mary. They all went back to New York to live. Brother died first and his wife very soon after. The girls learned the dressmaking business and are now there. Henrietta never married but now is doing a large business in the city. Maria and Mary and brother William married and they all became Catholics. That was a great sorrow to their parents and to us all.

And my parents died and left myself, Rebecca and Catherine to take care of ourselves. My brothers were married. After they died we lived with our sisters for some years. Rebecca had her home with Ruthanna and married Marcellus Meachem. They went west to Iowa, then a new State. My sister died and left a child and I married Marcellus and moved to Iowa and we lived together 30 very happy years, and we prospered. We had four children, Lucretia, Edgar, Dudley and Carrie. Now in 1888 I am a widow my children all married. I have sold our beautiful farm and am here in Ohio living with sister Kirkland. Her health being poor, will stay and care for her and () a pleasant home, this is in Poland where I have spent many happy days. I have professed Christ and joined the Presbyterian church when a girl and so did Rebecca. Many changes have come to me but I am happy believing in Jesus Christ our only Saviour.

JAMES BRACKEN⁴ FRAME (Thomas³, William², David¹), born in Poland, Ohio, 21 Apr. 1842; died at Osceola, Iowa, 10 Apr. 1926, and was buried at Indianola, Iowa; married at Medora, Warren Co., Iowa, 21 Jan. 1876, ELIZA OGLE, born at Wilkesville, Meigs Co., Ohio, 26 Oct. 1852; died at Burlington, Iowa, 28 Feb. 1934, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Hawk) Ogle of Meigs Co., Ohio and later of Warren Co., Iowa.

James Bracken⁴ Frame answered President Lincoln's first call for troops, which was for an enlistment of ninety days, and at the expiration of that time, he re-enlisted for three years, or for the duration of the war. He was a private in Company E., 23d Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. This was the first three year regiment organized in the State of Ohio. Mr. Frame took part in the West Virginia Campaign; the seven day battle before Richmond; 2nd. Bull Run; South Mountain and Antietam. At the latter battle he was wounded in the right fore arm and made a cripple for life. For eleven years he had little use of this arm as the wound would not heal and it was necessary for the doctor to probe and dress it every week, but after eleven years a piece of his blue blouse was extracted and then the wound healed.

The families of both Mr. and Mrs. James Bracken Frame had lived in Ohio on what was known in those days as the "Underground Railway", and they both had many stories to tell their children regarding their experiences. Mrs. Frame recalled helping serve meals to members of "Morgan's Cavalry" when they invaded Ohio during the Civil War.

Four generations of this family have defended their country.

After the close of the Civil War, James Bracken⁴ Frame and his parents decided to remove to Iowa. They were evidently imbued with the same pioneer spirit which has manifested itself in many members of this branch of the Frame family. Mr. Frame became a farmer, a live stock dealer, a breeder of fancy carriage and saddle horses and while he thought of race horses, none of the latter ever developed much speed.

In 1893 he disposed of his holdings and retired to an acreage of fourteen acres, one mile east of Osceola, Iowa, where he lived until his death. His son writes: 'He had his ups and downs' but weathered the various financial depressions which the country was subjected to and always seemed to come out on top. He and my mother lost considerable though they were in very comfortable circumstances, but, at their age, the thought of their losses bothered them even though they were so much more fortunate than most people in this section of the country."

One of his granddaughters has written as follows: "I remember my grandfather James B. Frame very well. We three older children, Eliza, Charles, and Mary used to spend our summers with our grandparents on their farm two miles east of Osceola, Iowa. Grandfather kept well bred cows and made and sold home made butter. He also had a large vegetable garden, plenty of chickens but his real hobby was raising beautiful horses. Both he and grandmother loved horses. I am now pasturing on our farm two riding horses, relatives of the horses, my grandfather owned. They are Morgan horses.

Each time the driving team was hitched to the buggy for their weekly trip to Osceola, the County Seat, and always on Sundays, as my grandmother, Eliza Ogle Frame was a very regular attendant at the Methodist Church, these horses, one a glossy black mare named Genevieve and a rather wild bay, would rear and plunge until every one was in the buggy. This my grandfather enjoyed! He would double wrap the reins around his hands and grin while he turned the wheels to the side to make a larger opening to gain entrance to the buggy. Grandmother and we children would be scared to death as she handed us up and gave us the basket for our shopping. Then gathering her taffeta skirts about her she mounted the high metal step into the buggy and we were off through the gate on to the road. We had to go under a railroad underpass and here we had another scare, as again the horses would rear and plunge much to Grandfather's satisfaction.

When the time came for us children to go home, Grandfather always drove us in the buggy to New Virginia, Iowa, our home then where my father Charles Henry⁵ Frame was depot agent for the Burlington railroad.

I liked to sit on a smaller stool and listen to my grandfather relate incidents of the Civil War, especially about the battle of Antietam, Md. I would usually ask 'Grandpa, did you ever really kill anybody?' He always evaded the question and we went on to some other incident. He talked of Gen. Geo. B. McClellan an awful lot. At Harpers Ferry my grandmother's brother, Harrison Ogle was taken prisoner during the Civil War.

My Grandmother, Eliza Ogle Frame, was one of the first early school teachers in Warren Co., Iowa. She was quite a horse back rider herself, using the side saddle then. The house in which she used to board and room while she taught in one of the schools in Warren County is still standing and is lived in. It is only about two miles from where I now live, on highway #69, just 33 miles south of Des. Moines. She was a very tiny lady and loved clothes. She had lots of lovely taffeta skirts and beautiful white waists always starched stiff. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Frame are buried in the Indianola Cemetery, Iowa, and the father of James B. Frame, Thomas Frame lies there also.

My father, Charles Henry⁵ Frame has his father's (James B. Frame) honorable discharge papers from the Federal Army (Civil War).^a (Eliza Adriana Frame Burchett, New Virginia, Iowa)

Children, both born at Medora, Iowa:

- * i. Charles Henry⁵, b. 18 Mar. 1886.
- * ii. Walter Ogle⁵, b. 27 Oct. 1889.

Charles Henry⁵ Frame was in the Railroad Service for twenty one years as telegraph operator and train despatcher and has been employed in almost all of the departments of railroading.

On his retirement, he bought a farm and has owned and operated a food store for ten years. His wife, Mrs. Bertha Johanna (Stoffels) Frame was born in the Netherlands. Her father was a well-to-do dairy farmer. He and his wife came to the United States in the early 1900's and settled near South Heart, North Dakota. They went back and forth from the United States to Holland five different times, but eventually decided to live in Holland, where Mr. Stoffels became a miller. During World War I, the Germans confiscated his flour mill with all the machinery and during the war, the family was in a desperate condition. Mr. Stoffels died at S'Hertogenbosh 28 Sept. 1949.

There is a village in Holland "Mallant" named for the family of his wife, Mrs. Adriana Johanna (Mallant) Stoffels.

SIXTH GENERATION

ELIZA ADRIANA⁶ FRAME (Charles Henry⁵, James Bracken⁴, Thomas³, William², David¹), born at Taylor, North Dakota, 14 Nov. 1911; married at Osceola, Iowa, 21 Apr. 1935, LEONARD LESLIE BURCHETT, born at Des Moines, Iowa, 2 Feb. 1911, son of Eric Joseph and Inez Irene (Keen) Burchett of Medora, Iowa.

Eliza Adriana⁶ Frame Burchett was named for her two grandmothers. Both she and her husband were teachers in the schools of Iowa before their marriage. Mrs. Burchett taught for six years and each summer went to Des Moines where she took vacation work for the different helpers in the Polk County Juvenile Home. This included teaching and the experience proved most helpful to her in her various positions.

After their marriage, Mr. Burchett became a salesman for two magazines: Better Homes and Gardens and Successful Farming. He bought a trailer house and the young couple left Iowa and for the next three years they visited nearly every state west of the Missouri River, carrying on this work. At the expiration of this, they returned to Iowa and purchased a rural grocery store which they still operate. Meantime they bought a farm of 320 acres on which they lived and raised black Angus cattle. Quite recently they have built a house about a mile from this farm and on a paved road in order to make it easier for their son to attend high school.

Child:

- i. David Eric Burchett, b. at Osceola, Iowa, 17 Feb. 1938.

CHARLES JAMES OGLE⁶ FRAME (Charles Henry⁵, James Bracken⁴, Thomas³, William², David¹), born at South Heart, North Dakota, 10 Oct. 1912; killed in action in Italy, 23 Sept. 1943.

"Charles James Ogle⁶ Frame was the elder son and second child of Charles Henry⁵ and Bertha J. Frame. The first five years of his life were spent in North Dakota, where his father was night operator and depot agent at various town on the Northern Pacific Railroad. He was a very good student and loved history. He was quite a poet in his own right and was offered a position on a New York paper shortly before entering service for World War II. After the age of five years, the family moved to Oklahoma for a year and then to Osceola and New Virginia, Iowa, where the rest of his short life was spent.

Charles J. Frame was a graduate of the Normal Training Department of the Osceola High School at the age of sixteen. He graduated from a two year course of Junior College at Osceola, Iowa, and took quite an interest in the French language which his mother, Mrs. Bertha J. Frame had also learned in the Holland schools. Three or four years were spent in Colorado where he went for his health. Asthma was quite a burden to him at all times. He worked as chemist in a sugar factory in Fort Morgan, Colo. where he went to night school and took a commercial course. Later he went to the Western slope of Colorado where he was a member of a magazine crew which sold "Better Homes and Gardens" a Des Moines, Iowa, publication.

Returning to Osceola, Iowa to join the Charles Henry Frame family again, he worked for Armour and Co. and finally took a Civil Service examination which resulted in his receiving the highest grade among the twenty three people who took it. Not too long afterwards he worked in the Osceola Post Office where he was when he entered the Service.

I must mention that during his school years he learned to play the violin from his sister Eliza. He became quite a good player after learning the first important steps and taught himself by ear and note.

Charles J. Frame left Osceola, Iowa for the U. S. Army, May 7, 1942. He started as a private and in six months had worked his way up and was graduated from the Fort Benning, Ga. Infantry School and was commissioned 2nd Lt. on Nov. 10th 1942. He came home on a furlough of six days after he received his commission and was then sent back to Ft. Benning, Ga. as an instructor, and later was sent to Camp Croft, South Carolina as the same. He was very good at lecturing and received praise from his colonel for this work.

Sometime near the middle of the month of December, 1942, he requested foreign duty and stated in a letter which I (Eliza) have that 'such requests are granted usually' and also stated 'This peace time Officer business is O. K. and I have a good chance for advancement here but would like to see the other side'. He was continually studying to better himself. Sometime during the first week in June 1943 he left the United States by troop ship and landed later (possibly two weeks later) in North Africa. From there, where he landed, he later went to Sicily and on Sept. 9, 1943 left Sicily for Italy where he landed with the 45th Infantry Division, Co. G 180 Infantry Regiment, at Salerno, Italy. The fighting was terrific and for several days the 45th Infantry Division was nearly driven into the sea.

On the morning of Sept. 23, 1943 at about 6.00 a.m. Lt. Charles J. Frame was given orders to take two squads of men and secure a line of departure for the Battalion to attack Senerchia, Italy. With them went two of the best sergeants of the company. Tech. Sgt. Lester E. Norwood, Idabel, Oklahoma and Sgt. Aubrey J. Adkins, Rush Springs, Okla. Their instructions were 'to try and determine if their line of departure was occupied and if so with how much force'.

About an hour after they were on their way, scattered German machine gun fire and a runner reported that they had contacted heavy gun fire from three points. That several men had been wounded and Lt. Frame and Sgt. Adkins had been killed. This was reported to Ba. headquarters and immediately our men moved out and attacked the enemy that had fired on our patrol. Senerchia was not captured until the following morning, Sept. 24, 1943. The men that were left on Lt. Frame's patrol told this story:

They worked their way to the foot of an open draw and had to cross about 200 yards of open terrain to reach the crest of the hill that was to be the American line of departure. Here Lt. Frame and Sgts. Adkins and Norwood had some discussions on what they should do and finally Lt. Frame and Sgt. Adkins left the men in the draw and started across this open ground. When they were twenty yards from the woods a machine gun nest directly in front of them (in the woods) opened fire killing the sergeant instantly and mortally wounding Lt. Frame. Sgt. Norwood withdrew to cover and was able to observe two Germans go out and search Sgt. Adkins and Lt. Frame and carry Lt. Frame back into the woods. Sgt. Adkins had several bullets through his chest. Lt. Frame's body was just in the woods where the machine gun nest had been. His head had been propped up and shirt unbuttoned. He had been hit in the chest and through the mouth, so he could not have lived very long after being hit.

The following day when Senerchia, Italy was captured, the two Germans were also captured. One of them had been wounded in the neck and both of them had maps and a few personal items belonging to Lt. Frame and Sgt. Adkins, on them. These two Germans failed to give a reason why they did not try to capture them instead of opening fire.

This story is authentic. I got it in contact with a Sergeant who was there and who also took part in it. Victory comes high but I feel as if it was not in vain. The enemy would have been right here in America today if our men like Lt. Charles J. Frame and the rest who were willing and able to sacrifice, had not gone to give of themselves.

Lt. Charles J. Frame is buried in the Osceola, Iowa, Legion plot where a dozen others are also buried. It is very well kept and fine services are held each year at the graves on Memorial Day.

I, Eliza, his sister felt that this whole war story should be told as a Memorial for what he has given and the honor he has bestowed upon the Frame family."

MARY CATHERINE⁶ FRAME (Charles Henry⁵, James Bracken⁴, Thomas³, William², David¹), born at South Heart, North Dakota, 26 Oct. 1913; married at Princeton, Mo., 4 Nov. 1938, SAMUEL EVERETTE MILER, born at Osceola, Iowa, 3 Feb. 1911, son of Charles Elmer and Mary Inez (McVey) Miler of Osceola, Iowa.

"Mary Catherine⁶ Frame was educated in the public schools of Osceola, Iowa. She took a course in the Normal Training School there but never taught. Instead, she turned to practical nursing and at the time of her marriage was employed at the Ford Nursing Home in Osceola.

Mr. and Mrs. Miler lived on a farm for the first two years of their married life, but after the birth of their only child, they decided to devote their lives to the work of the Lord. With this purpose in mind, they moved to Los Angeles, Calif., and enrolled for the four years course of study in the Los Angeles Bible Institute, founded by Aimee McPherson. Upon their graduation, they began their work. After a year at Fort Morgan, Colo., they moved to Flagstaff, Ariz. where they are still located. Mr. Miler is a carpenter by trade. He has not only built his own house, and also has completed the Interdenominational Church in which he and his wife both preach. This work was accomplished during any free time he had and also after his day's work was done during the evenings, when he worked as long as there was sufficient light. Mrs. Miler devotes her entire time to the church, preaching, caring for the sick and visiting the hospitals and jails. She and her husband have made many friends among the Indians."

Child:

- i. Mercedese Ramona Miler, b. at Osceola, Iowa, 31 Oct. 1939.

WALTER OGLE⁶ FRAME (Charles Henry⁵, James B.⁴, Thomas³, William², David¹), born at Osceola, Iowa, 16 Apr. 1920; married there 3 Aug. 1940, CLARA JULIA WOOD, born at Weldon, Iowa, 10 Jan. 1922, daughter of Clyde Raymond and Clara Gleason (Cartwright) Wood of Seattle, Wash.

"Walter Ogle⁶ Frame was a delicate child who was susceptible to all the diseases of childhood and always very ill from them. He was brought up in Clarke Co. Iowa and educated in the rural school in which his elder sister taught for six years. He was much interested in the school plays and took an active part in them.

At the age of sixteen he became a clerk in the store of his brother-in-law, Leonard L. Burchett and after his marriage managed a store in Hopeville, Iowa.

Mr. Frame was inducted into the U. S. Army Air Corps 23 July 1943. He received most of his training as an aerial bomber in the State of Texas, had obtained his "wings" and was about to leave for service overseas, when an old injury to his shoulder required attention. He was hospitalized at Pasadena, Calif., and later was honorably discharged.

Mr. Frame returned to Hopeville with his family and entered business for himself, later he went to Seattle, but after two years returned to Iowa, purchased a farm which he operated for a time, but eventually he became an employee of the State Highway Commission and resides at Osceola, Iowa. Like his father and grandfather, he has a great love for horses and owns a beautiful pony and yearling.

- Mr. Frame has a very genial, friendly personality and his physician once said "I always call you folk the friendly Frames. Each of you is always the same".

Mrs. Julia (Wood) Frame was graduated from the Weldon High School, Iowa. She is a very pretty woman, a good mother and housekeeper, interested and active in the Parent Teacher Association and an excellent pianist."

ADRIANNA JOHANNA⁶ FRAME (Charles Henry⁵, James Bracken⁴, Thomas³, William², David¹), born at New Virginia, Iowa, 12 Sept. 1922; married in 1940, GEORGE KOESTER, Jr., son of George and ----- (----) Koester of Bloomington, Ill.

Adrianna Johanna⁶ Frame was named for her Dutch-Holland grandmother, who is still living in Holland (1953) and is ninety two years of age. She was a good student and very fond of reading. While in the grade school in Jamison, Iowa, where the family moved after Adrianna's birth, she won many medals in the speaking contests of humorous selections in Clarke County. In the High School at Osceola, from which she graduated, she enrolled in the Normal Training Course, but at the completion of the eleventh grade, she transferred to the Commercial course.

She, with her sisters, had been taught to sew at an early age by her mother, who had become the possessor of a hand Singer sewing machine at the age of eleven, a gift from her father while the family were living in Holland. This machine had been carefully wrapped in a feather bed, packed in a trunk and brought to the United States. Adrianna had exceptional ability in designing and dressmaking, and became so proficient that while she was in high school she made not only her own gowns but also many for her sisters.

She was a very beautiful girl at the time of her marriage, with fair skin, blue eyes and naturally curly red hair. She is now residing in Bloomington, Ill., where she is the owner and operator of a Beauty Salon.

Children:

- i. Carol Ann Koester, b. 26 July 1941.
- ii. Rhoda Rhea Koester, b. 23 Feb. 1943.
- iii. Lonna Ann Koester, b. .
